BRITISH NOTE INVITES NEW GERMAN BID

Berlin Diplomats Disappointed at Sharp Tone and French Criticize Curzon for Lack of Firmness in Crisis.

BY CAROLINE V. KERR, Universal Service Correspondent. Special Cable Dispatch.

Berlin, May 13.—The immediate reaction in official circles to the British note, which was received in Berlin at 6 o'clock Sunday night, is one of bitter disappointment and painful depression at the negative tone of the note and the failure of the English government to agree to or commend a single point in the recent reparations offer.

The sharp rejection of all of Germany's proposals created all the more painful impression because the framers of the German offer consider unjust England's reproach that the offer is too vague. The Germans think they went far in expressing their willingness to do everything in their power to reach a satisfactory settlement of the reparations question.

The sharp tone of the note, it is realized here, is not essentially unfriendly to Germany but is seen as an intended sop to France, to whom, under existing conditions, England is bound to make concessions.

But Still Hopeful.

It is felt, however, that all the doors are not closed, though the negative tone and manner with which all the chief points of the German note were ignored by the English greatly increase the difficulties of the Cuno cabinet.

Especially sharp opposition to any new offer is expected from the German national party. Notwithstanding that the prospects for further negotiations are not auspicious, the note will be carefully considered in an effort to find a form in which Germany may, both in matter and amounts of payment, as well as guarantees, more closely approach England's wishes.

Italian Note Similar.

It is expected that there will be a sharp reaction on the stock market Monday when the Germans learn that the note does not signify any easing of the situation nor the slightest optimism.

The Italian note, which it was hoped, might be more encouraging, is essentially the same in content, though couched in more friendly language. But, like the English note, it does nothing to relieve the situation.

IMPEACHMENT OF TAFT DEMANDED

Debs Announces Socialist Party to Call for Action by Congress—Denounces Supreme Court.

NEW OFFER INVITED.

By John T. Burke, Universal Service Correspondent.

London, May 13.—Lord Curzon's note to Germany, while expressing "deep dissatisfaction and disappointment at the policies offered by Berlin to settle a problem which is gravely disturbing political and economic conditions of Europe and the world," strikes a strong note for peace by issuing a direct invitation to Berlin to make a new offer.

The note also serves notice on France that in the final settlement Britain intends to take a part and has no intention of abandoning her claims to reparations. This is the forcible declaration of Lord Curzon, who admits that his recent speech in parliament inspired the German offer, and it is accepted here as a warning that Britain is determined not to be longer ignored by Premier Poincare.

Curzon's Announcement.

Lord's Curzon's exact words, couched in diplomatic language but which admit of no other interpretation, follow:

"The British government is persuaded that in her own interests Germany will see the advantage of displaying greater readiness to grapple with the realities of the case, and discarding all irrelevant or controversial issues proceed to reconsider and expand the proposals in such a way as to convert them into a feasible basis for further discussion.

"Britain will at the suitable moment be ready to take part by the side of its Allies, with whom it shares a practical interest in the settlement of the question, an interest which it has no intention to abandon, as well as a desire to terminate a situation of international peril.

"It cannot conceal from Germany, however, that as the first step toward the realization of any such hope a contribution much more serious is required than any which has yet been forthcoming."

FREEING OF PRISONERS PROMISED

Eight of 17 Foreigners Reported on Way Back to Lincheng, With Immediate Release of Others Expected.

Universal Service. Shanghai, May 13.—A telegram at midnight said that all conditions of the bandits had been met and that they had agreed to the release of the prisoners but did not state the actual release had been made.

Universal Service. Peking, May 13.—Eight of the 17 foreigners held by bandits in the mountains of South Shantung have been released and are now on their way back to Lincheng, the nearest railroad point to Ichow, near where they have been prisoners for the past week, according to meager reports received Sunday.

The release of the remainder of the prisoners is to follow immediately, the information received by the Chinese department of communications stated.

The prisoners were released following complete compliance by the Chinese negotiators with the demands of the bandits, it is stated. These demands include guarantees from the governors of three districts that the bandits would not be punished and would have complete freedom of movement. Another condition was complete withdrawal of government troops.

