O'Neill, Nebraska

preparing the noon-day meal. Peter Millkin, of Tilden, was in O'Neill Monday.

A daughter was born last Saturday to Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilkinson.

Dan McCarthy shipped a car of extra fine cattle to the Omaha markets Tuesday.

Inman Leader: Clarence Manchester left Thursday morning for Charter Oak, Iowa, by auto, called there by telegram on account of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Balatine, who passed away at the family home there Wednesday evening. The funeral will be held at the Charter Oak Saturday forenoon.

George Davies and Jay Butler, of Inman, were before the county board last Tuesday asking that the board designate a certain road which runs along the railroad track from Inman to Stafford, as a county highway. The county board complied with their request. This road is on the line of the Blue Pole Highway across the state and will bring many tourists through Inman.

Inman Leader: Word has been received by relatives in Inman announcing the marriage of Miss Vernie Green, of Wakefield, Nebraska, to Mr. Lloyd Conger, of Ticonic, Iowa, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents at Wakefield Wednesday at high noon. The bride is a school teacher in the Wakefield schools. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Conger, of Inman, and for past number of years has been in the employment of Bauer-Henry Lumber Co., and at the present time is manager of the company's interests at Ticonic. The bride visited in Inman last summer and will be remembered by quite a number. Their many friends in this locality extend congratulations.

ANDY SCHMADER GETS HIS IN THE FIRST ROUND

The O'Neill boxing fans will be interested to know that Andy Schmader, of Omaha, who boxed here last summer with Jerry Vokac, of Verdigris, took the count in the first round of his bout with Gibbons at Peoria, Illinois, Monday evening. Following is the report from the ringside:

"Peoria, Ill., March 26.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight, knocked out Andy Schmader, of Omaha, in the first round of their scheduled ten-round bout at the Sportsmen's club before 3,000 persons. A thousand others were turned away.

"A lightning left to Schmader's solar plexus that came like a bolt of lightning, and carried the force of several combined pile drivers, sent the Nebraska to the canvas for the count of ten. Gibbons helped carry him to his corner, and it was several minutes before he was revived. Schmader went down on one knee for a three count thirty seconds after the bout started, after taking several stinging rights in the face. Hardly had he regained his feet when Gibbons unleashed his furious left. It took Schmader in the center of the body. His eyes closed and he sank to the floor with an anguished look frozen on his face. Referee Jones, former manager of Jess Willard, counted him out.

TAX-PAYER SAYS CLOVER WILL CURE THE FLU

The desire to pay the county what is justly owing for delinquent taxes has caused one taxpayer to write the county board of supervisors asking that they assist in selling the crop of hay that the said taxpayer might pay the obligation.

Supervisor L. E. Skidmore, senator from the blue grass and clover district in the southeast portion of the county of which Ewing is the capital, has taken a great interest in the letter and is considering the purchase of the hay for the relief of the taxpayer and incidentally may decide to extract the juice from the clover for medical purposes and become a benefactor.

LONG-PARKS.

Perry L. Long, of Orchard, and Miss Eva R. Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Parks, of near Page, were married by County Judge C. J. Malone at his office in the court house last Saturday, March 24th.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB WILL HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING

The general meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at their club rooms in the library building, next Wednesday afternoon, April 4th, at 3:30 o'clock. This is one of the most important meetings of the year and every member should be present.

WRITES FROM OSMONI.

As I just finished reading your last issue of The Frontier it has been like a letter from home to me every since moving in to this strange land among strange people, who, I must say right here, are a very kind and friendly people. They've been extremely kind during my illness and our hard luck in general. We've all had the flu this winter and then all got the mumps, two at a time. I was recovering nicely, however, when I got a back set and am still in bed. My daughter, Mrs. Eppenbaugh is in the other room in bed with an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hendrick came home from Waterbury Wednesday night to help Arthur care for us and Friday morning was helping fix the basement when a large slab of cement, that they were pulling out of the entrance with a team, swung around in such a way as to catch his hand and completely severed the little finger and badly bruised the two fingers next to it. He was taken at once in a car to Orchard where his hand was dressed.

FORMER O'NEILL WOMAN CUTS HUSBAND'S THROAT

The daily papers Tuesday contained the following account of the attempt of Mrs. Jonas C. Oswald, of Shickley, Nebraska, to cut her husband's throat with a razor, having become insane following an attack of typhoid fever. The family were residents of this community until two or three years ago and resided on the Joyce farm northwest of O'Neill.

Shickley, Neb., March 20: Mrs. Jonas C. Oswald attempted to kill her husband, after calling him from the dinner which he had just prepared on account of her illness. She pulled a razor from beneath the pillow and slashed his throat before he realized what was happening.

Mrs. Oswald then took iodine, but without serious results.

The woman was taken before the insanity commission and declared insane. She suffered an attack of typhoid after the birth of her third child and had been in poor health since. There had been no trouble in the Oswald family. She explained her deed by saying she intended to kill herself and loved her husband so much she wanted him to go along too.

THE PAT WELSH FARM HOUSE BURNED TUESDAY

The residence on the Pat Welsh farm northwest of O'Neill was totally destroyed by fire about four o'clock last Tuesday morning. The cause of the fire is unknown. Floyd Ritts has the place rented and had begun to move his household goods thereto the night before and had placed a cupboard and a few things in the kitchen which were an entire loss to him. The residence contained eight rooms. We understand there was some insurance on the building.

CHAMBERS.

Mr. Ballagh carries his years well and looks like a much younger man.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Greenstreet is on the sick list.

