FRANCE FEARS GERMAN GHOST

Poincare Arming Only to Prevent Possible Invasion, He Says

London, March 3.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald's second letter to M. Poincare, published today sets forth some of the apprehensions regarding France's policy held by numerous Englishmen and these fears the French premier in his reply, endeavors to allay.

Premier MacDonald's letter says that the people of England "regard with anxiety what appears to be the determination of France to ruin Germany and dominate the continent without consideration of our reasonable interests and future consequences to a European settlement, that they feel apprehension of the large military and aerial establishments maintained by France."

MacDonald expresses hope that the report of the expert committee on German reparations will force France and England together. If co-operation can be reached, he said, "it will be possible for us to approach the United States not as debtors but as United European countries by mutual sacrifice and arrangement to cure the ills from which our people are now suffering."

Premier Poincare characterizes as "mistaken" those Englishmen who believe that France dreams of the political or economic annihilation of Germany.

Disclaiming a spirit of militarism on the part of France, he asks: "Are there really Englishmen who suppose that France would be capable of making fratricidal preparations against their country? Our military and aerial establishments are exclusively designed to defend us against attempted German revenge. It is infinitely to be desired," he agrees that the questions of inter-allied debts and reparations should be settled at the same time.

HOUSE TAKES UP SOLDIER BONUS

Ways and Means Committee Considers Measure That Harding Vetoes

Washington, March 3.—Proposals to make soldier bonus payments in the form of paid up insurance led to several arguments today at the opening of public hearings by the House ways and means committee of adjusted compensation legislation.

Representative Andrew, republican, Massachusetts explained to the committee a measure he had introduced proposing for insurance with an option of cash payments for those veterans not entitled to more than $50.

"The veterans need for cash is not the same now as at the close of the war," he said. "And the bonus now takes the form of an obligation. This insurance provision appeals to me as better for the veterans, granting them protection against worry for the future."

Mr. Andrew estimated the bill would not cost more than the measure passed last session.

Representative Fish, republican, New York, presented his bonus scheme of restoring all payments to a 20-year-endowment policy. It would allow policies of $400, for each six months of service above sixty days, with a maximum of $1,600 and would allow $800 to beneficiaries of each of the 5,000 who died during the war without insurance.

Such a measure would cost $2,000,000,000 or about $100,000,000 a year Mr. Fish estimated. All veterans including officers up to the rank of captain in the army and marine corps and lieutenants in the navy would be eligible.

Both Mr. Andrew and Rep. Cole, republican, Iowa, declared they had never heard opposition to a bonus expressed by any enlisted man.

NIGHT SCHOOL PLAN FAILURE

Lights Turned Off By Pupils Who Didn't Like The Idea

Huron, S. D., March 1. (Special)—Failure marked the first attempt of the junior high school officers to hold a night session for the afternoon classes that the parents might see how the pupils were doing their work, and what they were studying and learning. The failure was through no fault of the school officers, but rather was the result of a determined effort on the part of some of the boys that "curfew shall not ring tonight."

During the first period of the evening classes the light went down so that there was barely a red gleam where the bulbs were located. Then the lights flared up again, but only to go out for good. School was dismissed.

Investigations yesterday by the light and power company electricians showed that the light wires had been tampered with. Two wires had been scraped and crossed, thereby causing a short circuit which blew out the fuse in the transformer box.

FARMERS ENTERTAINED BY PEOPLE OF TOWN.

Tyndall, S. D., March 1. (Special)—The Tyndall Commercial club and the farm bureau of Bon Homme county were joint hosts to the farmers and other business men at a community smoker held at the Auditorium at this place Thursday night. An audience estimated to be over 500 people was present. An address by Senator Atherton of Madison, was followed by short talks by Senators James A. Wagner, of Tabor; Secretary W. W. Byers, of the Tyndall Commercial club and others. After the pictures and speaking were over the two organizations served a cafeteria lunch in the dining hall of the Auditorium.

This is but the beginning of a series of community meetings to be held under the same auspices.

ASSERTS MANY ARE ILLEGALLY CONVICTED

Pierre, S. D., March 1.—Many illegal convictions for liquor offenses, it is believed, have taken place in South Dakota under the provisions of chapter 246, session laws of 1919, which was later repealed by referendum.

This was indicated by C. E. Coyne, secretary of state, who at the request of one attorney issued a certificate on the referendum vote. This attorney declared he knew of two men who had been illegally sent to the penitentiary under this law and that many present inmates of county jails were convicted under the annulled statute.

It is believed that these represent general conditions over the state and particulars are withheld pending general investigations which are underway.

The general mistake is believed to have been caused in part through the failure to include the referendum result in a local reference work sold to lawyers.

CONSTRUCT SAND DAM ACROSS BIG SIOUX

Canton, S. D., March 1.—A bar of sand, thirty feet wide and stretching across the river is being built in the Sioux river in another effort to construct a substantial dam. The sand is taken out of the river bottom and placed along the dam already built. Present plans, it is said, provide for a roadway on the sand bar, over into South Dakota.

It is understood that a spillway 14 feet wide will be made toward the west end of the dam. Over this a bridge will be built. It is thought that the sand bar, being nearly two rods wide, will be of sufficient size to guard against its being washed away by the current.

Work has been under way for some time and it is hoped to have the dam completed by the time warm weather arrives, when the high water will render further operations impossible.

