Attorney General Spillman sent Mr. Matson here to assist County Attorney Cronin in the prosecution of the cases. Mr. Matson is one of the most able attorneys in Nebraska today.

There are still one or two auto cases to be tried at a later session of the court.

HEAVY FAT CATTLE BRING BIG RETURNS

That there is still some money in feeding cattle was proven the first of the week when Herb Jensen, Frank Murray and Henry Cook each sold a car of fat cattle to Henry Schinstock, of West Point, Nebraska, who was buying for a Chicago firm.

Herb Jensen sold twenty head of high grade Angus cattle to Mr. Schinstock last Monday for a lump sum of $150.00 per head. The cattle were purchased of John Carr and placed in the feed lot on October 15th at $84.00 per head, and averaged 1,200 pounds each. Mr. Jensen estimates the weight at 1,500 at the time of sale. The cattle consumed 1,200 bushels of corn during the 120 feed days and the profit of $66.00 per head which Mr. Jensen realized on the sale gives him about $1.10 per bushel for his corn.

John Murray sold and delivered twenty-three head of Shorthorn cattle to Mr. Schinstock on Tuesday. These cattle were sold by weight at $10.00 per hundred, and brought an average of $145.00 per head. Mr. Murray put the cattle on feed about the 15th of October at a cost of $72.50 per head. These cattle were fed for about 120 days.

Henry Cook also sold and delivered twenty head of fat cattle to Mr. Schinstock at $10.00 per hundred that averaged 1,370. Mr. Cook fed his cattle about the same length of time as Mr. Jensen and Mr. Murray.

WOMAN'S CLUB UNANIMOUSLY RE-ELECTS MRS. J. P. GILLIGAN TO PRESIDENCY

Despite her request to retire from the presidency and on the positive refusal of other members of the Woman's club to be candidates if she could be prevailed upon to accept a renomination and re-election, Mrs. J. P. Gilligan, retiring president of the club, was unanimously re-elected to head the organization for another year, at the election of officers Wednesday afternoon of last week. The election was the expression of the appreciation of the entire membership of the organization for her untiring and unceasing devotion to the arduous duties of the responsible position and for the advancement of the club under her administration. The officers, who are to be installed at the last meeting in May and who assume the duties of their positions at the first meeting in September, following the summer vacation, are as follows:

President, Mrs. J. P. Gilligan; vice-president, Mrs. J. J. Harrington; second vice-president, Mrs. R. M. Sauer; recording secretary, Mrs. W. F. Willing; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. A. Miles; treasurer, Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell; parliamentarian, Mrs. C. J. Malone; custodian, Mrs. J. M. Hunter; Auditor, Miss Anna O'Donnell.

ROBERTSON-ARMOUR.

Ray Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson, of Joy, Nebraska, and Miss Neva Armour, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armour, well known farmers, of Hubbard, Nebraska, were united in marriage at the First Methodist Church in Sioux City, Iowa, March 1, 1924, at 12 o'clock noon by Rev. Anson, of Sioux City, Iowa.

Rachel Robertson, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid and Laurence Armour, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Only the immediate relatives of the families were present at the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony they drove to the Olympian candy parlor where a splendid dinner had been prepared for them by the aunt and uncle of the bride. The bride and groom left on the 2 o'clock train for Omaha and other points on a short honeymoon.

The young couple were classmates at the State Normal College at Wayne, Nebraska, in 1920, and both have a large circle of friends who join in wishing them happiness and prosperity through their years of wedded life. They will make their home on a farm near Dakota City, Nebraska, where they had everything fixed up ready to go to housekeeping. ***

BORG-SEARLES.

Axel Borg and Miss Grace Searles went to Sioux City, Iowa, on Friday, February 22nd, where they were quietly married. After a couple of days viewing the city they returned, and completed arrangements for going to housekeeping on the Larson farm at Meek.

These two young people do not need an introduction to the people of the northern part of the county where they have lived most all of their lives. The bridegroom is the son of Eric Borg, one of the substantial and influential farmers, who resides about three miles east of Meek, Nebraska. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Searles, who makes her home on the Eagle, north of Meek.

