HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTS

Each member of the cast carried their parts exceptionally well and fully merited the applause which they received.

The success of the play is largely due to the efforts of Mrs. E. H. Suhr, of the high school faculty, who has worked faithfully to make the play something to be proud of, and she, without doubt, has gained that end.

The tea party and song of the four little girls, Elizabeth Henry, Hazel Schwisow, Helen Hancock and Nona Bressler, and the vocal selection of Amalia Merrill, were specialties that were greatly enjoyed.

INCOME TAX FACTS.

Revenue officers are visiting every county in the United States to aid taxpayers in the preparation of their income tax returns for the year 1922. Information concerning the date of their arrival and the location of their offices may be obtained by writing the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives.

Forms for filing returns of individual net income for the year 1922 are being sent to taxpayers who filed returns for the year 1921. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to file a return and pay the tax on time, on or before March 15, 1923. The forms, 1040A for filing returns of net income $5,000 and less and 1040 for filing returns of net income in excess of $5,000, may be obtained from collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors.

Returns are required of every single person whose net income for 1922 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person whose net income was $2,000 or more or whose gross income $5,000 or more. Careful study of the instructions on the forms will greatly aid in making a correct return.

In the making of his income tax return for the year 1922, a taxpayer, if single, income for the year 1922 was $5,000 or less is allowed an exemption of $2,500. The exemption allowed a married person or head of a family whose net income was in excess of $5,000 is $2,000. A head of a family is a person who actually support one or more persons living in his or her household who are closely related to him or her by blood, marriage or adoption.

An additional credit of $400 is allowed for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon the taxpayer for chief support, if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self support because mentally or physically defective. A single man whose net income for 1922 was $2,000 and who supports in his home an aged mother would have no tax to pay, but would nevertheless be required to file a return. The fact that a person's income may be nontaxable by reason of the exemptions does not nullify the requirement to file a return if his income was within the prescribed figures—$1,000 if single and $2,000 if married.

The normal tax is 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the exemptions, and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four installments due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15.

JACKIE COOGAN SCORES BIGGEST TRIUMPH AS UNIQUE "OLIVER TWIST"

That little Jackie Coogan has finally come into the period of his greatest possibilities was the opinion of house filling throngs at every theatre when "Oliver Twist" was presented. That Jackie equalled with his precocious genius and his marvelous instinct for acting, all the opportunities the role of Oliver afforded him was equally certain, and that he will have extended his circle of admirers by many millions more throughout the world, is in the nature of an axiom, so sure it is.

An inherently vigorous story has been welded of pieces of the original Dickens' novel and this welding process is entirely Frank Lloyd's, who not only adapted the scenario from the book, but directed the making of the picture with his usual—indeed unusual—skill. Nothing that Lloyd has done is a finer manifestation of the director's scope of vision. His understanding of human emotions and his capacity to handle intimate scenes with feeling and tumultuous episodes (like that of the chase after Oliver and the capture of Fagin) with powerful, thrilling realism were fully disclosed.
