LOCAL MATTERS.

Wm. Dailey was down from Emmet Wednesday.

Mrs. Georgia Rasley is recovering from a several weeks' illness.

County Attorney J. D. Cronin was in Ewing on business Wednesday.

J. H. Pinkerman is at Lynch and Scottville on business this week.

Glen Smith, of near Chambers, was transacting business in this city on Wednesday.

John Linehart went out to his farm last Monday to look after business for a few weeks.

Stuart Advocate: Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber, February 14, 1923, an eight pound baby girl.

Miss Hazel Bridges has accepted a position as assistant in the dental parlors of Dr. L. A. Burgess.

A number of public sales are being held this week and still a larger number are scheduled for next week.

James Pinkerman expects to accompany an excursion to Texas soon with a view to purchasing a tract of land.

Ed. Evans, the purchasing agent for the Sioux City Stock Yards, was a guest of J. B. Ryan Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Tom Murphy has stored 3,000 tons of ice in his several ice houses. Work has been suspended awaiting a new installment of cold weather.

J. H. Shultz says that he knows that it pays to advertise. Recently he advertised an auto for sale and sold it early the next morning after The Frontier was printed.

A number of changes will be made among the renters during the coming ten days. Some of the renters are moving away and will try their luck in other parts of the state.

Atkinson Graphic: Arnold Attwood, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Porter, was born November 11, 1922, and departed this life January 26, 1923, aged two months and twelve days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson arrived here Monday from Casper, Wyoming and are spending a few days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson, before going to their home at Martin, South Dakota.

Grand Patriarch D. E. Button, of York, was in O'Neill last night in the interest of the Encampment branch of Oddfellowship.

C. P. Uhl returned Tuesday night from Danbury, Iowa, where he has been in connection with the settlement of his mother's estate. He expects to make another trip to Danbury during the early part of March.

Atkinson Graphic: Mrs. J. O. Hubbell, landlady of the Golden hotel O'Neill, spent Sunday night visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Griffin. Master Billy accompanied his grandmother home for a short stay.

The Battle Creek Enterprise comes to our desk each week and is a bright and fairly newsy sheet. The Enterprise is the only paper published in the state that does not carry a date nor the name of the fellow who edits it, as far as we have been able to observe.

S. J. Weekes went to Omaha last week where he will, as administrator, look after some business connected with the estate of the late Moses P. Kinkaid. From Omaha he went to Oklahoma and Texas where he will also look after the interests of the estate. He may be absent for some time.

Mrs. M. O. McManus and daughter, Mrs. Ward Knapp, of Alsask, Canada, have been visiting at the L. A. Simonson home in this city. Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Knapp have been visiting at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Irwin Simonson northeast of this city, for the past two months. They expect to visit relatives in Lincoln in the near future.

Mrs. Clarence Campbell and daughter, Miss Constance, started Wednesday evening for their home in Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Campbell and daughter have been visiting O'Neill relatives for several months, being called here last fall by the serious illness of Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. John Skirving, who has almost fully regained her health.

Special Deputy Sheriff Wm. Hershiser has been busy during the past week arresting autos that do not have a 1923 license tag. The county treasurer's office reports that 450 more receipts have already been written than were written during a corresponding period last year. Mr. Hershiser has been working in different towns in the county gathering in cars with last year's numbers on them.

O'Neill has dropped into an epidemic of the "flu" or something similar. Most of the cases are of a mild form, however, and are causing no anxiety. The schools were badly depleted the first of the week, there being forty-three absent from high school Monday. Many of the other towns of the county are also reporting similar trouble. "Flu" is no longer quarantined but is considered a "placard" disease, according to a bulletin sent out by the state department.

47 years ago in The Verdigris Citizen: B. S. Gillespie and T. M. Seargent, of Canton, D. T., returned last Monday from an extended trip up the Niobrara River, and are more than pleased with the country. They declared there is not a better place in the West—and they have been over considerable during the past 18 years—for stock raising and farming than the Niobrara Valley and the valley tributary. They will bring a good number of immigrants from their vicinity to this.

