LOCAL MATTERS.

Miss Eda Bay left Thursday morning for a visit with Lincoln friends. Roland Parker left the first of the week for a business trip to Atlantic, Iowa.

Mrs. Della Shaw returned Saturday from a winter's visit at Long Beach, California.

Mrs. William Swigart left Thursday morning to join her husband, at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Mary Bogan and son are the guests of Mrs. Bogan's sister, Mrs. Sam A. Arnold.

Mrs. Ida Hoffman, of Page, has returned from a winter's sojourn at Santa Ann, California.

F. F. Dowling, state fire inspector, was in O'Neill last Monday looking over the various business places in the discharge of his duties.

Leo Kaup, foreman of the Stuart Advocate, accompanied by Frank Bose, were attending the Track Meet in this city last Friday and made this office a pleasant call.

Mrs. Ida Peterson and grandson, Cedric Drew, arrived from Long Beach, California, Saturday, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cowperthwaite.

Mrs. George Gray and Mrs. Bertha Brandt, of Beatrice, and Frank Polok, of Sioux City, were called here last Wednesday by the death of their sister's husband, Henry Burival. They returned home Tuesday.

The number of long distance calls that are made each day between O'Neill and Atkinson has increased so rapidly that the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company has constructed an additional circuit between the two towns. There are now two long distance circuits connecting O'Neill with Atkinson.

A total rainfall of 7.23 inches since the first of April to date is reported by Weather Observer Harry Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bowen went to Omaha the first of the week, where Mrs. Bowen will undergo treatment at a hospital.

Here is some easy money for some good local man. Mr. Bob Smith, the coming heavy weight wrestler of the World, will forfeit one hundred dollars to any man who will stay the 15 minute limit. O'Neill, June 2nd.

The Elkhorn river got out of its banks Wednesday, for the first time in several years, as the result of recent rains, and local fishermen are preparing for the annual catfish run, which Fred Gatz says starts promptly the first of June.

Page was the victor last Sunday in a clash with Jack Higgins' Shamrocks, on the Page diamond. The score was 11 to 7. The O'Neill team plays Chambers, at Chambers, next Sunday. The team is showing marked improvement daily.

Mrs. Frank Meyer and Mrs. Tony Lang, of Beatrice, and Mrs. Anna Weinberger, of Madison, were called here last Thursday to attend the funeral of Henry Burival. The former was a sister and the latter two ladies were cousins of the deceased.

The band boys are in need of a few old chairs for the band hall. If you have something in the chair line to donate, it will be appreciated. Notify E. D. Henry, at the Frontier, of G. E. Miles, at the Independent office and they will see that they are conveyed to their band room.

Fifty candidates will be taken in as charter members of the Catholic Daughters of America, a local court of which will be instituted at the Knights of Columbus hall, Sunday, with Mrs. Arthur Mullen, of Omaha, state regent, presiding. The work will be exemplified by a team from Lincoln.

J. K. Aaberg arrived in O'Neill, Friday night from his ranch near Arcada, Texas, and will visit with Holt county friends for about a month.

Last week we inserted an advertisement in the paid advertising column in regard to the sale of milk. The telephone number was given "263" instead of "363". The advertisement appears again this week correctly.

Closing exercises of the Early school, District No. 145, were held at the school house northwest of O'Neill last Friday afternoon, in charge of Miss Eva Harmon, the teacher. A delightful program by the younger children, in which young Jack Ernst made a big hit as the auctioneer, was carried out. A basket social, participated in by the parents and patrons of the district, followed.

H. J. Hammond, J. P. Golden, W. H. Harty and H. J. Reardon left Saturday night for Sidney, Nebraska, as delegates from the local Knights of Columbus to the state convention of the order. Mrs. Reardon returned home Thursday morning. Mr. Harty went from Sidney to Gillette, Wyoming, for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mullen and Mr. Golden and Mr. Hammond are returning by way of Omaha.

The Sixteenth annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the war with Spain, will be held in Omaha, June 12-14, with headquarters at the Rome Hotel. There are in Nebraska, 2,500 veterans of the war. Lee Forby, of Omaha, is planning some special "stunts" that will bring back the days when "cruties" were tossed in blankets and when they were forced to "ride the calvary horse."

The O'Neill Checker club at last has a home of its own, one from which no one but the wives of the members can drive them. The club has purchased the business block located between the Grand Cafe and the McManus hardware store from Mrs. W. T. Evans and also has a ninety-nine year lease on the ground on which it is located. The building now is being dolled up under the supervision of Henry Watterson Tomlinson and L. W. Arnold, and when the improvements are completed a grand opening will be held.

Sheriff Duffy, Tom McKenzie, Will Froelich, Ira Moss and Ed. O'Donnell left last Friday night shortly after midnight for Omaha, in the Packard car recovered at Atkinson last week from Frank Pock, who was taken back by Iowa authorities Thursday of last week. The tourists encountered heavy roads from the start and did not arrive at Norfolk until Saturday afternoon. Moss and O'Donnell abandoned the caravan at Norfolk and returned home Saturday evening. Tom McKenzie left the car at Fremont and went on by train and Sheriff Duffy and Froelich struggled through the mud, reaching Omaha at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, where the car was turned over to the Iowa authorities.

