

THE FRONTIER

D. H. CRONIN, Publisher.
W. C. TEMPLETON,
Editor and Business Manager.

Entered at the post office at O'Neill, Nebraska, as second-class matter.
One Year $2.00
Six Months $1.00
Three Months $0.50

Every subscription is regarded as an open account. The names of subscribers will be instantly removed from our mailing list at expiration of time paid for, if publisher shall be notified; otherwise the subscription remains in force at the designated subscription price. Every subscriber must understand that these conditions are made a part of the contract between publisher and subscriber.

ADVERTISING RATES:

Display advertising on Pages 4, 5 and 8 are charged for on a basis of 25 cents an inch (one column wide) per week; on Page 1 the charge is 40 cents an inch per week. Local advertisements, 10 cents per line first insertion, subsequent insertions 5 cents per line.

MORE LOCAL MATTERS.

A new band has been organized at Ainsworth.

The monthly routine meeting of the farm bureau was held at the office of County Agent Rose Monday.

Roy Sivesind, who has been working at the Burlington depot, has been transferred to Oakland, Nebraska, at a ninety dollar salary.

E. O. Surber and family, of Norfolk, came up Friday for a week end visit with Mr. Surber's brother, Elmer Surber, returning home Monday.

George Baker, of Lincoln, drove up Sunday to get an airfare James McPharlin had been training for him, and returned the same afternoon.

Frank and Ed O'Connell received word Monday morning of the death of their cousin, Edward Bartley, at Seneca, Illinois, the same morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haffner and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clauson left Sunday in the Haffner auto for a visit with friends and relatives at Des Moines, Iowa.

Postmaster Garry Benson and sister, Lottie, of Ewing, drove up for a several hours business visit Tuesday afternoon, returning home in the evening.

A. L. Rouse and daughters, the Misses Maud and Mildred Rouse, left Tuesday morning for Hornell, New York, where they will spend the summer visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. J. Harrington left Sunday for Lincoln, to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Frances Daly, to Mr. Patrick Dolan, of Des Moines, which took place Wednesday morning.

Charles W. Pugsley, of Lincoln, has resigned as assistant secretary of the federal department of agriculture to accept the presidency of the South Dakota college of agriculture and mechanical arts.

A runaway team belonging to Clark Hough tried to knock over the lamp post at the intersection of Clay and Fourth streets Tuesday morning, to the ruin of the wagon to which they were attached.

John Brennan stopped off in O'Neill Friday, enroute from Norfolk, where he has been conducting a sale, to his home at Salt Lake City. He left Sunday evening. Mr. Brennan will remove to Los Angeles, California, about the first of August.

One of the best ball games of the season will be between Chambers and O'Neill, on the fairgrounds diamond Sunday afternoon. The last game between the two teams, at Chambers, went eleven innings, finally resulting in a victory of 3 to 2 for Chambers.

Con Coffey and sons, John, Edmund and William, arrived by auto Monday evening from Wichita Falls, enroute to Fairfax, South Dakota, for a short visit. They continued on Tuesday morning. The Coffeys left Texas last Friday and stated that the worst roads they encountered on the entire journey were between O'Neill and Chambers.

Miss Olive Howey of the Extension Service, University of Nebraska, is in Holt County this week conducting a series of schools among the different ladies clubs, on the use of the Sewing Machine Attachments. The following series of meetings are being held: Tuesday at O'Neill, Wednesday at the Cleveland church at Dustin, Thursday in Wyoming precinct southwest of Chambers, and Friday at Ewing.

Mrs. R. M. Sauers left Thursday morning for a visit with relatives at Erie, Pennsylvania.

Having removed the bees from the Beha hotel, William Beha is giving the building a new coat of paint.

Miss Ida Chapman will leave this evening for Denver, Colorado, for a visit with her brother, Lawrence.

Ray Martin has accepted a position with the Harding Cream station, entering upon his new duties June 1.

