

MORE LOCAL MATTERS.

Decorate your car and help the Legion boys make this the greatest celebration in the history of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Neustrom and son, Bobbie, of Moline, Iowa, arrived Friday to attend the Dougherty-Magirl nuptials.

Mrs. Frank Rentschler, of Springfield arrived Wednesday morning for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Elleg O'Donnell.

Regular meeting of the O'Neill Woman's Club Wednesday, June 27, 3:30 p. m. Important business to be transacted and special music.

Ed Kotlar of the governmental barberry eradication department, left Wednesday for Hartington, Nebraska, after completing a survey of Holt county.

Mrs. Eva Ziemer left Thursday morning for Marshall, Minnesota, called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar G. Marcotte, formerly Miss Zella Ziemer.

A statement in the announcements of the death of Miss Edna Fay Dailey last week, to the effect that Miss Dailey was taken ill at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Welsh, was erroneous. Miss Dailey was ill when she called at the Welsh residence.

Lee E. Downey Wednesday added to his South Dakota land holdings by purchasing a quarter section of Todd county land adjoining a quarter already owned by him.

Do not wait for the committee to see you, but get busy and decorate your car and compete for the prize. Send your name to Mrs. F. J. Dishner or R. R. Morrison for entry.

W. H. Harty and son, Gene, left Thursday morning for Shullsburg, Wisconsin, where they will attend the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Harty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harty.

Dr. Robert Magirl and family, of Jackson, Nebraska, came in their car Tuesday to attend the wedding of the doctor's sister, Miss Mary Magirl, and Mr. John J. Dougherty, of Clearfield, South Dakota, which took place Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's church.

The board of county supervisors, which has been sitting as a board of equalization this week, adjourned Wednesday afternoon until next Tuesday morning when it will meet in regular session. A session as a board of equalization to hear complaints of those whose assessments have been raised will be held Thursday, June 28.

Miss Anna O'Donnell entertained Wednesday afternoon at a bridge luncheon at the Subway and at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Ellen O'Donnell, in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Q. K. Deaver, of Casper, Wyoming, and Mrs. Frank Rentschler, of Springfield, Nebraska. Mrs. Frank Biglin won the prize for married ladies, Miss Genevieve Biglin the one for the single ladies and Miss Irene Biglin the all-cut prize.

E. N. Purcell, accompanied by Mrs. Purcell, and their two young daughters, arrived last evening from Stramsburg, Nebraska, after an extremely arduous trip through mud and water, by automobile. Mrs. Purcell and daughters have been visiting friends in Stramsburg since the removal of the Purcell Produce company from Scribner to O'Neill, and until their furniture arrived. They now are located in the Colligan residence in the northeast section of the city.

JUVENILE GOLFERS WILL STAGE TOURNAMENT AT COUNTRY CLUB

Juvenile golfers will stage a golf tournament at the O'Neill Country Club course June 23-25-26-27. All the boys and girls sixteen years of age or under are eligible and it only costs two bits to enter. The fund thusly derived will be expended on a swell picnic banquet in the club grove the concluding evening of the tournament.

A goodly bunch of prizes has been assembled for the great event and will be on display in the windows of the Abdoch store. Hugh O'Donnell is secretary of the tournament and will receive the entries and the two bits. The qualifying rounds will be played Saturday.

HEISS-FRENCH.

(Page Reporter, June 14.)

Mr. Leonard Heiss and Miss Louise French were married on June 7, 1923, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. J. Bryan.

The wedding took place at eight o'clock in the evening, under an elm tree on the beautiful lawn of the Bryan home. A large company of relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony which was pronounced by Rev. L. R. McGaughey.

The bride was very becomingly dressed in a soft canton crepe gown, and the groom wore a neat suit of brown serge.

Refreshments, consisting of ice-cream with strawberry dressing and several kinds of cake, were served.

