FERDINAND HENRY SHOEMAKER

Ferdinand Henry Shoemaker died in St. Catherine's hospital, in Omaha, August 17, 1923, following a short illness. He was born at Ottumwa, Iowa, December 7, 1875, and came to Holt county with his parents December 31, 1885, from Calhoun county, Iowa, where the family had resided for a time.

Fred, as he was known by his many friends here, made his home in this vicinity until early in 1909 when he moved to Winner, South Dakota, when the town was yet in its infancy. He was one of the early settlers in that part of South Dakota and assisted in moving the village of Lameroux to the present site of Winner soon after the registration of 1908. He was held in high esteem in his home community as well as in this county where he spent many years of his early life.

The deceased leaves a wife and three children, four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Burke, of Randolph, Nebraska; Miss Louise and Miss Clara, of Alliance, Nebraska; Miss Mary, of Bancroft, Nebraska; three brothers, George, John and Bert, all of O'Neill, and a host of friends, to mourn his death.

The remains arrived in O'Neill Friday afternoon and the funeral was conducted Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock from St. Patrick's church by Rev. F. V. Cassidy.

R. E. MUNSON UNDER ARREST.

(Lincoln Journal, Aug. 19.)

R. E. Munson, better known as Elmer Munson, of Lincoln, was arrested for the theft of two Ford automobiles at 8 o'clock Saturday afternoon by the state law enforcement bureau. He was placed in the Lancaster county jail at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Both automobiles were stolen in Omaha several days ago and when State Law Enforcement Officer T. W. Carroll found the cars in his possession, Munson was in the act of having the engine blocks changed in a local garage. One is a touring car belonging to Clarence McCabe, of Omaha, and the other, a coupe, belonging to T. H. Angler, of Stuart, Nebraska. Both were apparently late cars.

Munson offered no protest to his arrest but admitted his guilt. He shed tears over his capture even though this is one of a half dozen times that justice has stepped in to interrupt his acts. According to Officer Carroll, charges of receiving and having stolen automobiles in his possession will be brought against Munson when trial begins.

OLD SETTLER'S PICNIC

A GRAND SUCCESS SOCIALLY

The twenty-third annual old settler's picnic was held in Hudson's grove, sixteen miles north of O'Neill, last Thursday as advertised. Although the morning was cloudy and threatening rain a large crowd of old settlers and those interested in the get together spirit assembled at the grove, the storm clouds cleared away and the day proved to be fitting for the occasion.

Old settlers were present from different parts of the state, a number coming for the express purpose of renewing acquaintance with their old time friends at the picnic. This homecoming at this time has become an annual event with many.

A number of talks were made during the morning hour. The ball game and other sports occupied the afternoon and the affair came to a close with a big dance in the evening. The Meek band furnished some excellent music throughout the day.

CHANGE IN WESTERN UNION OFFICE HOURS

One for the vicar.

A new vicar called on a young woman with musical ability and asked her how she spent her Sundays.

"I rest," said the young woman, "and during the rest of the week I practice. What do you do on Sundays?"

"Oh, I preach," replied the vicar, smiling.

"And during the rest of the week do you practice?" she asked.—London Tit-Bits.

GEORGE PARSHALL.

(Atkinson Graphic, Aug. 13.)

George Parshall was born near Cooperstown, New York, on December 10, 1850, and died at his home in Holt county Sunday evening, August 12, 1923, having attained the age of 72 years, 8 months and 2 days.

His youth was spent in the states of New York and Wisconsin, and at a later period he moved to Minnesota, where he was united in marriage to Emma Delsina Burke. In 1890 deceased came to Holt county, Nebraska, where the family have resided continuously.

Mr. Parshall leaves to mourn his death, his wife; two sons, Bert and Roy; four sisters, Clara Scott, of Custer, Washington, Mrs. Westinghouse, of Springfield, Minnesota; Mary Lauderdale, of Tennessee; and Stella Bloom, of Worthington, Minnesota; three brothers, James and Delmer, of Canada, and DeKitt, of Kansas; and ten grandchildren; and a host of friends.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church at Butte, Neb., patient sufferer during the months of his illness and it was only within the last days that he expressed a desire to be released from pain by death. For several weeks he was unable to lie down, and could rest only in a chair.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Peterson, and interment was made in the Phoenix cemetery, Tuesday, August 14.

