"Believe Me Xantippe" is one of the big comedies now being presented. See it at the K. C. hall Tuesday evening. Presented by the senior class of the high school.

Mrs. John F. Haight, formerly of Stuart, died at the residence of her daughter, Mr. A. W. Schaum, April 30. She was aged eighty-two years and twenty-six days.

The Pedagogy Class accompanied by their teacher, Miss Payne Dixon, and County Superintendent, Miss Anna Donohoe, visited the rural schools Tuesday and Wednesday.

Governor Bryan has issued a proclamation designating Saturday, May 26, as Poppy Day, set apart in honor of the American dead, who are buried in the war cemeteries of Europe.

W. J. McNicholls, of Omaha, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, attended the K. C. initiation Sunday and remained over for several days for a visit with his father, S. F. McNicholls.

Mrs. John McDermott entertained at bridge and luncheon at her residence Tuesday evening. High honors at auction were won by Mrs. P. C. Donohoe, and the all-cut prize by Mrs. P. B. Hart.

The spring term of the Holt county district court will convene Monday morning with Judge Robert R. Dickson presiding. Two hundred and seventy-two cases are on the docket, a number of them jury cases.

Tuesday was sneak day at the Spencer high school and the entire senior class came to O'Neill, by auto and auto truck, for a visit to the local schools and on a general tour of inspection of the city.

W. H. Cowperthwaite, of Bushnell, Illinois, arrived last Thursday for a short visit with his nephew, Arthur Cowperthwaite, leaving Monday for Alma, Kansas, to visit his sister, Mrs. A. D. Blackford.

Special Agent Lane, of the Great American Insurance Company, of Omaha, and Special Agent Carpenter of the National Ben Franklin Insurance Company, of Hastings, were O'Neill visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert R. Dickson entertained the Wednesday Bridge club Monday evening, in honor of Mrs. W. T. Evans, of Omaha. Mrs. Dickson also entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner Tuesday for Mrs. Quentin Deaver, of Casper, Wyoming.

Miss Ruth Thatcher, daughter of Representative A. B. Thatcher, former editor of the Butte Gazette, will leave next week accompanied by her father, for Los Angeles, California, where she will be united in marriage with Mr. Lee Carson.

Joel B. Bertolet, father of Mrs. Fred Swingley, of Atkinson, died at the residence of his daughter a week ago Saturday at the advanced age of eighty-three years, seven months and thirteen days. Burial was at Leaf River, Illinois, the old home.

Mr. Edward Barrett and Miss Dorothy Vrooman, of Atkinson, were united in marriage at St. Joseph's church, that city, Tuesday morning of last week. They will reside on their farm, six miles east of Atkinson, where Mr. Barrett has just completed a fine residence.

A change in the Burlington time card is announced, effective May 28, after which date the morning passenger will leave O'Neill at 6:45 a. m., arriving at Sioux City at 12:30 p. m. Leaving Sioux City at 6:30 p. m. the passenger will arrive at O'Neill at 12:15 a. m.

Henry Zimmerman, who was visiting his son, Harold, at Colome, South Dakota, was taken seriously ill Saturday and was rushed to Omaha Sunday, for an operation. Advises Tuesday evening were that Mr. Zimmerman was operated upon Tuesday morning, and that his condition is favorable to an early recovery.

Sioux City Tribune: W. F. Phillips has sold his interests as editor and publisher of the Page, Nebraska, Reporter and has purchased the Tyndall, South Dakota, Bulletin. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are visitors at the home of Mrs. J. C. Dunlavy. They will remain in Sioux City a few days before removing to Tyndall.

L. E. Ulery, residing three miles northeast of Inman, attempted suicide by hanging Saturday morning. He was discovered by members of the family and cut down before dead, and Monday afternoon was taken to the hospital at Norfolk. Despondency over business matters is supposed to have been the cause of the attempt.

