

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUMN XLIII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1923.

NO. 20.

We Pay 28c Cash For Eggs

2 Large Bunches of Celery	25c
Grapes, per basket	50c
Italian Prunes, per box	$1.10
Jonathan Apples, per bushel	$2.15
Peaches, per box	$1.65
Black Walnuts, per pound	8c
Cranberries, per quart	15c
Figs, per package	15c

J. C. Horiskey

LOCAL MATTERS.

Attorney W. J. Hammond was in Omaha on business last Friday.

Andy Gallagher is quite ill at his home six miles southeast of O'Neill.

Anton Toy and daughter, were passengers to Omaha Tuesday morning.

Mrs. H. E. Radaker, of Newport, was an O'Neill visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Judge, Miss Anna Judge, of Atkinson, were visiting in O'Neill Sunday.

The Frontier would like some clean cotton rag. We will pay 5c per pound for a limited amount.

Mrs. Wm. McNally, of this city, spent Sunday of last week at the J. S. Jackson home in Inman.

Glen Anderson has purchased the pool hall of B. H. Dimmitt and took possession Monday morning.

Mano Frey, of Pierce, father of Mrs. Wilton Hayne, of Page, was buried at Pierce in October 6th.

Wm. Cronin came down from Casper, Wyoming, last Friday for a visit with O'Neill friends and relatives.

The Atkinson Hay company is a new business venture at Atkinson with H. B. Frohardt secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. H. B. Winchester and son Richard, returned home last week from a ten week's visit with her parents at Des Moines, Iowa.

Miss Eva Harmon is teaching school at the Tom Sun ranch near Alcova, Wyoming. Miss Eva went to Wyoming about October 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gillespie went to York Monday morning where L. G. is attending the session of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows and Mrs. Gillespie will represent the local Rebekah lodge in the Assembly which is being held there this week.

Harry Bowen went to York Tuesday morning to attend the session of the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F., as delegate from Elkhorn Valley lodge.

Henry Wabs and his father have been quite ill during the past few days at their home one mile east of Phoenix postoffice in the northwest part of the county.

Miss Viola Kellar came home from Hastings college last Saturday to attend the funeral services for her cousin, Miss Mae Hoffman, which were held Tuesday.

P. C. Kelley returned to Casper, Wyoming, last Thursday night. P. C. has been enjoying a few week's vacation with his brother and sister on the farm north of the city.

Atkinson Graphic: Miss Rebecca Slaymaker passed away Sunday evening, October 7th, at the home about five miles southeast of town. She was cared for in her last illness by her nephew, Lewis Slaymaker and family, and her niece, Mrs. Lumsden.

Page Reporter: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary on Wednesday. They were married in Wisconsin, but have been residents of Nebraska since 1875. They have lived in Holt county since 1883. And still going fine!

Elmer Seeley, of Lincoln, was a visitor at the O'Neill checker club rooms a few days last week and gave the fans a work-out. Mr. Seeley is one of the top-notch players of the state. President Lewis C. Chapman entertained Mr. Seeley for about twenty-five games and broke about even with him. Secretary of the club, Henry Watterson Tomlinson held him to one win, one loss and a draw. Some of the other members of the club were not so lucky.

Mrs. Bert Bowen was called to Hinkley, Illinois, last Saturday by the death of her father, Wm. Meyer, who formerly resided near O'Neill.

The first frost of the season for this locality came Thursday night of last week. The thermometer dropped to 27 degrees and ice was apparent in some localities. Frost has been visible several mornings during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle S. Smith, son and daughter, also Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Smith, of Ewing, were visiting at the E. D. Henry home in this city Friday and Saturday. L. S. Smith has recently purchased a meat market at Laurel, Nebraska, of which he will take charge about November 1st.

Page Reporter: District 57's new schoolhouse southeast of Page is built according to plans furnished by the State Department of Education, and is a model of its kind. The equipment is practically all new. In order to meet the expense the district has bonded itself to the amount of $3,000.

Miss Meta M. Martin went to Hastings Monday to attend the State Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union which is being held this week and will speak Wednesday afternoon on "The Outlook for the League Temperance Legion." Miss Martin is state secretary for the League in Nebraska.

Frank Bain is creating considerable notoriety among the backyard gardeners this fall, all because he raised two crops of cabbage from the same stalks. Mr. Bain sold the cabbage from his patch and another head came on two different stalks that originally produced extra good heads which he also sold to the stores.

