Cuticura Soap SHAVES Without Mug

Cuticura Soap is the favorite for safety razor shaving.

SIoux CITY PTG. CO., NO. 29-1923.

Quite Likely.
"I heard tell in town that Lum Stucker slashed Buck Bolligee with a knife last night," related Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, upon his return from the county seat.
"What for?" inquired his wife.
"Burhning if I know! You see, I was sorter mixed up in a swap when some feller came by and told it, and I didn't pay no pertickler attention. But I reckon likely they'd been quarrelling, or something that-a-way."—Kansas City Star.

The Literal Husband.
Wife—Where's the chicken I told you to bring home?
Husband—Nothing doing.
Wife—Why not?
Husband—You told me there'd be a lot of them, and for me not to take the first one they showed me—
Wife—Yes—
Husband—Well, you told me to pick one for myself. And there wasn't one there that hadn't already been picked thoroughly.

His Identity.
"A posse of my children had a fight yesterday afternoon," stated Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, "and I was the referee."
"You mean 'referee,' don't you?" asked Zeke Yankey.
"Nope! They were fighting me till I shook 'em off and tore out for the timber. I clumb a tree, and they kept trying to climb it and pull me down. But I kicked 'em loose till they got sorter tired and quit. But I shore was the referee till I wore 'em out."—Kansas City Star.

MRS. HICKEY SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass.—"I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the floor. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I thought I would try it. After taking it a week I began to improve, and now I feel fine and am doing all of my housework, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonial, as I would like to help any one suffering the way I did from such a weakness."—Mrs. DELIA HICKEY, 4 S. ## PLURALITY ESTIMATED AT 40,000

Farmer-Labor Nominee Makes Unexpected Showing in Former Preus Strongholds—Farmer Vote Light.

Universal Service.
St. Paul, Minn., July 16.—The election of Magnus Johnson, farmer-labor candidate for the United States Senate, by approximately 40,000 was conceded by Governor J. A. O. Preus, his republican opponent, at midnight Monday.

Charles R. Adams, chairman of the republican state central committee, also admitted defeat.

Although the race was fairly close, Johnson carried many early counties upstate, and was carrying St. Paul and Ramsey county.

Preus Carries Minneapolis.
Preus had a lead of 3,000 in Minneapolis and Hennepin county with 94 out of 36 precincts reported. His lead in Hennepin was estimated at 10,000 on complete returns.

Although the farmer vote was light Johnson did better than he was expected to do in many counties.

Preus' counties in the southern part of the state had not reported except for scattering precincts. The vote was a surprise in many counties. Some which had been conceded to Johnson early in the campaign gave Preus a small lead and were about even. Other Preus counties gave Johnson a surprising one.

"I'm In," Says Magnus.
Johnson visited newspaper offices at 10 o'clock and was jubilant over his chances.
"I'm in the United States Senate," he said.

Despite the heavy vote, betting in the twin cities was nine to eight on Johnson at 5 o'clock and was 2 to 1 on Johnson in many upstate cities. At this hour farmer-labor managers would not concede an advantage to Preus.

Pitched battles occurred in Minneapolis Monday when groups put up signs "vote today." The move was originated by Preus headquarters and Johnson men were quick to resent it. Signs were torn down as soon as they were up and workers came to blows frequently. Arrests for violation of city ordinances which prohibit signs on streets were being sworn out.

ELEVATED HITS SUBWAY TRAIN

Motorman Expected to Die of Injuries—Six Others Hurt—Switchman at Fault, Claim

New York, July 16.—Seven persons were injured today when a Ninth Avenue "E" train crashed into a stalled subway train on a trestle on Jerome avenue.

Motorman Joseph Higgins, of the elevated, was hurled to a hospital suffering from serious injuries, while six passengers also were taken to hospitals.

The accident occurred on the elevated trestle where the elevated and subway lines converge.

The wooden elevated train telescoped the rear steel car of the empty subway train and the second wood car piled up in the wreckage. Only about 15 passengers were aboard the elevated.

Higgins was pinned in the motorman's cab and it was necessary for firemen to chop him out.

Assistant superintendent Quinn, of the Manhattan division of the road, said the subway train should have pulled out of the way of the on-coming elevated. He placed the blame on a switchman who was supposed to have placed the subway train on a siding.