Gene, little daughter of E. P. Grubb, living northeast of Chambers, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Jennie Adams has been visiting in Norfolk with Miss Glennie Cooper. Miss Cooper is teaching in the Norfolk public schools.

The alert gardener who "always plants his early potatoes on Good Friday" postponed the job this year for a good and sufficient reason.

Mareta Isaacson, teacher in the Chambers school, is back in the school room, again after an absence of several days on account of sickness.

The roads were so heavy last Saturday that few autos from the country were on the streets, farmers going back to horse drawn vehicles.

Miss Martha Hunt living south-east of Chambers sustained a broken wrist Thursday, when she fell from a ladder leading down from the hay mow.

Ellen, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, living southwest of Amelia, who is seriously ill at her home, shows a little improvement.

Dick McElvain, who had been enjoying a well earned vacation, spent his time visiting in different parts of the state. He returned to Chambers Wednesday.

A township election was held in Chambers, Tuesday, March 20. It was decided by vote of 114 for and 50 against to levy a two mill tax to purchase the band hall from the band boys.

A meeting in the interest of Farm Bureau organization was held at the Chambers band hall Monday night. Mr. Sandquist, of Walthill, Nebraska, and Mr. Sullivan, of Iowa, were the speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lee returned Wednesday, from Burchard, where they have been visiting Mrs. Lee's sister, Mrs. J. F. Fox. They stopped enroute at O'Neill for a visit with Mrs. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter.

Newhouse Bros. have installed a radio receiving set in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gill. They have received concerts from Minneapolis, Fort Worth, Texas, Kansas City, Davenport, Atlanta, Georgia, and market-places from Omaha.

R. A. Ballagh Sr., and son R. A. Ballagh Jr., of Ballagh, were in Chambers Friday. Mr. Ballagh, who is seventy-five years old, but recently returned from Lincoln, where he was successfully operated on, at the Lincoln hospital, for gall stones.

A fire partially destroyed the residence of Geo. Thompson last Sunday at about 5:30 p. m. The fire started from an overheated stove pipe passing through the floor of the second story. The roof and second story was badly damaged. Quick work by a large corps of volunteer fire fighters extinguished the blaze with hand fire extinguishers and a bucket brigade. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

An interesting program will be presented Friday night in the band hall by the high school. The receipts will be used to help defray the expenses of the girls' basket ball team who are to make the trip to the girls' tournament at Wayne. The program will be opened with a basket ball game between the Alumni team and the High School team. After the game the high school orchestra will play and the following program will be given: Instrumental Duet—Prof. Richardson and Stanley Posvar. Reading—Miss Iessie Porter. Piano Solo—W. R. French. Vocal Solo—Rev. Carlyon. Violin Solo—Rev. Hamlyn.

SCHOOL NEWS.

Warren Hall gave a five minute talk Wednesday on the findings in King Tutakamen's tomb. He illustrated his talk with pictures from the current papers.

The first publication of the freshman paper "The Chatterbox" and "Shamrock" came out last Friday. The type writer was blamed for all the errors both grammatical and spelling.

Thursday and Friday of this week will be devoted to contests covering Book III in Plain Geometry. Elsie Longstaff and Velda Oberlie are captains on the first division, while Maurice Downey and Merle Hunt lead the contending forces in the second division. They promise to be hot contests.

Eighth Grade—The eighth grade devoted their opening period Wednesday to the life of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt.

In a written test on a state list in arithmetic Sidney Bush, Albert Ross, Florence Clevish and Mildred Tomlinson each received 100 per cent.

In a mental test Tuesday Sidney Bush, Charlie Bellin, Marguerite Houg, Bernard Quinn and Dale Bressler each received 100 per cent.

The class devoted part of their history period Friday to a talk on Walt Masop.

Sixth Grade—The seventh grade read the story of Roosevelt's African trip, and a recent magazine article by E. M. Newman or Extraordinary Experiences of a World Traveler, in connection with this week's geography lessons, on Africa.

Sixth Grade—Florence Rossler was absent Tuesday on account of illness. The sixth grade girls of the sewing club judged their second and third problems Monday. For the second problem, a clothes pin bag, Gladys

Williams work was judged as being the best and Lona Cromwell's as second best.

For the third problem, a princess slip, Vivian Eidenmiller's work was chosen as the best and Gladys Williams's as second best.

Fifth Grade—Verean Clyde, Blanche Mohr, and Irene Brown are new pupils that have entered the fifth grade.

The following received 100 per cent in a written test on quotations: Pearl Clevish, Anita Liddy, Goodsell Hutchins and Lloyd Davidson.

In judging the sewing in "The Busy Bee Sewing Club," Anita Liddy received first on the clothes pin bag, and Irene Brown and Pearl Clevish tied on the sewing bag.

Fourth Grade—The fourth grade pupils are making Easter posters this week.

The fourth grade girls judged their princess slips and kitchen aprons this week and decided that Helen Roseler's princess slip was the best. Stella Van Every's kitchen apron won first in this contest.

Nellie Toy, Stella Van Every and Lola Smith have finished all their problems in sewing. Monday at their meeting these girls will demonstrate to the class how they made each article. Eleanor Sullivan is teaching geography, hygiene, and history in the departmental grades this week.

Alden Breiner is absent this week on account of illness.

The penmanship class is working hard on this subject for exhibit work.

The nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sargent suffered a badly lacerated knee last Sunday when a horse he was riding ran away with him; the knee came in contact with the mail box which caused the injury.