Both bride and groom are well known to all in the community. The bride has made her home during the past years with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, spending the winters teaching in the vicinity. Mr. Heiss is known as a successful farmer, whose heart is larger than his pocket book. Both are active workers in the church and the community, and are highly esteemed by everyone.

Many friends extend their best wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Heiss.

CROGHAN-HEENAN.

(Butte Gazette, June 14.)

Monday morning at 5:30 a. m. at Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic church Mr.

Harold Croghan and Miss Marie Heenan were united in marriage by Rev. Father Stahl. After the ceremony, the bridal party and relatives enjoyed a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heenan. They left on the 7:40 train for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Sioux City, where Mr. Croghan will teach during the coming term.

The bridal couple were attended by Miss Eva Ellingston, of Bloomfield, Nebraska, a school-mate of the bride, Roland Dinckel, of Randolph. The bride was dressed in white satin crepe and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride is well known to Butte people, having moved here several years ago with her father when he was elected county sheriff. Since completing her high school work, she has been assisting in a local store most of the time.

REKA-SHAUGHNESY.

Miss Esther M. Shaughnesy and Mr. Charles C. Reka were married in the holy bonds of matrimony Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church, the Very Reverend M. F. Cassidy officiating. They were attended by Miss Ina Hirsch as bridesmaid and Mr. Thomas Brennan as groomsmen. Following a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, one mile east of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Reka left by auto for a short eastern trip, after which they will be at home in this city.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaughnesy, is one of the popular and accomplished young ladies of the community, esteemed by all who know her, and the groom the son of Mrs. Conrad C. Reka, one of O'Neill's most promising and rising young business men. He is associated with Mr. J. B. Mellor in the automobile business. The Frontier joins their many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Reka congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

DOUGHERTY-MAGIRL.

Miss Mary Magirl of this city and Mr. John J. Dougherty, of Clearfield, South Dakota, were married at St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, the Very Reverend M. F. Cassidy officiating. They were attended by Miss Nell Magirl, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and by Dr. Robert Magirl, of Jackson, Nebraska, brother of the bride, as groomsmen. The bride is the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magirl of this city and for several years has been teaching in the public schools of South Dakota. The groom is one of the substantial young ranchmen of Clearfield and will take his bride to a new home, just completed and furnished, on the Dougherty ranch.

A wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and guests at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magirl, following the ceremony, and there was a wedding cake prepared by the bride's sister, in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty left afterward in their car for Darlington, Shullsburg, and other Wisconsin points, for an extended wedding trip, after which they will be at home on the ranch near Clearfield.

The Frontier joins with the many

WHO'S YOUR FRIEND?

No matter. Any of your friends would be glad to —SEE—

"YOUR FRIEND AND MINE"

—AT—

ROYAL TREATRE SUNDAY & MONDAY

McCormick and Deering Repairs

- Six-foot McCormick sickle (Malleable Head)..... $2.50
- Six-foot McCormick or Deering Sickle (Steel Head)..... $2.75
- McCormick and Deering sections per box (25) $1.25
- McCormick and Deering Ledger Plates (25)..... $1.00
- McCormick and Deering Rake Teeth..... 35c

These are all Genuine IHC repairs.

O. F. Biglin

CUPIDS INVADES RANKS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Popular O'Neill Teacher Marries At Auburn, Nebraska

Auburn, Neb., Herald, June 8.—Mr. Franz Gamboni and Miss Lilah Stuckenholtz were united in marriage at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. Father Feeney at the parsonage of St. Joseph's Catholic church in this city. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. The newly married couple left a short time later on a honeymoon trip to Kansas City, St. Louis and other points, and will be at home to their friends after June 20th, on one of the homes owned by the groom north of Julian.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this community and come from old and highly respected families. The groom has been a resident of the Julian neighborhood for more than a quarter of a century and by his thrift, the exercise of superior judgment and close attention to business has become a large land owner and is recognized as one of the substantial citizens of that community. He has long since proven that he is worthy of the high regard in which he is held by all who know him.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Rose Stuckenholtz, having been born and raised near Julian. She is a very highly accomplished young woman, being a graduate of the Nebraska City high school, completing her preparation for teaching at the Peru normal. She taught successfully in the rural schools, and for several years past was a member of the teaching staff in the city school of O'Neill, Nebraska. In addition to special qualifications as a teacher she possess a charming personality and all the graces of true womanhood, which have combined to endear her to a very wide circle of friends.