The ninth annual banquet of the Holt County Masons will be held in this city, Thursday evening, June 28.

Mrs. Max J. Golden entertained at dancing at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. F. E. McMillan, in honor of her guest, Miss Lillian King, of Chicago, Friday evening.

S. J. Weekes and Attorney J. D. Cronin were in Ewing Friday of last week on matters connected with the settlement of the estate of Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid.

The American Legion dance Tuesday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall, was both a social and financial success. Many couples from neighboring towns attended.

R. E. Folger and family, of Monett, Missouri, are visiting the family of W. G. Beha, a brother of Mrs. Folger. They are traveling by auto to California, where they plan to spend the summer, visiting Yellowstone Park and other places of interest en route.

Dr. W. F. Finley and Mrs. Finley entertained at a dinner-party at the Subway, Monday evening, for eight couples, in honor of Miss Gertrude Donovan, of St. Paul, Minnesota, sister of Mrs. Finley. Dinner was followed by a theatre party at the Royal.

King Tut's orchestra accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Rasley to Atkinson Tuesday afternoon with the "The World's A Stage" film, which they showed in Atkinson Tuesday and Wednesday evening and which they will show at Page Thursday evening. Miss Dorothy Hall, Ed Davidson and Martin Cronin operated the Royal during their absence.

Inman Leader, June 14: Preston Riley, Homer Seikman, Clarence Manchester and C. A. Rutledge, will leave by auto next Tuesday for the Pacific coast. They have their preparations all made for camping and will undoubtedly have a pleasant trip. Mr. Rutledge will only go as far as the Yellowstone Park, but the rest of them expect to go to Washington and California.

Long Pine is to have one of the most modern racing plants in Nebraska, outside of Omaha. Long Pine business men interested in racing are behind the movement and a race track is to be built in connection with the Long Pine amusement park. It is the purpose to hold a spring running meet and a fall harness meet each year when the new racing park is completed.

Salvatorino is continuing to bring a few dollars into the coffers of her owner, Sheriff Peter Duffy. Monday at the Omaha race meet she showed third in the second race, five turions, and Omaha sport writers agreed that she would have won the race easily had she gotten away to a better start. This is the third event in which Salvatorino has been in the money during the meet.

Ewing Advocate, June 15: Mrs. John Klein, of Dallas, South Dakota, passed away last Friday at the Joe Schilder home in Ewing, her death resulting from cancer. She had been in a hospital at Hastings, taking treatment, but to no avail. Besides her husband, she leaves a son and several daughters of this vicinity, who mourn her loss. Funeral services were held from the Catholic church in Ewing Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Father Alberts officiating, and interment was made in St. Peter's cemetery.

Candidates for enrollment in the citizens' military training camp to be held at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, August 1 to 30, are to be selected by the American Legion. Simonson Post will be requested by the government to name three young men to attend the encampment. Young men between the ages of seventeen and twenty-four years are eligible to the appointments. The age qualifications do not apply to those with previous military training. World war veterans up to the age of 36 years are eligible.

Inman Leader, June 14: During the time the farewell reception in honor of the Noyes family was in progress at the hall thieves entered the home of James Colman and stole a hand bag belonging to Mrs. Coleman containing over $80.00 in silver and currency. The matter was kept quiet at the time with the hopes that the missing money would be returned, but up-to-date the matter still remains a mystery. The hand bag was laying on the dining room table when Mrs. Colman left for the reception and could not be found after her return home about midnight.

Early in the week reports of damages in the north part of the county from the heavy rain of Sunday were greatly exaggerated. Roads and approaches to bridges were washed out along several of the creeks, but farmers generally considered the downpour a welcome one. From .77 of an inch at O'Neill, to two and two and one-half inches in the north part of the county were recorded. In Boyd county along the Ponca creek bottoms considerable damage was done by flood waters, particularly around Bristow and Lynch. At the latter place a North Western passenger train was marooned.