DOZEN HURT

Elgin, Ill., July 16.—Twelve persons were injured, one perhaps fatally today, when an Elgin and Belvidere interurban car and a freight car collided near here.

Why They Flunked.
From the Christian Evangelist.
Among recent schoolboy examination "howlers" we choose the following:
"Things which are equal to the same thing are equal to anything else."
"A grass widow is the wife of a dead vegetarian."
"Oceania is that continent which contains no land."
"In India a man out of a cask may not marry a woman out of another cask."
"Parallel lines are the same distance all the way and do not meet unless you bend them."
"Gravitation is that which if there were none we should all fly away."
"Louis XVI was gattained during the French Revolution."
"Horse power is the distance one horse can carry a pound of water in an hour."
"Palsy is a kind of new writer's dance."
"Letters in sloping print are hysterics."

Already in the Bets and Yellow.
Some one has said that an old man is simply a man twenty years older than ourselves. This little joke from Punch is evidently founded on the observation, which, if you will consider it, is an acute one:
"And how's dad?" asked the visitor of a small friend of about eight years.
"Pretty well, thank you, considering," replied the boy.
"Considering what?" inquired the visitor, puzzled.
"Well, he's getting a bit old, you know," replied the boy. "He'll be thirty tomorrow."—Youth's Companion.

Burden of France.
According to the French ministry of the liberated regions, France has already spent in reconstruction work almost half of the 102,000,000,000 francs, representing the amount of property damages in the war-ravaged area, and has received less than one-twenty-fifth of that amount from Germany.—Indianapolis News.

Wife Likes to Hear About Eating.
Younger Clubman—I thought this was the night with the wife?
Elder Clubman—It was, but she went to hear Professor Blank on "Life of the Cannibal."
"I didn't think your wife would care for that."
"Oh, yes. She never fails to go where they talk about eating!"—Pitt Panther.

O Boston!
Urging that the candidates in an impending local political struggle make a study of terse English, the Boston Herald drives its argument home by quoting this conversation between two young women who met at a party:
"Say, usen't you work to Smith's?"
"Sure, I seen you there," she replied with cordiality. "Usen't your feet to ache you?"—Youth's Companion.

His Condition.
"Ah! How fine to have such a family, to be married, and—" rhapsodized a queer-looking tourist who had halted his Hootin' Nanny car in the big road. "How—"
"Eh-yah!" responded Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, who was lopping over his own front fence. "I've got fourteen—yaw-w-w-n!—children, and the general impression 'pears to be that I'm married. I d'know myself, though. You see, whilst the justice of the peace was operating I fell asleep and hain't never been right shore that I wasn't sued for damages, or something that-away, instead of getting married. But wife 'lows a wedding ceremony was performed, and so I've jutt sorter—yaw-w-w-n!—let it go at that."—Kansas City Star.

The Modern Girl.
He had duly proposed and been accepted and the engagement sealed with a kiss, a number of them, in fact. Then, as they sat on the sofa, he ventured to discuss more prosaic matters.
"One little question, dearest."
"Yes?" she replied expectantly.
"Can you cook?" he asked earnestly.
"Why no."
"Then how will we eat?"
"Oh, George, aren't you going to continue to bring me bonbons?"

Some people have faith in odd numbers—usually one.

Quite So.
"The ex-sultan used to win many mock battles." "He should have stuck to the line he was good in."

LONG RECORD OF GOOD WORK

American Sunday School Union Has Completed Its 106th Year of Service—Its Activities.

The American Sunday School union, oldest Sunday-school organization in the country, has just completed its 106th year of service. Since its founding, the Christian Work (undenominational) tells us, the union has organized 138,000 Sunday schools, into which it has gathered 5,500,000 pupils. During the last year it either organized or reorganized 1,800 schools, issued a dozen Sunday-school periodicals, with a circulation of some 2,000,000, and published 200,000 books, booklets and other Sunday-school requisites. Further,

"More than five thousand persons, young and old, have professed conversion in connection with its work during the past year, and forty-seven churches of various denominations have grown out of its schools. Its work covers the whole United States and is supported by some twenty-five thousand givers—people who believe that union, evangelical work of this sort is the salvation of our outlying rural districts."—Literary Digest.
