

H. A. ALLEN.

V. A. Allen, of Atkinson, Nebraska, died at the home of his sister, Miss Emily Allen, at Hollywood, California, on Monday, December 31, 1923, at the age of about seventy-four years.

He has been in failing health for some time, and recently consulted the Mayo's at Rochester, Minnesota; upon their advice he went to a sanitarium at Tucson, Arizona, where he remained a short time, going from there, a couple of weeks ago, with his sister, to her home in Hollywood, where he passed away as above stated.

Mr. Allen came to Holt county in 1885, and located in Atkinson, where he has since been closely allied with county affairs. He was one of the most prominent men of the west end of the county, and was perhaps, the heaviest land dealer and owner in the county, owning at least 10,000 acres of Holt county's best land some of which is highly improved.

Everybody in the western half of the county knew H. A. Allen and loved him for his philanthropic ways. He loved all mankind. Until the death of the dog three years ago, Mr. Allen and his faithful Golden pug were seldom separated from each other.

He was noted for his ability to tell a good story, and thoroughly enjoyed the privilege of telling them.

Mr. Allen had been married twice. His first wife died in 1900. He was married again while serving in the legislature in 1909. Mrs. Allen died a couple of years ago at the home of her daughter in the west, where she was spending the winter. He had no children.

In 1909 he was elected to the House of Representatives and was re-elected in 1911.

The depression following the war greatly reduced the financial rating of Mr. Allen. Conservative estimate places the present value of his estate at $100,000.00.

The Frontier has not been advised as to the funeral but it is presumed that he was buried at Hollywood.

MRS. MINNIE SMITH.

Mrs. Minnie Smith died in a hospital in Sioux City, Iowa, last Saturday night following an operation.

Mrs. Smith was the half-sister of R. E. Gallagher of this city. She was one of the early settlers of this county coming to the eastern part of the county with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher, when quite young. She was later married to the late E. H. Smith and has made her home in Page continuously since coming to the county.

She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Merle Smallbone, Mrs. A. D. Palmer, Miss Faye and Miss Hazel.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church at Page this afternoon at two o'clock.

JAMES PACE.

James Pace died Wednesday forenoon at ten o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John L. Quig in the southern part of O'Neill, at the age of 79 years, 6 months and 22 days.

He was an old soldier of the civil war.

Mr. Pace has been making his home here for the past two months, coming here from Kansas City, Missouri.

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) from the Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. George Longstaff. Burial was made in Prospect Hill cemetery.

The Frontier will publish a more complete obituary next week.

GEORGE BRESSLER STORE ROBBED SUNDAY NIGHT

Some time during Sunday night the general store of George Bressler was entered and robbed of $2.00 in nickels, 36 pennies, one pair of boots, some socks and all the Bull Durham smoking tobacco that was in the store. The thief or thieves entered the building by breaking a window in the south side of the ware room and then cutting a hole in the compboard into the washroom of the store. They went out the front door.

The job resembles the work of boys and is thought to be local talent.
