

Don't Ship Your Furs Out of Town—

Mr. F. B. Woolston, who comes direct from the International Fur & Hide Co., will be in O'Neill, Nebr., at the Burlington Depot, Wednesday, January 17th. He will buy your furs and pay cash for them.

THIS is the best news that trappers in this vicinity have had since fur prices went up. This means by holding your furs until our man comes, you are assured of getting the price you know your furs are worth. Your money is paid you right on the spot. No waiting to send your furs to some distant point and not know what they are going to PAY YOU. No troublesome packing. You simply bring your furs into town. The INTERNATIONAL man looks them over and says, "Here's your money." You are satisfied or you don't sell your furs, but the INTERNATIONAL man will SATISFY YOU. Remember the date. Be sure and bring your furs in. The INTERNATIONAL man will be waiting for you. The INTERNATIONAL is one of the best known fur houses in the country. It has a wide reputation for its square dealing with trappers. The visit of this special representative is made in order that the trappers in this vicinity may get the money for their furs sooner—Don't Ship Your Furs Out of Town—Wait for the INTERNATIONAL Man. Spread this good news among your trapper friends.

CAN'T DO THE WORK.

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull, backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Minnie Bowen, O'Neill, says: "I had backache and a heavy dull pain in my kidneys that seemed to wear me all out. I couldn't get much rest at night and it was all I could do to keep at my work. There was a severe pain in the back of my head and through my shoulders. My kidneys were weak, and caused annoyance, but Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me completely."

The above statement was given June 20, 1916, and on June 14, 1920, Mrs. Bowen added: "I still think Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy. It has been a long time since I have had need of a kidney remedy."

NOTES FROM THE NORTHEAST.

O. O. Newman was on our streets Sunday.
The recent snow and rain was beneficial to fall grain which appears to be in fair condition.
Arthur Wertz demonstrated radio at the Wertz home recently which appears to be interesting.
The social at the Newman home Tuesday evening was well attended and an enjoyable time is reported.
Jack Taylor who resided on the farm known as the Dimmett place is moving to the farm vacated by Alva Davis.
Ed Rector of the Drayton and Rector ranch was in this vicinity Monday bidding on a bunch of 3-year-old steers for March delivery.
R. K. McKown will soon take possession of the H. R. Sprague home place which he purchased. Other changes in real estate is reported.
Flora Knight who reside on the H. R. Sprague farm has rented the John Daugherty farm near Walnut and will take possession in the near future.
We are advised the ex-cursion from Omaha to points in Texas will be represented by this part of the county. Round trip tickets $42 including meals and other expenses necessary relative to the five-days trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Wertz were Sunday callers at the Hendrick home. Mr. Hendrick owns and operates the ranches known as the Wm. Clark ranch also the old J. M. Hunter farm. He advises us that cattle we wintering in good condition.
The New Year is here, we are wondering if the echoes of the bells that tolled out the last hours of 1922, indicated optimism for the producer and stock raiser or a sea of uncertainty. The future will settle the problem. Let that be as it may, your correspondent's wish for the many readers of The Frontier, is prosperity which will mean contentment and happiness.

THE OLD RHYME READS:

King Solomon and King David led very merry lives
Each had three hundred concubines
And twice as many wives;
But as the years rolled on apace,
Their consciences had qualms—
King Solomon wrote the Proverbs
And King David wrote the Psalms.

THE REVERIE OF AN OLD FOSSIL

Oh! for the girl of the oldtime days—the girl that we used to know—
Whose cheeks were colored by Nature and not by the chemist's glow,
Who never heard of a "lip stick," but whose lips were soft and sweet,
And who didn't pencil her eyebrows, and who didn't gosh her feet.
Who never had been to Chicago, who gave not a hoot to please.
And who went to church on Sunday, and her skirts weren't up to her knees.
Her hat wasn't worn at an angle, but she knew how to broil a steak.
And she didn't wear "fuzzy stockings" but you ought to have sampled her cake.
Oh, for the girl of the old-time days, she'd have what she deserves.
For we've laughed long enough at the Flappers, and they're getting on our nerves,
For Sincerity's test of women is whether they're going to last
So here's to the Girl of the Future—may she be as the Girl of the Past.