The Norfolk Press of last week contained the following account of the wedding of a former O'Neill boy. "Mrs. James Coyle returned Thursday from White River, South Dakota, where she visited for some weeks and where she attended the wedding of her son, Charles C. Coyle to Miss Emma Elizabeth Teutsch. The wedding was a beautiful one with all the solemnity given this ceremony by the Catholic church. Mr. and Mrs. James Coyle acted as best man and matron of honor. The groom and best man both served overseas and hold very honorable army records. Mr. and Mrs. Coyle will live on the groom's farm near White River. A pretty home wedding reception and dance were given at the home of the bride's parents."

WOMAN'S CLUB CLOSE SEASON WITH LUNCHEON

The O'Neill Woman's Club held a one o'clock luncheon at their last general meeting, Wednesday afternoon, at the Subway. Over sixty members were present. Mrs. F. J. Diner was toastmistress. Mrs. C. Scott gave a report of the state convention held at Ravenna last month. Mrs. Scott's talk was entertaining and she presented the well studied ideas of the states progressive club women, who were on state meeting programs. The motto of club women always is service and the Nebraska slogan now is "No Illiteracy In 1930." Reports were given by Miss Anna O'Donnell, treasurer; Mrs. C. J. Malone, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Cowperthwaite, Literature and Art; Mrs. Geo. A. Miles, Household Economics; Mrs. Clifford Scott, music; Mrs. J. M. Hunter, membership; Mrs. C. M. Day, finance committee; Mrs. J. J. Harrington, publicity; Mrs. R. L. Arbuthnot, civics. Mrs. E. H. Suhr, effect of club on our schools; Mrs. Willis Barker, club work for the country woman.

Mrs. J. P. Gilligan was installed as the club president for next year by the retiring president, Mrs. C. B. Scott. Mrs. Scott has been untiring in her efforts for the club and much has been accomplished the last year and the appreciation of her work for the club was demonstrated Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Gilligan was graciously received. She spoke of the possibilities of the club and briefly outlined some of the work planned for next year. After a short business session the meeting adjourned marking the fourth year of the O'Neill Woman's club work.

BELIEVE ME, XANTIPPE PRESENTED BY HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

"Believe Me, Xantippe," was presented as the annual class play by the Senior class of the O'Neill high school at the Knights of Columbus hall, Tuesday afternoon and night, and, in the words of George McFarland, in private life George Stannard, "Believe Me, Xantippe," it was some play. "Believe Me, Xantippe," written by a student of the University of Nebraska for a university class play, made such a hit at its first presentation that it was immediately taken up by the professional stage to become one of the greatest hits of several years ago. It had a record breaking run in New York, Chicago and other large cities, because of its real humor. It still enjoys a vogue.

The play suffered not at all in its presentation by the seniors, who brought out its humor and its thrills with the adeptness of a cast of professionals. The story is of a young New York blood, who, with a profound contempt for the abilities of minnows of the law wagers a couple of friends that he can supposedly commit a felony and then evade them for a year. George Stannard was George McFarland, the hero, Carroll Templeton as Arthur Sole, a detective, and Willard Arnold as Thornton Brown, a friend, the persons with whom the wager was made. Miss Hazel Ashton was Dolly Kamman, the captivating daughter of Buck Kamman, a Colorado sheriff, and captured the rash young man in more ways than one. The story ends as all good stories should and the curtain goes down with the hero and heroine preparing to live happily ever afterward. The able presentation of the play is most complimentary to Miss Fayne Dixon, dramatic teacher, under whose direction it was given, and each individual of the cast was a star. A large audience witnessed the production both afternoon and evening and in the audience at the evening show were two of the first graduates of the O'Neill high school: Mrs. T. D. Hanley, a member of the first class which was composed entirely of girls; and S. J. Weekes, the first boy student to graduate, who was a member of the second class, in which there were but two boys. Mrs. Hanley and Mr. Weekes are the only members of either class now residing in O'Neill.

Following are the cast, the characters and the scenes of the four acts of the production.

BIG INVITATION GOLF TOURNAMENT BY COUNTRY CLUB IN JUNE

O'Neill again is going to lead off in North Nebraska by staging the first big golf tournament of the year. It will be the second annual invitation tournament of the O'Neill Country Club and the dates are June 10-11-12-13. No one is barred and all golfers in North Nebraska and adjoining territories are invited to participate. There will be three big flights: the championship, president's and secretary's, and a list of wonderful prizes now being arranged for will be announced in the near future.

The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Dr. L. A. Carter, F. J. Biglin, W. H. Harty, M. H. Horiskey, E. M. Gallagher and John W. Elber, which in itself is a sufficient guaranty that the tournament is going to be the best ever held on a local course. Monday night, June 11, is going to be the annual Goodfellowship Banquet, with the finest kind of eats and things, to be followed by a heavy flow of high class oratory and song such as only golfers know how to deliver. The indications are that the attendance at the tournament will exceed that of a year ago by several hundred. Anyway it is going to be the biggest tournament ever held in North Nebraska.

HAVE A HORSE THAT ACTUALLY TWO-STEPS

You never heard of a Ball Room horse--well there is one with the World Brother's Wild Animal circus. Lady Virginia, the pride of the dancing horse string, actually dances a one step, a two step and a three step. These different dances are all shown in exhibitions given by Mr. German, the trainer of the horse. Texas Tommy with his Chicken Reel is a great favorite as is also the other six horses all of whom do marvelous dancing numbers.