DAUGHERTY TO HAVE HEARING

Committee Grants Demand Of Attorney General—Start Testimony Soon

Universal Service
Washington, March 3.—Attorney General Daugherty is to be given the public hearing which he demanded.

This was determined Monday by the special Senate committee appointed to investigate his administration of the department of justice. The announcement was made by Senator Wheeler, author of the resolution calling for the inquiry, following the first meeting of the committee today.

Senator Wheeler, sponsor of the investigation, was named a subcommittee of one to formulate a plan of procedure and recommend what subject first to take up and when to start the taking of testimony. He was authorized to obtain the assistance of a law clerk to digest the mass of material already at the committee's disposal.

Take Testimony Soon.
Chairman Brookhart announced that he expected the committee to be ready start taking testimony the first of next week, as soon as Senator Wheeler makes his report and the committee ratifies his program.

The committee instructed Chairman Brookhart to draft a letter to former Senator George E. Chamberlain and former Representative Paul Howland, counsel for Daugherty, in reply to their letter addressed to the committee Saturday. Brookhart will submit his reply to the committee for its approval Tuesday before being sent to the attorneys.

It was made known, however, that the committee will not give Daugherty's counsel an unrestricted free rein in the cross examination of witnesses for the prosecution or in the summoning of witnesses for the defense. Cross examination will be under the control of the committee, Brookhart stated, adding this is not to be a trial, but an investigation, but that it will be governed by the rules of the court procedure.

Subpoenas will be issued only by the committee, but when counsel submit reasonable ground, any witnesses desired by the defense will be summoned.

Asked if the committee would summon Frank A. Vanderlip in view of his published assertion that President Coolidge had asked for Daugherty's resignation and had not received it, and that he had the facts to back it up, Brookhart replied:

"Facts are what we are after. We shall investigate that along with other leads we have. If the committee believes Mr. Vanderlip has any facts it ought to know, certainly he will be summoned. But this matter has not been brought to the committee's attention yet."

The White House Monday characterized the Vanderlip statement that Daugherty had refused to retire when asked by the president as "too ridiculous to dignify by a denial."

Noted Cherry Sister Returns to Stage

This Time She Appears as Candidate for Cedar Rapids Mayor

Cedar Rapids, Ia., March 3.—(Special)—Miss Onie Cherry, member of the famous Cherry Sisters, vaudeville stars of 25 years ago, returned to the stage here Monday afternoon, and, being not as an actress, she is a candidate for mayor and made her first appeal for votes on the stage of the same theater where she received anything but a cordial reception when she made her vaudeville debut.

Dressed in a gown that must have been made a quarter of a century ago, she was applauded when she stepped on the stage. The women apparently were more interested in her black silk dress, which was tight fitting and trailed the floor, her old style hat and long black gloves than they were in her address. She was introduced by the headliner actor on the vaudeville bill.

Miss Cherry read her address which declared for a 9 o'clock curfew law, opposition to swearing in public, better water and more sanitary city. Her reference to the curfew brought applause.

FIVE MEN MAROONED ON ISLAND

Escape Is Barred By Heavy Ice Floes

Columbus, Neb., March 3.—(Special)—Swollen waters of the Loop river, freighted with great cakes of floating ice, have marooned five Columbus men on Browner's island, five miles west of the city, since Sunday forenoon. In the party are James Browner, William Rodehorst, Harry Brown, R. V. Lisco, Jr. and Fred A. Roberts.

Four of the men went out Sunday to spend the day with the fifth, Rodehorst, who was living on the island. Breaking of the ice made their return to the bank impossible.

Max Elias drove out Monday to a point of vantage as near as possible to the island and called to the men. Mr. Elias will take out a supply of food Tuesday afternoon which he will endeavor to get across by means of a wire cable which is stretched from the bank to the island.

PLAN FLOOD OF "BEER BILLS"

Members of Bloc Expect to Jam Measure Through House

BY FRASER EDWARDS
United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, Mar. 3.—The "beer bloc" now being formed in the House expects to get a 2.75 per cent. beer law through the next congress.

As the first step towards this goal each member of the "bloc" which it is claimed now numbers 60, will introduce a beer bill in the House this week.

No claims are being made of victory in the present congress, although Rep. John Philip Hill, Maryland, organizer of the bloc, said today favorable reaction throughout the country has followed formation of the bloc.

The 60 beer bills will be identical. They will provide for legislation of the manufacture and sale of 2.75 per cent. beer, cider and fruit juices.

The wet movement comes as the result of many conferences of the "wets" at Hill's Washington home. Under the present plan, each "wet" sponsoring a beer bill of his own is actively working for the "cause". The wet leaders believe they have selected the psychological time to push the movement. Shooting of Senator Greene of Vermont during a fight between "dry" agents and bootleggers has resulted in a strong reaction in congress against prohibition enforcement.

The "wets" expect to start a similar movement in the Senate. Senator Broussard, of Louisiana probably will lead the movement.

It is their intention to have a new recruit put himself on record as an out-and-out beer advocate by sponsoring a new bill. Only congressmen from districts where sentiment is distinctly "wet" are to put themselves on record. The majority of those in the new bloc hail from seaboard states.

"Who the democratic candidate will be remains to be seen," Mr. Tumulty added.

"The man who heads the party of Thomas Jefferson must be a man who will represent all of his people and not any section or class."