The Herald joins the many friends of this worthy couple in the expression of congratulations and good wishes and the hope that the years may bring to them happiness and prosperity.

WALKER-FOWLER.

Miss Nellie Loretta Walker, of Page, and Mr. William Henry Fowler, of Sioux City, Iowa, formerly of Inman, Nebraska, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian church in this city Tuesday morning, the Reverend George Longstaff officiating. They were attended by Miss Ethel Walker, sister of the bride and by Mr. Harry Miller. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Walker, of Page, and is sister of Mrs. L. A. Burgess, of this city, admired and esteemed by all who know her. The groom, a former resident of Inman, is engaged with the firm of Tollerton & Warfield, of Sioux City, and has a large circle of friends in this community. The young couple left for an automobile tour of Minnesota immediately after the ceremony and will be at home at 17th and Jackson streets, Sioux City, after August 10. The Frontier joins their many friends in best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

DOLAN-DAILY.

The wedding of Miss Frances Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Daly, of Lincoln, formerly of O'Neill and Mineola, to Mr. Patrick Dolan, of Denver, Colorado, took place at 9:30 Wednesday morning at Sacred Heart church, Lincoln, the Reverend Father Adrian Shackley performing the sacred ceremony. The young couple were attended by Miss Helen Harrington, of O'Neill, niece of the bride, and by Mr. Miles Dolan, brother of the groom. Miss Marie Sabota sang an Ave Maria and the wedding march was played by Miss Martha Sabota. Mrs. Dolan is the sister of Mrs. J. J. Harrington and Mr. Charles M. Daly of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Dolan will reside in Denver.

GALLAGHER-COOK.

The marriage of Miss Alice Leona Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, and Mr. Thomas Lloyd Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Gallagher, both residing north of O'Neill, took place at St. Patrick's

Jonteel BEAUTY COMPACTS

50c

Perfumed with the Wonderful New Odor of 26 Flowers

FACE Powder in its handiest, most economical form. Dainty cakes of Face Powder Jonteel in charming little boxes that slip into your hand-bag. No spilling—no waste. Exquisite shades—to match all complexions. Complete with puff, 50c.

P. S. There's a large size Jonteel Beauty Compact for the dressing table, $1.00.

C. E. Stout, 'The Rexall Store'

Auction Sale!

I will sell at public auction at Stuart, Nebr., on

Saturday, June 30, 1923

The following described machinery:

- One 16-30 Advance Rumley Oil-Pull Engine in first class shape.
- Ideal Rumley Separator 28x44.
- McCormick 8-Row Shredder and Husker in first class running order.
- One 4-Bottom John Deere Gang Plow.

Numerous other articles in line of Threshers' Supplies.

Charles C. Schmoker, Owner

Juvenile Tournament

June 23-25-26-27

Announcing the First Annual Youngsters Golf Tourney on the O'Neill Country Club Course. Age limit 16 years. Entrance Fee, 25c.

A Banquet A La Picnic will be served the evening of the last day of play—Wednesday. Twenty-five prizes.

All boys and girls under 16 eligible. Sign up with

HUGH O'DONNELL.

Real News Paramount

In the country newspaper, sensations, scandals—the recording of human misery—is almost taboo. At least it certainly is secondary to the printing of real news about people and things.

For the province of the country paper—your Home Town Paper—is to give community interests first place, printing the more or less sensational personal items only when necessary to keep faith with subscribers who pay for ALL the news.

Therefore, your Home Town Paper can give you, in full measure and overflowing, 100 per cent pure news about the people in whom you are interested—your relatives and friends of the Old Home Town.

"The Frontier"

Only $2.00 Per Year