The safe in the John Wrede store at Redbird, in the northern part of the county was carried from the store last Sunday night and an attempt was made to rob it but evidently the robbers were frightened away before they accomplished their purpose. A small amount of money and stamps were taken from the postoffice in the same building.

Miss Ruth Hoffman, who is teaching school at Tamage, Nebraska, and Miss Edith Hoffman, who is teaching at Fullerton, came this week to attend the funeral services for their sister, Mae, which were held Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Doherty, an aunt, came up from University Place, also, for the funeral services.

The fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Murphy in the northeast part of the city, about 6:30 o'clock last Friday evening, to extinguish a blaze that seemed to have originated in a clothes closet on the lower floor. Considerable damage was done to the contents of the building by smoke and water. We understand there was some insurance.

Chambers Sun, October 4th: Monday afternoon Willie Blair met with a very painful accident. He went after a load of hay carrying a loaded shot gun which fell from the hay wagon and exploded. The charge hit his left hand tearing it all to pieces, shattering the wrist bones and forearm. Dr. Oxford was immediately summoned aid administered the necessary aid.

The out-of-town guests who were here to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Harrington to Earl Francis Buelow last Tuesday were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Daly, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrow, of Lincoln; Mrs. Patrick Dolan, of Denver; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daly and daughters, Miss Helen and Miss Lenore, of Fremont; Miss Mary Duggan and Miss Helen Duggan, of Sioux City, Iowa.

Inman Leader: Clifford Smith, who has been employed during the summer months as electrician by the Walter Savidge Carnival Co., arrived home last Sunday. The show season ended at Wayne last week. Nolan Roe who was with the same company has joined another company and will travel in the southern states. Chuck Kelley another Inman boy, who was with the company also returned home.

World-Herald: The Misses Bessie, Florence and Alice Cotterill spent a few days in Omaha last week-end. They were en route from Iron Mountain, Mich., where they had spent five weeks with their mother, Mrs. J. E. McLean. The Misses Cotterill, better known as the Cotterill Sisters in musical circles, have spent the last two years in concert work on the Pacific coast. They have gone to Los Angeles, where, on Monday they will begin a six months' engagement at the "Mary Louise," an exclusive cafe, recently built in that city.

Inman Leader: V. W. Bobisud, who has been in the drug business here for the past twenty years, has purchased the Moore drug store at Verdigre and will leave next Monday to take charge of his new business. He expects to discontinue his drug business here and will move the drug stock to his new location. He will not move his family to Verdigre for a few weeks however until a suitable residence can be secured. The removal of Mr. Bobisud from our midst leaves a vacancy here for a drug store. In the deal Mr. Bobisud traded in his residence property here.

World-Herald, Oct. 13: Mrs. Arthur F. Mullen returned on Thursday after spending the summer abroad, after landing in the United States. Mrs. Mullen spent some time in Boston, New York, and Washington. In Washington Mrs. Mullen was elected provincial director of the Dubuque archdiocese, which includes the states of Nebraska, Wyoming and Iowa. Mrs. Mullen was honored with a tea given at the Hotel Washington by Miss Ada K. Gannon, who frequently comes to Omaha to conduct classes in parliamentary law. Mr. Mullen returned to Omaha last week, and Arthur Mullen, Jr., who accompanied his parent abroad, attending school in New York.

John Mellen, traveling agent for the Chicago & North Western, was shaking hands with O'Neill business men Wednesday.

Rev. George Longstaff is attending the Fiftieth Annual Session of the Presbyterian Synod of Nebraska, which is being held at Kearney, Nebraska, this week.

Milton Anderson, Mrs. W. W. Coon, and Mrs. C. R. Sisk, returned to their home in Sioux City, Iowa, Monday after attending the funeral of their sister, Mrs. L. A. Acker.

Mrs. Maude McKay, of Ewing, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John May, of Neligh, have purchased the cafe conducted by Mrs. Olive Myers, at Creighton and have taken possession.

BUELOW-HARRINGTON.

The wedding of Miss Helen Harrington of this city to Earl Francis Buelow, of Racine, Wisconsin, occurred at St. Patrick's church in this city at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, at the corner of Sixth and Benton streets, at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. M. F. Cassidy performing the ceremony.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the bridegroom accompanied by George Harrington, the best-man, came down the aisle followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Genevieve Biglin, and the bride upon the arm of her father, Miss Mary Cullen played the wedding march.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Duggan, of Sioux City, sang, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, and "One Hour With Thee."