Lenox post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Atkinson, with six members, is the only remaining active G. A. R. post in Holt county. A. D. Havens, S. A. Hiatt, L. G. Lambert, of Atkinson, members of the post, and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown, of Stuart, attended the state encampment of the G. A. R. at Lincoln week before last.

Members of the Woman's club will actively continue their work of civic welfare and beautification during the summer vacation from regular club meetings. Mrs. S. J. Weekes, Mrs. Ed. F. Gallagher and Mrs. Arthur Cowperthwaite are a committee in charge of the improvement of the grounds of the public library and those who have slips or ornamental plants or shrubs they desire to donate for the work are requested to notify the committee. The club has purchased a number of plants for the purpose and also will have the grounds landscaped. The library board already has erected a fence on two sides of the parking around the building, cutting off footpaths across the lawn and pedestrians are requested to confine themselves to the sidewalks and not to cut across. The club also will sponsor the new auto tourist park soon to be opened by the city council.

Mrs. Quentin Deaver and little son, John, of Casper, Wyoming, came down last Thursday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donnell, and other relatives.

Mrs. Adam Christman, of Anoka, Butte county, one of the early settlers of Holt county, committed suicide Tuesday evening, about 8 o'clock, by hanging herself to a floor beam in the basement of her home. She had been in poor health for some time. She was aged sixty-five years. Mr. and Mrs. Christman came from Pennsylvania to Holt county in 1885 and removed to Boyd county from here in 1891. Her husband, three sons and three daughters survive her.

Siamese quadruplets and one extra kitten were born to Henry Bay's store cat Wednesday morning. Three of the kittens were attached by the naval cords to the hips of the fourth one, which was deformed and which died soon after the kittens were born. To save the lives of the three others Doc Bennett was called upon to operate which he did with Pop Reardon administering the anaesthetic and Leo Mullen officiating as operating nurse. The three kittens survived the operation and are doing fine.

Mrs. E. N. Purcell came up from Scribner Sunday evening for a short visit with her husband, E. N. Purcell of the Purcell Produce company, returning to Scribner Tuesday. The Purcells have rented the residence property at present occupied by Professor Suhr and family and will occupy it shortly after the first of June until Mr. Purcell can erect a home of his own. Mr. Frank Younk, of the Purcell Produce company, also will remove his family from Scribner to O'Neill at the same time, and will occupy residence in southeast O'Neill now being erected by Joel Parker.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur J. Hammond, who returned recently from a winter's sojourn in California, tendered her a surprise party Wednesday evening. The plotters assembled at the home of Mrs. C. B. Scott and Mrs. George Miles and then proceeded to the Hammond home. The feature of the evening's entertainment was a stunt wherein each who could was called upon to dance a jig, at which Mrs. J. B. Mellor, Mrs. Frank Phalin, Mrs. O. F. Biglin, Mrs. John J. McCafferty and Mrs. George McCleod easily proved themselves the most artistic. Then followed several square dances, with Mrs. J. B. Mellor calling. Refreshments, high five, seven-up and whisky comprised the rest of the evening's enjoyment. Mrs. Michael McCabe demonstrated herself to be the most efficient high five player of the twenty-six present.

SIMONSON POST AMERICAN LEGION WISHES TOMMY GIBBONS SUCCESS AGAINST DEMPSEY

"Be it resolved that this post send to Tommy Gibbons at Harve, Montana, its best wishes for his success in his coming encounter with Jack Dempsey, and be it the sense of this post that nothing better could come to the box of the said Gibbons than to have the said Dempsey dethroned of the championship by a high-minded, clean living American of the type of Tom Gibbons."

Simonson post of the American Legion is pulling for Tommy Gibbons in his coming bout with Jack Dempsey at Shelby, Montana, July 4, for the championship of the world. The post expressed its good will toward Gibbons at a rousing meeting Wednesday night at which the above resolution was unanimously adopted and Thursday morning Adjutant H. J. Birmingham mailed a copy of it to Mr. Gibbons.

