Temple of Diana One of World's Seven Wonders

One of the seven wonders of the ancient world was the Temple of Diana Ephesus, built in the Fourth century before Christ, and burned by the Goths in 262 A. D. But the temple was doomed to early destruction at the ands of a half-crazed Greek named Herostratus. In 356 B. C., on the night when Alexander the Great was born. he burned the temple to the ground. When he was arraigned for his crime he said he had done it to make an immortal name for himself, and he had chosen the night Alexander was born because Diana was the goddess of childbirth, and he believed that she would be in Macedonia to bless the 7ttle prince's arrival.

A new temple, started in 350, begame storehouse for great gifts. In 262 A. D. invading Goths destroyed the city and burned the temple. Only a few of the columns escaped, and they were used in the mosque of St. Sophia at Constantinople,-Detroit News:

HE PIONEERED WITH ALFALFA

H. D. Watson, Kerney, Neb. Rancher, Dies In Omaha, Aged 77

Omaha, Neb., Feb. \ (U. P.)-H. D. Watson, 77 years old, said to have started alfalfa culture in the United States is dead. He owned a large ranch at Kearney, Neb. He came to Nebraska in 1882 from Greenfield, Mass., where he had published the "Good Cheer" a farm monthly publication which started without capital and developed into a circulation of 100,000.

He disposed of this publication and two others to come to Nebraska to raise alfalfa. He spent $600,000 in his alfalfa experiments.

After several disastrous crou failures Watson's experiments began paying dividends and he was independently wealthy at death. He built what is said to be the largest barn in the world on his Kearney ranch. It is 320 by 60 feet, two stories and basement, and houses 327 milch cows. He owned a total of about 8,000 acres of land.

JACK RABBIT MEAT

FOR HIS PRIZE HENS. Inavale, Neb., Feb. (Special)-Fresh meat, cooked, not raw, was one of the items on the bill of fare last year to the White Leghorns belonging to Mr. H. W. Lambrecht, who lives on the edge of town. It helped them lay an average of 183 eggs per hen, a record which places them fourth among the 300 farm flocks that finished the accredited farm flock project of the agricultural extension service. Mr. Lambrecht went hunting about one forenoon each week last winter and many a jack rabbit went into the pot to be stewed for the hens.

BRICTSON COMPANY

IS DENIED INJUNCTION Lincoln, Neb., Feb. *--Judge T. C. Munger in federal court last night refused to grant an injunction restraining the state from continuing the prosecution in Omaha courts by Attorney General Spillman against the Brictson Manufacturing Co. The state is seeking to oust the company from the state and return the property which the state alleges was fraudulently obtained through stock sales to the original subscribers. Judge Manger held that the state could not be sued in the U. S. court and that the state courts were acting within their powers in the case.

VICIOUS DOG NEARLY

MILLS OMAHA CHILD Omaha, Neb., Feb. '-Eight year old Jimmie Hobbs won a desperate battle for his life Tuesday when he was attacked by a German police dog which had already bitten three other boys. Jimmy was on his way to school and sliding down a hill when the dog attacked him. The lad fought the dog off for a while but the dog was too strong for him and the boy fell. The dog's fangs sunk into Jimmy's face, tearing his lips and one cheek. Jimmy's hands were torn in his battle to free himself from the dog which then attempted to sink his fangs into the boy's throat.

A heavy woolen helmet which covered the throat probably saved Jimmy's life, according to Police Surgeon Kinyoun. There were marks indicating the fangs had reached the throat but the heavy wool prevented the dog from tearing a vulnerable

RAILROAD CARRIES SUIT

TO FEDERAL HIGH COUR'.. Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 5, (Special)-The Minneapolis & Omaha railroad has served notice that it will appeal to the federal supreme court from the decree of the state high court that it must pay Mrs. Kepler of Washington county damages in a grade crossing accident. Mrs. Kepler's story was that she saw the train coming and warned her brother, who was the driver, but he tried to cross ahead of the train and was caught. She was made an invalid for life. The road insists that under such circumstances it cannot he held liable. Its principal ground, however, is that it is entitled to have a majority of the supreme court judges decide the case. Two district judges, called in to help out the court, sat in the case with three supreme judges. The new constitution permits this, but the railroad attorneys contend that is violates the federal constitution.

Source of Sun's Heat The source of the vast amount of heat which the sun gives off cannot be the result of combustion, for if such were the case it would have been consumed long ago. The Helmholtz theory is generally accepted. It assumes that the sun's bulk is gradually contracting, and that the energy thus produced is turned into heat. It has been calculated that a contraction of 150 feet a year would be enough toaccount for the heat developed.