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon embroidered in chenille with a huge rhinestone girdle. Her long tulle veil was held in place with a band of rhinestones across the forehead and she carried a shower bouquet of bride-roses and valley lilies. Miss Genevieve Biglin, the bride's maid, wore a gown of applegreen chiffon over gold cloth, heavily beaded with gold beads and hat to match. She carried an arm bouquet of Ward roses.

Mrs. Buelow is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harrington. She was born and raised in this city where she has a host of friends.

A wedding breakfast for thirty relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. After an eastern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Buelow will go to Racine, Wisconsin, where Mr. Buelow is engaged in the practice of law and where they will make their home. Mrs. Buelow is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Delta Gamma and he is affiliated with Sigma Chi at the University of Wisconsin.

The Galena Lumber Co. has Hard Coal On The Way furnace and baseburner sizes.

If you are going to need some it would be a good idea to place your order now.

Galena Lumber Co., O'Neill

HARDING-BENASH.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benash about sixteen miles northwest of this city near the banks of the Eagle creek at high noon Wednesday, October 17th, when their daughter, Miss Della, was united in marriage to Vernon Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Harding, who reside a short distance south of the Benash home; Rev. J. A. Hutchins performing the beautiful rite ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a gown of pale blue crepe du chine. The bridegroom wore a becoming suit of brown. A wedding dinner was served immediately following the ceremony to about thirty relatives and friends.

Many useful gifts were received by the newly weds. The bride couple departed soon after dinner by auto for a short trip to Sioux City and points east. The Frontier wishes Mr. and Mrs. Harding continued joy and happiness through their wedded life.

HIGGINS-WITHERS.

John Higgins of this city and Miss Hilda Withers, of Amelia, surprised their many friends by quietly going to Council Bluffs, Iowa, Thursday, where they were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Withers, one of the most prosperous families in the vicinity of Amelia. Mrs. Higgins has visited in O'Neill many times and is well known here. Mr. Higgins is proprietor of a pool hall and soft drink parlor on east

Douglas street. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left Omaha on the 12th over the Union Pacific for California on a wedding trip.

The Frontier joins their many Holt county friends in wishing them unlimited happiness.

MUSIL-BURIVAL.

The wedding of Frank Musil and Miss Anna Burival occurred at St. Patrick's church in this city on October 2nd, at seven o'clock. Rev. M. F. Cassidy performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs L. Burival who lives northwest of O'Neill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Musil who resides southwest of O'Neill.

The newly wedded couple will make their home on a farm eight miles southeast of this city.

The Frontier extends congratulations.

BURIVAL-HOMOLKA.

The wedding of Frank Burival and Miss Antonette Homolka was solemnized at St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at seven o'clock by Father Kohler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homolka, of Chambers. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. L. Burival, who resides a few miles northwest of O'Neill.

They will make their home on a farm nine miles north of O'Neill. The Frontier extends congratulations to the newly wedded couple.

Boxing Match!

At the K. of C. Hall, O'Neill, Nebraska Friday Night, October 26th

8:30 P. M.

10 Rounds Main Event Homer Sheridan, Battling Monroe,

SIoux CITY, IOWA, 158 lbs.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, 170 lbs.

BATTLING MONROE, "The Black Wonder"

HOMER SHERIDAN, Recognized Champion

Recently knocked out the "Boston Bear Cat" in five rounds at Nebraska City. Has met such prominent fighters as Chuck Lambert, Harry Lindsay, Jimmie Dundee and others. He is considered one of the best among the colored fighters.

Homer Sheridan, the recognized Champion of Northeast Nebraska, needs no introduction to fight fans of this section of the state. He has fought a number of successful fights in O'Neill with fast boxers.

A Good Five Round Preliminary Ernest Smith, 156, Frank Patiz, 165

Ernest Smith, 156, Walnut, Nebraska

Frank Patiz, 165, Basset, Nebraska

Ernest Smith is not a stranger here. He defeated Dietrich, of Atkinson, here last summer and is a real boxer.

Frank Patiz comes to the athletic club well recommended as a clever man with the gloves.

This will be one of the best bouts ever put on in North Nebraska.

General Admission, $1; War Tax, 10c; Total, $1.10 Ringside, $2; War Tax, 20c; Total, $2.20
Doors Open at 7:45
Seats on Sale at Reardon's Drug Store. Make your ringside reservations early.

Our Best Investment

Personal interest in customers is not practiced by all business men.

This bank believes it is the best investment and advertisement it can make.

You who are not our customer, try us.

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders. Resources over $600,000.00

The O'Neill National Bank