EMMET CORRESPONDENCE.

(Received last Friday.)

George Lawrence has been quite ill during the cold weather.

Jack Abart was down from Bassett one day last week to visit with his grandfather, Geo. Lawrence.

Both of the ice houses in town were filled last week. The ice was not very thick but was of a good quality.

The young people of the neighborhood enjoyed a dance at the home of C. E. Tenborg last Friday night.

Mrs. Rasmussen is enjoying a visit with her sister, Miss Lindblad, who arrived from Iowa week before last.

A. L. Cole, of Morecroft, Wyoming, has been visiting with relatives in Emmet and Ewing for the past two weeks.

Joe Bable Sr. shipped a car load of hogs to the Omaha market Wednesday. George Pongratz shipped a car load last week.

Mrs. D. C. Winship, of University Place, arrived last Wednesday to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Brion, who died Friday. Mr. Winship came up Friday afternoon. They will remain with Mrs. C. M. Cole for a few weeks.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Second Grade.

Jerome Ashton, Frank Ratliff, Thomas Liddy, Bennett Sanders, Robert Cook, Leon Wyant, Ruth Evans and Rebecca Hoskins are absent this week on account of sickness.

Owing to the fact that so many are absent from the epidemic, the eighth grade have been devoting part of their time to reviewing.

The eighth grade used the Preamble to the Constitution for a writing and spelling lesson Monday.

Sixth Grade.

The sixth grade pupils had a Valentine box Wednesday and many beautiful Valentines were received by each of the pupils.

Over one-half the members of our class have been absent this week on account of illness.

The sixth grade are preparing a very nice program for Washington's birthday.

JUDGE R. R. DICKSON HELD COURT TUESDAY.

At a special session of the District Court Tuesday afternoon Judge Robert R. Dickson granted a divorce to Amelia Larson, of Page, Nebraska, from her husband, Peter X. Larson. She was granted the custody of the children. In the settlement agreed upon by the parties Mrs. Larson will receive the residence property in Page.

In the case of the Travelers Insurance Company vs. Stephen E. Hicks, Gertrude Hicks, his wife, John L. Quig and Bazelman Lumber Co., wherein the Hicks land was recently sold at sheriff's sale, the Judge sustained objections to the sale of the land by sheriff and ordered a new sale.

A decision was rendered in the case of M. D. Cameron vs. Fred G. Koester at the Tuesday session of court. The controversy was between The Security State Bank of Plainview and R. J. McAllister of Atkinson. It seems that Koester gave a mortgage to the Plainview bank on several pieces of land in Antelope county also upon the northeast of 13-31-14 in Holt county. The mortgage on the Holt county land was given upon the wrong quarter and should have read "northwest" of 13-31-14. The bank asked in its petition that they be allowed to foreclose upon the "northwest" quarter and satisfy their mortgage. The Judge denied the petition.

SHERIDAN WINS IN SIXTH AT THE OMAHA SHOW.

Homer Sheridan, the boxing wonder of Sioux City, Iowa, put the K. O. on Johnny Strike, of Akron, Ohio, in the sixth round of the semi-finals, at the American Legion Boxing Show at Omaha Thursday evening of last week. Sheridan recently went to a draw with Strike, Schoell, of Buffalo, New York, was given the decision over Morrie Schlaifer in the ten round main event of the evening. Schlaifer was unable to make much of a showing with the easterner who seemed to have the best of the bout most of the time.

Sheridan's many friends in this part of the state may see him in action against Jerry Vakoc, the heavy weight favorite, from Verdigris, some time during the coming summer, provided that Jerry will reduce to 175 pounds.

Montana Jack Sullivan, manager of Sheridan, informs the Frontier that he has received an offer from Portland to meet Artago, the Mexican middle-weight. Also an offer that may take Sheridan to Helena to meet Pete Bross, of Great Falls, in a ten round mill. Mr. Sullivan has not decided definitely on either proposition.