P. B. Harty and John C. Gallagher are the new proprietors of the Grand Cafe, taking charge Monday morning. Ed and Frank O'Connell, the retiring proprietors, will take a vacation of a month or so before re-entering business. The Grand, under the able management of O'Connell brothers has grown to be recognized as one of the best restaurants and cafes in the state outside of the very largest cities. The retiring owners leave behind them a record of courtesy and accommodation to the public which cannot be exceeded or excelled, but which the many friends of the new proprietors, Messrs Harty and Gallagher feel sure Pat and John will do their utmost to emulate and equal.

ZLOMKE-SPECK.

(Chambers Sun, June 14.)
At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 3rd, Miss Ida Speck and Mr. Fred Zlomke were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Parsonage at Grand Island, Nebraska, Dr. Harmon officiating. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Louisa Speck and the groom's brother, Mr. Ludwig Zlomke. The bride wore a dainty gown of blue canton crepe trimmed in blue and gray steel beads, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The groom wore a grey suit.

A six o'clock wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Laurence Speck, of Grand Island.

Mrs. Zlomke is a sweet and charming young woman, accomplished in domestic arts. Mr. Zlomke is an energetic and exemplary young man, and one of our Chambers business men, being the proprietor of the restaurant and meat market.

They arrived in Chambers last Friday after a little trip to Lincoln.

MRS. JOHN M. HUSTON.

(Omaha Bee, June 13.)
Mrs. John Huston, widow of a pioneer Nebraska Presbyterian minister, died Tuesday morning at the home of her son, L. E. Huston, 3325 North Fifty-ninth street. Mrs. Huston had lived at the House of Hope for the last four or five years, until two weeks ago when she suffered a nervous stroke and was removed to the home of her son. Rev. Mr. Huston, her husband, organized the First Presbyterian church at Atkinson, Nebraska, in 1882. He died 30 years ago. Besides L. E. Huston, Mrs. Huston

PAID LOCALS.

WANTED—DOMESTIC HELP.—Mrs. W. J. McDonald. 3-1f

TWO EIGHT-FOOT BINDERS, McCormick and Deering, nearly new, for sale cheap.—J. T. O'Malley. 3-2p

WANTED—WOMAN OR GIRL TO work by the hour or day.—Mrs. J. P. Gilligan.

LOST—A BLACK, BALD-FACE pony, half Shetland and weighing about 650 pounds. Had on halter with rope attached. Finder please notify this office.

FOR SALE—AT MY PLACE, adjoining the fair grounds: One wide-tire box wagon, one set work harness, one horse and fifty shoates.—Hugh McKenna. 3-2

NOTICE.

On and after July 1st, we will sell for cash only.
3-3 SANITARY MARKET.

is survived by two other sons, J. J. Huston of Omaha and T. R. Huston of Milwaukee.

JOHN B. ANDERSON.

John B. Anderson died at his home in this city Sunday, after an illness of several months, preceded by a long period of poor health, aged 66 years, 5 months and 22 days. Mr. Anderson when a boy settled with his parents in northeastern Holt county, near Dorsey, in 1874, and from that time until the last few years and with the exception of several years spent in Minnesota, had continued to reside in the vicinity since. Several years ago he removed with Mrs. Anderson to O'Neill, since when he had made this place his home. He was united in marriage with Miss Mae McElhane, of Dorsey, on December, 28, 1880, to which union three sons and three daughters were born. He leaves to survive him his widow and three sons: J. W., of Martin, South Dakota; D. C., of Dorsey, and Glenn Anderson, of this city; and two daughters: Mrs. Myrtle Thomas, of Portland, Oregon, and Mrs. Orpha Bayer, of Missouri, South Dakota. Also four brothers: J. C., and O. F. Anderson, of Portland, Oregon, H. W. Anderson, of Washata, Iowa, and C. E. Anderson, of Des Moines, Iowa.

