Mrs. Catherine Smith went to Os-kosh, Nebraska, Wednesday of last week, for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Evans.

Lew Storz, head of the western sales department of the Storz Auto Co., of Omaha, was a guest Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor.

Marriage licenses were issued at Neligh Wednesday to Edmond Sattlar and Miss Clara Hansen, both of O'Neill, and to Roy E. Hill, of Orchard, and Miss Ruth Kilpatrick, of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McElhaney, of Page, are rejoicing over the fact that they were not seriously injured when their Ford car went to the ditch with them between Orchard and Page about eleven o'clock Sunday evening and turned completely over. The breaking of the wishbone caused the trouble. Neither of the occupants were injured beyond a few bruises. Mrs. McElhaney will be remembered here as Miss Harriet Robertson.

Dick Hubert, living north of O'Neill, was rendered unconscious and was severely cut and bruised about the head late this evening when, it is reported, he endeavored to cross the road ahead of another car with his Ford to enter a gate on the left side of the road about ten miles north of O'Neill. The other car was a Star owned by C. D. Coleman, of Paxton, Nebraska. Both cars were badly damaged.

O'NEILL COUNTRY CLUB TO OPEN CLUB HOUSE

The new Country Club house is to be formally opened on Thursday evening, August 9th. The Adams Colored Jazz Band has been secured for the occasion. Attendance will be limited to club members only and their immediate families with the exception that each club member is privileged to hand in the name to the chairman of the entertainment committee, one out of town guest that he may wish to have invited.

THE GOLDEN HOTEL IS BEING REFINISHED

The lease for the Golden Hotel was signed last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hubbell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Griffin, of Atkinson, who will operate the hotel for a term of five years. The management have purchased the furniture and fixtures of Mrs. W. T. Evans and have added some new furniture. T. V. Golden, the owner of the building, has men at work re-decorating the entire building, and in a short time the Golden will present the same appearance that it did ten years ago at the time of the opening.

THREE MEN ARRESTED FOR SEINING IN ELKHORN

Seining in the Elkhorn river received a severe jolt during the past week when Deputy State Game Warden C. A. Gray arrested Wm. Bruder for using a trammel net in the river near Atkinson last Friday. County Judge C. J. Malone assessed a fine of $15.00 and costs amounting to $25.00. On Monday Tom Welsh and Wm. Gaffney, of Emmet, were before the county court charged with using a seine. Judge Malone fined each of them $15.00 and costs, but upon recommendation of the game warden $10.00 of the fine was remitted.

G. W. MYERS & SON OPERATING LIGHT PLANT

G. W. Myers and son Roy G. Myers, Wednesday, assumed personal management of the O'Neill Light, Heat and Power Company plant which they recently purchased from the Hanford Produce Company. The new proprietors are practical electricians and have had many years experience in the operation of lighting systems. Jess Scofield and J. B. Myer, who were formerly with the plant will remain under the new management.

The Company have rented the building now occupied by W. H. Harty and will use it as an up-town office where all trouble calls will be taken care of and where supplies can be purchased.

In another column will be found an article from the Fairbury Journal which speaks very highly of Mr. Myers' services in Fairbury which alone is sufficient recommendation and introduction to the people of this city.

STATE TO TRANSFER BANK RECEIVERSHIPS

Lincoln, July 30.—Between fifty and sixty bank receiverships will be dissolved and turned over to the new state guaranty fund commission within the next week or so, it was announced this morning by K. C. Knudson, head of the state banking department.

This is in accord with the new banking law which provided for the transfer within four months after the act took effect. It was approved on April, August 7 is therefore the last day for the transfers.

The assets of the Farmers State bank of Hadar will be sold at public auction today, Knudson announced, and the assets of the Farmers bank of Page later.

Bank examiners and Knudson himself are out over the state every day making arrangements for turning over the receiverships.

BAZELMAN-CARL

Fred Bazelman and Miss May Carl were married by County Judge Ingram at Neligh, Wednesday afternoon, July 18th. They returned home that evening. They were accompanied to Neligh by James Carl, father of the bride.

A card from E. N. Purcell announces the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Purcell and children at the home of their daughter at Gillette, Wyoming, Monday evening. They drove 287 miles Sunday through the mud, and 263 miles Monday. Mr. Purcell says that the crops are good through South Dakota and that the large wheat fields look good to him.

The ladies of the Degree of Honor held a most enjoyable picnic at the country club, Monday evening of this week, in honor of Mrs. Margaret Fitzsimmons and Miss Anna Brennan, who are to move to Omaha in the near future. Following a fine chicken supper the ladies engaged in a game of tennis, Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Mary Mullen carrying highest honors.

Dewey Courtney, of Kearney, came up last week and on August first took charge of the Harding Cream Company station here, relieving the former manager, L. P. McCoun, who is being transferred to another locality. Mr. Courtney is an experienced cream and produce man and is fully qualified to carry on the business in the same efficient manner as Mr. McCoun. Mr. McCoun went to Omaha Wednesday morning.

A real estate deal of more than $90,000 magnitude, one of the largest in the county this year, was concluded through the Parker-Aaberg real estate firm last week. In it William Druke disposed of his 2,000 acre ranch north of town to Otis Links, of Iowa, at $45 an acre. In the deal Mr. Druke takes in a half-section of Iowa land, near Shenandoah, at $325 an acre. Mr. Links will remove to the Holt county ranch and Mr. Druke will move to Iowa.

"77" Wade has seriously disturbed the peace of mind of the local fishing colony this week by several big catches made in the Elkhorn Wednesday and Thursday. The first day he staged a parade with a seven pound carp caught just below town and Thursday he repeated with a six-pound catfish and two man-sized carp. Jim O'Donnell and Joe Hunter were so disturbed by the showing that they headed for fishing waters right after dinner Thursday and numerous others also were noted hiking riverward.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. McNicholls and Mr. and Mrs. James McDermott were Sunday guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kilmurray, north of Atkinson, and participated in the depletion of the supply of spring chickens on the Kilmurray ranch, one of the most hospitable in Holt county. The guests report conditions ideal in northern Holt and never looking better. Mr. Kilmurray has an excellent herd of 150 young shoats and also fifty young white-face calves, several of which are expected to take premiums at the county fair this fall.