EMMET NEWS.

A Mission will be given at the Catholic church in Emmet from September 16th to 23rd by the famous Redemptorist Orator, the Rev George Sunday.

Father Alberts, of Ewing, Father Jungels, of Stuart, and Father Vanderlaan, of Amelia, were the guests of Father Byrne at the Catholic parsonage during the past week.

Father Vanderlaan, of Amelia, has made all arrangements for building a new parsonage this fall.

The Catholics of Amelia parish will give a picnic and carnival at Inez on September 1st.

LLOYD-ROBERTSON.

(Stuart Advocate, Aug. 16.)

Mr. Elbert William Lloyd, of Careyhurst, Wyoming, and Miss Lydia Mae Robertson, of Stuart, Nebraska, were united in marriage at Careyhurst, August 4, 1923.

The bride is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson of this place, and made this her home until two years ago, when she went to Wyoming where she met Mr. Lloyd.

The groom is foreman of the big ranch of Ex-governor Carey of Wyoming, and the young couple will make their home on the ranch there.

We all unite in wishing for them a full share of life's blessings.

W. J. MORROW.

Probably the best prize offered to the County is a free trip to the International Stock Show at Chicago, December 1 to 8, offered by the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad. This trip includes only the transportation to and from

This is the way your State Fair looks when everything is all set and the Exposition is in full sway.

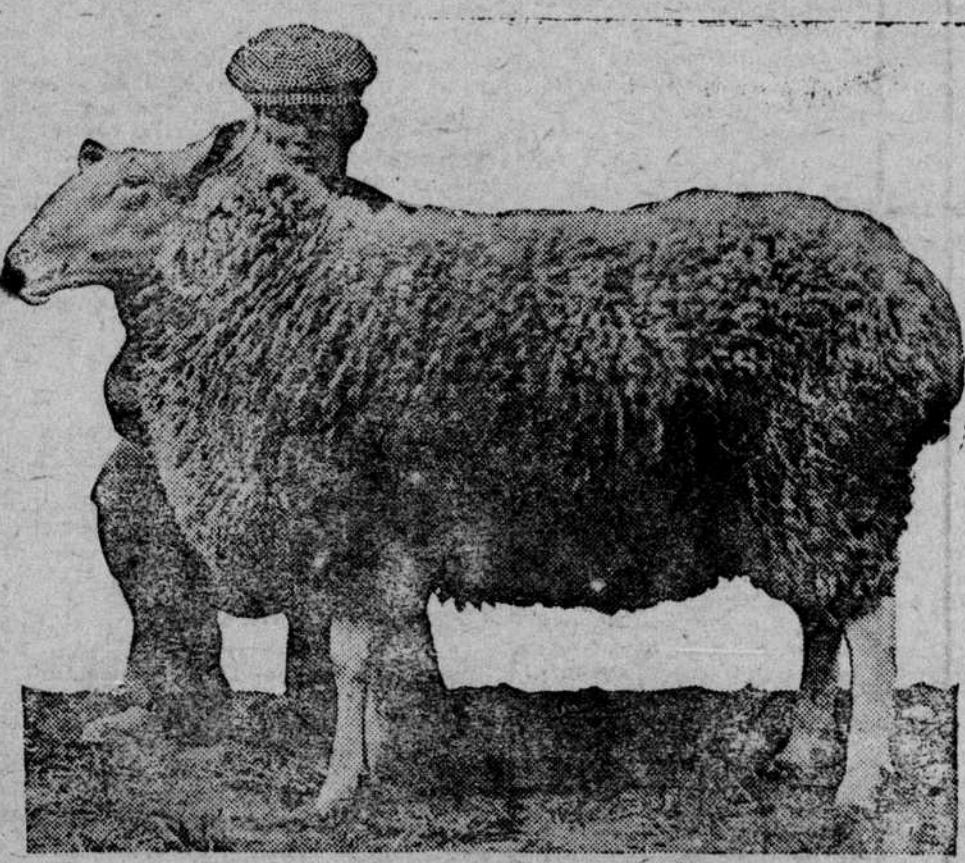

Never mind a little rain Fair week, come on down, paved and cindered streets and cement walks make it as nice on the Fair Grounds as getting around the average city. Plenty of buildings just running over with wonderful exhibits, and then the people, isn't it just great to see so many of your Nebraska neighbors out for a week of education and recreation.

