A TALK WITH AN O'NEILL MAN Mr. A. W. Gunn, of O'Neill, Tells Of An Interesting Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with an O'Neill man:
"My kidneys acted irregularly and I had to get up a number of times at night to pass the secretions which were highly colored," says Mr. Gunn.
"I had a lameness in the small of my back and kidneys that bothered me a great deal when I would lift or bend over. Doan's Pills corrected the trouble and I wasn't bothered for years until I caught cold which settled in my kidneys disordering them.
I took a few Doan's again and they relieved me so I have not been bothered since."
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Gunn ORDINANCE NO. 90A.

An ordinance providing for the naming or numbering of streets in the city of O'Neill, Nebraska; providing for the placing of numbers upon buildings in said city; providing a penalty for violation of the terms of this ordinance; and repealing all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAY-OR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF O'NEILL, NEBRASKA.

Section 1: Every street in the city of O'Neill, Nebraska, now existing or which shall be hereafter laid out and dedicated to public use, shall be designated by its proper name or number, which shall be printed on a board or tin or other suitable material, and the name shall be affixed to the building, or in the absence of buildings to the fence, at or near the northwest or southeast corners of the streets at their intersection with each other, or in some other suitable manner at such locations.

Section 2: All the streets of said city of O'Neill shall be designated and numbered by hundreds. First street shall be numbered "100", second street "200" and in like manner all the streets east from second street and which run north and south, shall be numbered consecutively to the eastern limits of the city. Madison street shall be numbered "200" and in like manner all the streets west from Madison street and which run north and south, shall be numbered consecutively to the western limits of said city.
Douglas street, which shall constitute the division street, shall be numbered "100". Clay street shall be numbered "200" and all streets north of Clay street, which run east and west, shall be numbered consecutively in a similar manner to the north limits of said city. Everett street shall be numbered "200" and all the streets south of Everett street, which run east and west, shall be numbered consecutively in a similar manner to the south limits of said city. Each twenty-two and one-half (22 1/2) feet facing streets shall constitute a square for a number. The even numbers shall be placed on the north and west sides of the streets and the odd numbers on the south and east sides of the streets.
The numbers on each square and commencing with "1" on the east and south sides and "2" on the north and west sides, which added to the number of the street, shall constitute the number herein required. The city council shall make such suitable regulation in respect to the streets in the additions to said city of O'Neill as will make the numbering conform as near as practicable with the above arrangement.

Section 3. All streets hereafter dedicated or extended within the city limits of the city of O'Neill shall correspond in number or name with the numbers and names of the streets heretofore adopted.

Section 4. The city clerk is hereby authorized to designate proper numbers for all buildings fronting upon any street in the city limits of the city of O'Neill according to the system of numbering herein established, and it is hereby made his duty to notify the owner or agent of every such building of the proper number thereof.
It shall thereupon be the duty of such owner or agent to cause the number to be placed thereon with conspicuous and legible figures, not less than two inches high, within thirty days thereafter and on failure so to do said person so notified shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one dollar and each day's failure to number said building after the expiration of thirty days shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 5. In all cases where new buildings are hereafter erected, the city clerk shall notify the owner or agent of each such building of the proper number thereof. It shall thereupon be the duty of such owner or agent to cause the number to be placed thereon with conspicuous and legible figures, not less than two inches high, within thirty days thereafter and on failure so to do said person so notified shall be fined in any sum not exceeding One dollar and each day's failure to number said building, after the expiration of thirty days, shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 6. Any person who shall wrongfully take down, deface, destroy or conceal any number assigned to or placed upon any building, or who shall place a substituted or erroneous number, or permit to be placed or substituted an erroneous or improper number, upon any building or who shall allow an erroneous or improper number to be retained upon any building shall be fined therefor, upon conviction, in any sum not more than Ten dollars with costs of suit.

Section 7. The chief of police shall, under the direction of the city clerk, notify all property owners or agents of the passage of this ordinance, and that the property owner or agent is required to comply with its provisions.

Section 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication.

Passed and approved this 5th day of February, 1924.

Attest: ED. T. CAMPBELL
City Clerk.

(First publication Jan. 31.)
