Chambers Sun: Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bradshaw, of Inez, January 25, a fine baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. DeHart are the proud parents of a 9½ pound boy, born January 21.

Next Wednesday is St. Valentine's Day. The stores have been displaying many pretty valentines for the past week and seem to have plenty to supply the wishes of the young folks.

The ice crop is being harvested this week. Tom Murphy began hauling Tuesday and the Gatz boys began Wednesday. The ice is about eight or ten inches thick and of a very good quality.

Miss Sadie Harte went to Omaha the first of the week for a ten days visit with friends. Miss Florence McCafferty is taking her place as stenographer in the real estate office of C. M. Daly.

David D. Cottrell, who has been a patient in the Norfolk state hospital, committed suicide last Friday night by hanging himself in the timber near the hospital. He was an ex-service man and leaves a wife in Sioux City. He was the son of J. M. Cottrell of this city.

Mrs. Irma Stout went to Lincoln Friday where she is visiting with her sister, Miss DeMaris at Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority House. She will be absent two weeks.

Mrs. Fayne Dixon, of Blair, has been employed as a high school teacher to fill the vacation caused by the resignation of Edward Schmitt, who is now teaching in Creighton high school, Omaha.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Pettibone, of Sidney, Nebraska, went to Denver, Colorado, last week where Dr. Pettibone is seeking relief from an irritated stomach that has been bothering him for some time.

Mrs. George Longstaff expects to extend her visit from Kansas City to Chicago, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Hilda Goodenberger, who recently submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

Richard Henderson, of Glidden, Iowa, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Henry last Friday. The gentlemen are cousins. Mr. Henderson is a representative of the Kirshbaum creamery, Omaha.

The House of Representatives Tuesday killed the bill introduced by Representative Thatcher, of Boyd county, asking for an appropriation to reimburse them for the indebtedness incurred by the Walter Simmons trial.

J. H. Shultz returned Saturday night from a three weeks visit with relatives and friends in eastern Nebraska and Iowa. Mr. Shultz reports that business is good and money is comparatively easy to what it has been for the past two years.

Chambers Sun: The people of Ballagh and vicinity are rejoicing over the fact that lumber is now being hauled to erect a large country store and cream station at the Ballagh post office. Mr. Ballagh is also planning on putting in a full line of haying machinery.

As an evidence that times are getting better and things are not so bad, Zimmerman & Son, in speaking of the business done last year say that the volume of business during 1922 was greater than during any year since they entered the creamery business thirty-three years ago. Mr. Zimmerman says that he finds in checking up the year's business that poultry brings greater returns to the farmer than hogs or cream.

Don't fail to see the "Womanless Wedding" at the K. C. Hall, Feb. 13.

Miss Mary Carney spent a couple of days in Omaha the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor entertained about fifty young folks at a dancing party at their home last Thursday evening. Luncheon was served during the evening.

Miss Evelyn Stannard is entertaining about twenty eight young lady friends at a seven o'clock dinner followed by bridge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor this evening.

The Frontier's subscription list is growing every day. Hardly a day passes that we do not add one or more names to our large list of interested readers, and we are not giving away any automobiles, diamond rings, phonographs, gold pieces on trips to California to induce people to take The Frontier; some how-or-other they just want it.

Chambers Sun: Mr. Roodel Root, formerly of Amelia, but recently of Coody, has returned to his old home place south of Amelia. We understand Mrs. Root is coming soon. Mr. Root and family have made this their home for many years and have a wide scope of acquaintances who will extend a hearty welcome and rejoice to have such a congenial couple as friends and neighbors.

At a meeting of the school board Monday evening Prof. E. H. Suhr was re-elected superintendent of the public schools for next year at a salary of $2,400.00. This is an increase of $400 over last year. The work of Prof. Suhr has been very satisfactory and the board was well pleased with the progress of the school during the time that he has been in charge.

The Frontier is sending out statements to those who are in arrears on their subscription. We would be pleased if those who know themselves to be in arrears would drop into the office or mail us a check. It may be some time before you receive a statement of your account for the reason that it takes considerable time to send statements to such a large list, which by-the-way, is growing steadily.

The gentlemen members of the Half and Half Club entertained the lady members of the club at a 6:30 o'clock dinner Thursday evening at the Subway followed by a theatre party at the Royal. From the theatre party they went to the J. B. Mellor home on east Douglas street, and joined the dancing party. The members of the club are: Miss Irma Stout, Miss Bessie McLeod, Miss Florence McCafferty, Miss Ida Chapman, Miss Genevieve Biglin, Miss Helen Wilcox, Messrs. Frank Froelich, C. W. Conklin, W. J. Froelich, Edward O'Donnell, George M. Harrington, J. D. Cronin.

Valentine Republican: Monday morning the case of the State vs. Ralph Mills, charged with taking a fever without the permission of its owner, Charles Keech, and driving it to Springfield, was taken up. The complaining witness on direct examination stated that he had not given Mills, who had formerly owned the car, permission to use it, and in fact had forbidden him to use it any more, but on cross-examination he weakened and when asked if he had not given Mills some such general permission, replied that he "didn't remember." Judge Westover thereupon directed a verdict for the defendant, who went on his way rejoicing. The boy comes from a good family at O'Neill, has never been in trouble before, and was rooming with Keech at the time the incident occurred, so it is thought that the complaining witness simply lost his head when he found Mills had taken the car, and concluded that the latter was not coming back.

HOLT COUNTY MAN SUED FOR ALIENATION

Asa R. Acton, of Omaha, Nebraska, through his attorney, George M. Harrington, Friday, filed a suit for $25,000.00 against Jade Honeywell, residing near Bliss post office, in this county, for the alienation of his wife's affections.

Acton recites in his petition that he and his wife, Stella, were married in Council Bluffs, Iowa, January 28, 1922, and that they lived happy and contented until about the 19th day of June of that year. On the last date mentioned the wife departed for the home of her father, George Frank, who resides near Bliss post office in Holt county.

The petition goes on to relate numerous reasons why his claim should be granted; among other things the plaintiff claims infidelity and alleges that the defendant and the wife, Stella, went through a marriage ceremony at Ainsworth.

The plaintiff avers that the damage resulting from acts of the defendant in the action has caused him great worry and anxiety, and therefore thinks that $25,000.00 is not an unjust claim.

FORMER O'NEILL MAN MADE RAILROAD DIRECTOR

The Sioux City Tribune of last Friday contained the announcement that John McHugh had been elected one of the directors of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad to fill a vacancy upon the board.

Mr. McHugh was a resident of O'Neill during the '90s coming here to take charge of the banking business of the O'Neill State bank following the management of "Doc" Mathews who had just severed his connection with the bank. Mr. McHugh went to Sioux City some time during the year 1898 where he engaged in the banking business and rapidly became a leader in banking circles. Eastern capitalists recognized his ability and he was given the position, a number of years ago, of president of the Mechanics and Metals bank of New York City, which position he still holds.

KIND NEIGHBORS HUSK SIXTY ACRES OF CORN

On January 24th about thirty-eight neighbors and friends gather at the Earl Plymmer home and proceeded to husk his sixty acre field of corn for him. Mr. and Mrs. Plymmer have been in a hospital in Omaha for the past two months where they are taking treatment. The latest word from them is to the effect that they are improving but not very rapidly.