You cannot stay at home and keep in touch with the rest of the world and what they are doing so we are going to look for you all at Lincoln to spend a day or two at the coming Nebraska State Fair, September 2 to 7th.

It was done, and well done, and he has earned his reward. Mr. Burner was everybody's friend and it was his special delight to mingle with his fellowmen. He never failed with a cheery word for anyone whom he might meet. To his aged wife and his children the entire community extends heartfelt sympathy.

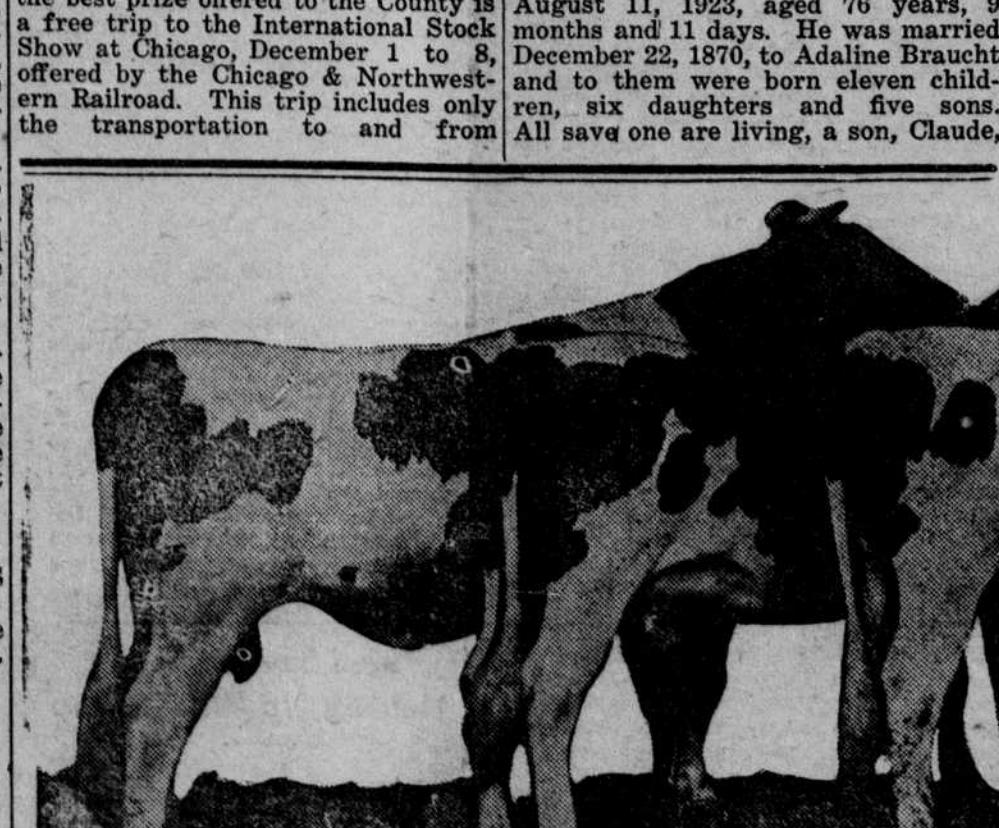

The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. W. L. Philley having charge of the services. The body was taken to Stanton for burial in the cemetery there.

Some day Nebraskans will realize ever. If you want to realize the advantage of keeping a little flock of sheep on the farms of our state. They are the greatest scavengers that can be placed on our farms. They will eat the things that other animals pass by, and at the same time develop meat and wool at practically no expense to you whatsoever. Little flock of your own.

Yes, we grow them big in Nebraska—just as big as they do anywhere. Fair which will be held at Lincoln, Nebraska's swine show alone is September 2 to 7th.

"PUT A PURE-BRED BULL ON EVERY FARM"

The above photograph demonstrates what a Pure-bred Sire at the head of your herd will do. These four animals were all sired by the same bull. The State Fair to be held at Lincoln, September 2 to 7, will give you the opportunity to see many examples of what the pure-bred live stock industry has accomplished within our state in the past few years.
