Frant Pribil shot a monkey at his ranch on Dry creek, six miles south and one mile east of O'Neill, last week. The animal made its appearance in the grove around the Pribil house, frightening Mrs. Pribil and the children, which called for its dispatch. The monkey, quite a large one, is supposed to have escaped from the Savidwe carnival when here several weeks ago, as the carnival company missed a monkey.

The bids for fire fighting equipment was opened by the village board of Atkinson one day last week and in speaking about it last week The Graphic says: The bid of F. M. Keating was accepted as the one most nearly fulfilling the specifications laid down, and requiring: One 1-ton, 4 cylinder gasoline motor chassis, complete with standard equipment, and electric self-starter, and in addition, with electric siren, and with 10-inch swivel search light mounted on dash; also, said chassis mounted with double tank chemical and hose body. The engineers estimate of the entire fire truck, fully equipped in accordance with specifications, is $8,000.00.

Miss Antonette Mullen is perhaps the first O'Neill young lady to undertake an extended trip by aeroplane. Homer Mullen accompanied John Moore and Fyer Sloninger, of Lincoln, to O'Neill from Lincoln last Friday in Mr. Moore's new five-passenger plane. Saturday the boys entertained several O'Neill young ladies with rides in the plane and invited Miss Mullen to return with them to Lincoln in the airship. The invitation was promptly accepted and the party of four left here at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, reaching Lincoln, several hundred miles distance, a little before 7 o'clock the same evening, making the trip without accident. They telephoned their safe arrival to Mrs. P. D. Mullen immediately.

Mrs. Eltha Sivesind left Monday for Sioux Falls to attend the funeral of her brother, William Darr, who died Sunday morning.

Blackened and colored glasses were called into general use Monday afternoon from about 2 o'clock until after 3 to view the eclipse of the sun by the moon, which was partially visible in this vicinity. The eclipse was total in the southwestern part of the United States, but the view of it was interfered with by clouds. Here a clear sky made possible an excellent view.

Emmet cleaned up Atkinson in a hotly contested baseball game which was the feature of the Emmet Round-Up, Wednesday afternoon. The score was 6 to 3. The program of the round-up was a most extensive one and the brocho busting and rough riding features were most exciting. They were witnessed by a large crowd. The day's festivities concluded with a big bovery dance in the evening.

Joel Parker, Elmer E. Bowden and Emily Doe, whose real name is Mary O'Neill, were charged with selling intoxicating liquor in complaints filed Saturday. Search warrants were also issued and the garage occupied by Joel Parker and the Cafe operated by Mary O'Neill searched but no liquors were found. Mary O'Neill, who operates the O'Neill cafe on lower Fourth street, had a hearing before Judge Frank Campbell Thursday morning and was found guilty and fined $100 and costs. The other defendants have not yet been tried. The prosecutions are being conducted by County Attorney Julius D. Cronin.

Tom Brennan is the new manager of the Harding cream station and assembly station at this point. Mr. Brennan took charge of the station last Friday.

The ghostly lights which for years have made their appearance every night in the hilly lands of the ranches of James Connolly and Thomas Gallagher are more frequent and brilliant than ever this year and nightly numerous automobile parties from O'Neill and neighboring towns are out to witness them. With the region is rife as to their cause and it is new interest in the lights speculable that professors of the state university and Creighton university will be asked to come to O'Neill to investigate them. It is the belief of many that a large pocket of luminous gas underlies the territory.

Rose Mary and Ruth Ann, aged two and one-half years, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Will Biglin, sort of disarranged things at the public school the first of the week by deciding to enroll as students. The young ladies after a light repast of green cucumbers with the peelings on climbed the fire escape to the third floor of the building, fearing that their age might bar them from entering in the regular way. They were discovered trying to climb in a cloak room window on the third floor by Miss Alice Triby, and rescued. After a short visit with the kindergarten pupils the Misses Biglin tired of school and returned home, where they partook of another light lunch, of green plums, before settling down to the ordinary routine of life.