The meeting also decided that O'Neill is going to have one fine, large Fourth of July celebration and that said celebration will go down in history as the hummerest humdinger of its kind ever enacted in Holt county. The fact that the celebration is going to be under the auspices of the Legion assures that this will be so. Frank O'Connell, Pat Hart and Tom Brennan were named as a committee on arrangements and already are cooking up some great plans for the affair.

Memorial Day again will be celebrated this year under Legion auspices. The Reverend W. L. Phillely, of Ewing, an orator of distinction and himself a member of the American Legion, is to be the principal speaker. W. J. McNicholls, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus and also a Legion member, also may be present and participate. Mr. McNicholls has a speaking date at Long Pine earlier in the day and will endeavor to reach O'Neill in the afternoon in time to participate in the ceremonies. Come mittees for Memorial Day observance are:

Program—George Harrington, C. W. Conklin, P. B. Hart, Hugh Birmingham.
Decorations—Frank O'Connell, G. H. Jones, Thomas Brennan, Jack Higgins and Ralph Millard.

STOLEN PACKARD TWIN SIX RECOVERED NEAR ATKINSON

Former Holt County Resident Taken Into Custody.

Frank Pock, a former resident of Holt county, was taken into custody Wednesday afternoon by the chief of police of Atkinson, on instructions from Sheriff Lainson, of Potawattamie county, Iowa, where he is charged with conspiracy to defraud; and a few hours later a Packard Twin Six, five passenger phaeton, which he accompanied by his wife and several children, had driven up from Council Bluffs on a visit to Pock's father, M. V. Pock, who resides north of Atkinson, was recovered at the home of his brother, Mitchell, on the Niobrara river. The telegram from the Iowa sheriff asked that Frank Pock, alias Frank Kelley, be held.

The car in question was taken from Arkansas City, Arkansas, according to advises from Arkansas officials, and was insured.

Pock when taken into custody at first denied possession of the car but later when he and relatives were closely questioned, after arrival of the Iowa sheriff Wednesday night, admitted driving it to Holt county and said that it would be found at the home of his brother where it was located. Pock at first was inclined to resist being taken back to Iowa, but after a session with Sheriff Duffy and the officers at O'Neill, agreed to go back without extradition. He says that he recently traded for the car at Council Bluffs, but admitted that he surmised it was a hot one. The Omaha police also were anxious to get possession of Pock from the local authorities.

Pock returned to Council Bluffs Thursday afternoon in custody of the Council Bluffs officer. The car will be brought to O'Neill and held until the Iowa or Arkansas authorities are ready to take it back. It is said to be one of the most handsome and expensive jobs of automobile construction ever seen in the county.

MISS DE MARIS STOUT, IN UNIVERSITY PLAY, MAKES BIG HIT IN OMAHA

Author Is Boyd County Boy.

Omaha News, May 8: "The Yellow Lantern," musical extravaganza of the Kosmet Klub, University of Nebraska, was one of the best received shows of this season at the Brandeis theater.

The Sen Sen Girls chorus was encored four times Monday night. It will be long before Omaha sees a peppier number.

"The Yellow Lantern" has to do about a dark Jananese plot, with no Japs, to steal an American-Chinese treaty from an American consul at Namkin, China. Assistant consul is given an overdose of opium. He awakes to find princess of his dreams his nurse.

L. G. Hawley was assistant consul. Orville Andrews as the blackface was the individual hit of the show. Hart Jenks of Omaha scored big as impersonator of opium and as a hospital assistant. Miss De Maris Stout, with a soprano voice of remarkable volume, was easily the vocal favorite. Dorothy Sprague was princess of the drama and nurse of awake-time. Everything in the show was original. It was written by Cyril Coombs, law '23, who in a curtain talk introduced an assistant, presumably Mrs. Coombs. But that Sen Sen chorus. Yum! Yum! And "Jasper Calander Jones" Andrews. "Hot coffee!" Quits a show.