CLAIM FRENCH MAKE GERMAN MARKS NOW

Universal Service. Berlin, May 12 (A. P.).—Since the occupation of the Ruhr the French and Belgians have forcibly seized 27,187,000,000 marks in German currency in the newly occupied area says Dr. Otto Von Glasenapp, vice president of the reichsbank in a statement given to the press today.

He further asserts that the French have been issuing counterfeit German money, amounting so far to 35,000,000 marks, from one of the plates seized in the raid on the Muelheim printing plant on April 6.

U. S. WEARING MORE SHOES.

Washington, May 13.—Reflection of the nation's prosperity has penetrated down to the nation's shoes. More than 95,000,000 pairs of footwear were produced during the first quarter of 1923, an increase of 20 per cent. over the quantity manufactured the corresponding period of last year, the department of commerce stated. This increased fastidiousness is displayed chiefly by men, although all classes of footwear shared. Men's shoes showed an advance of 5,000,000 pairs for the quarter, women's about 3,000,000, and infants about 2,000,000.

BUILT IN PREHISTORIC DAYS

Interesting Ruin Found in Mesa Verde National Park Given Name of "Pipe Shrine House."

Dr. J. Walter Fewkes reports the finding of an interesting prehistoric ruin which he has named "Pipe Shrine House," in the Mesa Verde National park of Colorado. A mound was investigated and disclosed a circular tower on a rectangular building about 70 feet square. The tower was probably used for observing the sun, as it rises in the east or sets in the west, in order to determine the time for planting and other events. In the middle of the building was found a circular room 20 feet deep and about the same in diameter, in which were more than a dozen clay tobacco pipes, numerous stone knives, pottery, idols and other subjects.

South of the building, which was evidently specialized for ceremonials, is a square room or shrine, dedicated to the mountain lion, a stone image of which was found surrounded by water-worn and other strangely formed stones. A similar shrine in the northeast corner of "Pipe Shrine House" contains a small iron meteorite and a slab of stone on which is depicted the symbol of the sun.

Flowers in Spring.

Do you know the early flowers? The early or dwarf Trillium, or Wake Robin, pushes its small white bloom through the dead leaves, or even sometimes through the snow—a delightful little flower and all too uncommon, says Nature Magazine of Washington. All of the Trilliums, of which five species more or less are common in the Eastern states, regulate their lives by the rule of three. Hence the name. They have three sepals, three petals, three styles, six stamens, a three-celled ovary, and the flower stems project from a whorl of three leaves.

Window Boxes.

If you whitewash the inside of your wooden window boxes before putting in the plants you will prevent insects and also preserve the box.

SIoux CITY PTG. CO., NO. 20-1923

The Chicago and North Western System, in Maintaining the Best Possible Service to Shippers, Has Its "Freight Service Committees" Constantly at Work on Every Division of the Road, Co-operating With Its Patrons

The membership of these Committees includes all classes of employes, division officers, conductors, brakemen, engineers, etc. It is a problem demanding team work—the reducing of damage claims to the lowest possible minimum.

Without the splendid work of the North Western employes, the enviable record of 1922 in the reducing of the causes of damage claims would never have been made. Not only those on the committees, but system employes generally are co-operating in service to shippers and savings to the carrier.

As an illustration of the interest taken in this work the cartoon is shown below as drawn by a Blacksmith's Helper in one of the System shops. It is typical of the appeals of employes to their fellow workers, and but expresses the pioneer spirit of the road that ran the first locomotive out of Chicago seventy-five years ago—the Pioneer.

Shippers interested in the details of the work of this Freight Service Committee of the Chicago and North Western Railway can obtain full information from any agent of the Company.

WOODPECKER, SPARE THAT TREE!

This bird has been hanging around since we planted the acorn. He started his dirty work when this big tree was a little bush, and he seems to have grown up with it, but we are not going to allow this "buzzard" to consume the sap that should rightfully go to growth, strength and beauty. We have the power to put him out. Thought and action are our best weapons. We may blow away a tail feather, or the top of his topknot, but he still hangs around. Let's load with buckshot for 1923 and blow the joy-killer, feathers, bill, bird and all, into smithereens.