The newly weds will go to housekeeping on the Larson farm at once. The Frontier extends congratulations.

CROW HUNT MASS MEETING.

All the East-Side sub-captains are expected to be at this meeting and all businessmen, farmers and ranchmen who are interested in the destruction of the crows are also expected to be present.

MORE LOCAL MATTERS.

Roy Robertson shipped a carload of horses and stock cattle to Dakota City, Nebraska, where he and his bride will make their home on a farm.

Mrs. L. A. Burgess suffered a severe and painful injury to her right hand Wednesday when a glass tube which she was using broke and entered her hand. Pieces of glass remained in hand calling for an operation.

The students of the O'Neill High School very ably presented their class play "Danny Long Legs" at the K. C. hall last Thursday evening to a crowded house. The piece was well presented and the treasury of the class was increased about $200.00.

County Agent Fred W. Rose has placed several new sections of bulletin racks in his office which contain about 150 of the latest and most up-to-date agricultural bulletins. The farmers and those interested can obtain these bulletins free of charge if they will call at the office of the county agent.

L. C. McKim has filed for re-election in the Second supervisor district. Mr. McKim has made a very good supervisor and has ably represented his district. Mr. McKim has been chairman of the board during the past year and was unanimously re-elected to that position at the beginning of this year.

Miss Alexa Uhl entertained the W. W. club at her home Tuesday afternoon after school. Luncheon was served at 5:30 after which the following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Grace Quilty, President; Miss Eva Protovinsky, Vice-President; Miss Alaxa Uhl, Secretary. At each weekly meeting of the club a collection is taken which is used for foreign missions.

Wallace Ream has about lost faith in the integrity of the horse family. Wallace has a quiet, gentle old saddle horse that has never shown symptoms of overstepping the bounds of propriety. Tuesday evening dobbie decided that he would run things to suit himself for the evening and when Wallace appeared upon the scene late that evening the family nag proceeded to start the celebration by landing squarely upon each of Wallace's legs in the vicinity of the knee. The calks on the shoes sank into the flesh causing severe wounds. Wallace does not limp for the reason that one leg is as sore as the other.

No doubt people often wonder how Nebraska's congressional representatives measure up to their responsibilities and how they compare with other public men in Washington. It is interesting therefore to know, particularly in these stirring times, how the Dean of the Nebraska delegation, Senator George W. Norris, is regarded by his colleagues in the United States Senate. In the course of some remarks made in the Senate a few days ago, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader in the Senate, paid the following tribute to Senator Norris: "The Senator from Nebraska has enjoyed a long and honorable service in the Congress of the United States. I knew him when he was a Member of the House of Representatives, and I have known him, throughout his career as United States Senator. I make the declaration that for courage, sincerity of conviction, intellectual honesty, and honest in every sense in which the term may be applied to individual and official conduct the Senator from Nebraska stands preeminent among the public men of America."

FARM HOME BURNS. FAMILY NOT HOME

The farm home on the Chris Yantzi place, about ten miles northwest of O'Neill, burned to the ground some time during the night of Tuesday, February 26th. The place was occupied by Mrs. K. M. Beckwith and her son Robert Meyerpeter.

Mrs. Beckwith was away visiting at points in the eastern part of the state and her son had gone to a neighbors for the night. A neighbor who was passing the place about midnight states that the house was there at that time. When Robert went to the place in the morning the house was in ruins and no one seems to have any knowledge of how the fire originated. The family are staying in O'Neill and with nearby neighbors for the present.

A parent-teachers meeting was held in the assembly hall of the Chambers high school Friday, February 29th. Considering the stormy weather a fair sized crowd was in attendance. Mrs. Keller gave a talk on educational ethics which was well received. Mrs. Null also delighted the audience with a fine talk on the history of education.

A banquet was planned for March 1st by the people of Chambers and vicinity in honor of the basket ball boys. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tibbitt donated the use of the hotel dining room.
