30,000,000,000,000 MARKS REQUIRED TO BRING A LETTER FROM GERMAN Y TO AMERICA

J. O. Hargesheimer received a letter from his sister, who resides in Berlin, Germany, about two weeks ago, upon which there was attached German Marks to the value of eighty billion, which at that time was equivalent to about five cents American money. The pre-war value of these stamps was twenty billion dollars.

Mr. Hargesheimer's brother-in-law is a bank cashier in Berlin, and draws a salary of two billion marks per day; he would be required to work forty days to earn enough money to mail that letter to America.

The price of clothing and wearing apparel is very moderate according to letters received by Mr. Hargesheimer from his brother-in-law, to whom Mr. Hargesheimer recently sent $5.00 with which he purchased a suit of clothes, shoes and a shirt.

The letter states that it requires about six hours to do the little shopping that has to be done, on account of the scarcity of the different articles both in clothing and groceries.

As a sample of the cost of things in Berlin we will quote some of the prevailing prices according to Mr. Hargesheimer: 1 egg 75 to 100 billion marks; coal 4 1/4 to 6 billion marks per 100 pounds; 5 pound loaf of bread 4 billion marks; enough wood to burn one hour would cost 200 billion marks.

An uncle of Mr. Hargesheimer lives outside the city and raises poultry and produce and does all his shopping with produce; he has not handled any money for many months.

American money goes a long way in Berlin today. If you have American money you are waited upon first even though you are away back in the line if they know that you have American coin.

AUTO WRECKED AT RAIL CROSSING OCCUPANTS SERIOUSLY INJURED

(Ewing Advocate)

The railroad crossing on the highway a half mile south of Ewing was the scene of a serious auto accident about 7:30 Christmas night.

Theodore Zaborowski of near Inman, had driven his car to the Jos. Tomjack home east of Ewing Tuesday and that evening accompanied by Blair Spes, Louis, Sylvester and John Tomjack, had started for Clearwater to attend a dance. The trip terminated at the crossing when Zaborowski pulled too far to the west, the car striking the rails and landing in the drainage culvert on the south side of the track. Extricating himself from the wreck, Spes made his way to the F. C. Stanton home nearby and secured assistance. The other boys were helped from the debris and taken to the Stanton home and Dr. Briggs was summoned. Upon examination it was found that Louis Tomjack was the most severely hurt, his collarbone being crushed and head injured. Sylvester Tomjack received a gash on the chin and injury to his chest, John Tomjack was bruised about the head and Zaborowski and Spes escaped with numerous bruises.

The car is a total wreck and it seems almost a miracle that one or all of the occupants were not killed outright. The cause given for the accident was poor lights on the car and the blinding headlight of an approaching train. It is said the latter confused the driver to such an extent that he mistook the west railing of the culvert bridge for the east side, thereby missing the structure entirely.

The victims of the accident are recovering with the exception of Louis Tomjack, whose condition remains quite serious.

New Touring Car

Looking at the new touring car from the side, you are at once favorably impressed with the effect of longer, more graceful lines secured by enlarging the cowl and raising the radiator.

Slanting windshield and one-man top lend material aid in giving the entire car a lower, more stylish appearance.

An apron connecting the radiator with the fender skirts is also a decided improvement.

A comfort feature much appreciated by owners, is the additional leg room provided by the enlargement of the cowl.