The funeral service was held from the Methodist church at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon the Rev. J. A. Hutchins officiating, and burial was in the cemetery at Star, Nebraska.

John B. Anderson was prominently identified with the development of northeastern Holt county and was widely recognized for his worth as one of its substantial citizens. The Frontier joins in extending sympathy and condolence to the bereaved relatives in their hour of sorrow.

JOHN McALLISTER DIES SUDDENLY

(Stuart Advocate)
John McAllister suffered a bad stroke of paralysis at his home Monday morning, and because of enfeebled condition and his advanced age, he did not rally, but passed away just before noon, Wednesday. Funeral services be held at the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon.

ROYAL THEATRE

THE COOLEST PLACE IN TOWN
CELEBRATE WITH US JULY 4th.
BIG TIME FOR EVERYBODY.

FRIDAY

Machlin Arbuckle in
"PRODIGAL JUDGE"

2-Reel Comedy

SATURDAY

Tom Moors in
"FROM THE GROUND UP"

Comedy

Ninth Chapter
"OREGON TRAIL"

SUNDAY & MONDAY

Enid Bennett, Huntley Gordon, Willard Mack, Rosemary Theby in
"YOUR FRIEND AND MINE"

What you will see in "Your Friend and Mine" a drama of rich and roguery. A magnificent scenic drama of a husband's selfish sacrifice. A brilliant screen play of luxury and lovers. It has story, cast direction, acting, drama, "class"—everything in fact that goes to make a good substantial hit with a 100 per cent audience appeal.

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

Charles Ray in
"R. S. U. P."

Comedy and Fables

THURSDAY & FRIDAY

"ALL BROTHERS ARE VALIANT"

2-Reel Comedy

Watch for dates on "Trifling Women" with Barbara LeMar and Raymond Navoro. A few more big ones coming soon.

"Famous Mrs. Fair."
"Quincy Adams Sawyer"
"Hearts Aflame"
"Jazzmania"

Quick Service

Cash For Cream, Eggs, Or Poultry

Harding Cream Station

(PHONE 4)

Half-Price Hat Sale

at

Grady's Hat Shop

Specials for Saturday

Golden Star Coffee

35c per pound

Fresh Shipment of

Gooch's Flour

Cash Paid

For Eggs

Henry Bay

Phone 35

O'Neill, Nebr.

SALE BILLS—THE BEST AT THE FRONTIER.

BOTH FROM THE SAME LITTER
TON-GORS
BUTTERMILK HOG BUILDER
DOES IT EVERY TIME!

Both these pigs came from the same litter; both were fed exactly the same, except that the big one had milk. A remarkable example—but Ton-Gors will do it every time. The pure powdered buttermilk in Ton-Gors is a great health and growth producer. It is perfectly balanced with other foods that give it 33% greater feeding value.

HOGS TO MARKET 60 DAYS SOONER
Ton-Gors costs less than a cent a gallon of rich slop. It is the best feeding investment you can make. Though Ton-Gors is for market hogs, many fancy hog raisers use it for their best show hogs. The grand champions at the last Royal and International shows were Ton-Gors fed. There's a reason. Start feeding Ton-Gors right away. Have big litters, healthy hogs and fast growers. Get them on the market 60 to 90 days sooner at a lot bigger profit. Order a few bags today.

Sold By Zimmerman & Son
Office 118 O'Neill, Neb. Res. 179

START FEEDING TON-GORS TODAY!

Half Rates After 8:30 P.M.

Station-to-station service from 8:30 P.M. to midnight costs about one-half the day rate; from midnight to 4:30 A.M. about one-fourth.

The station-to-station rate, which is considerably lower than for person-to-person service, applies when you will talk to anyone who may be at the telephone called.

To keep in touch with home or business, to get information quickly, to avoid expensive trips, or for any business or social purpose, "Long Distance" is the dependable way.

NORTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY