A TRIBUTE.

(A tribute to the late Mrs. S. M.
Bergstrom, written by Mrs. Robt.
Hammill, of Orchard.)

She has gone to live with Jesus Her happy soul is free,
She has gone to that bright city
The land of pure and blest.
Her longings are all satisfied
The weary one's at rest.
Her children will miss her sadly
We will miss her too.
She was one faithful daughter
So good, so tried and true.
We stood near her bedside Till her feet reached you shore.
For her death was no terror,
She felt no dread or alarm,
For she knew she was resting On her loving Savior's arm.
Sleep on, beloved, sleep on,
Take thy rest,
We loved thee well,
But Jesus loved thee best—Good night—good night.

MRS. FOREST AEGERTER.

(Atkinson Graphic, April 25.)
Mrs. Forest Aegerter, of Phoenix, passed away in the St. Catherine hospital in Omaha the 14th inst.

Mrs. Aegerter had been ailing for some time and had gone to St. Catherine for treatment March 24th last.

Myrtle Lillian Damero, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Damero, of Phoenix, was born August 27, 1900, and was in her 24th year. She was married to Forest Aegerter October 15, 1923.

Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Aegerter purchased the Phoenix general store and together very successfully conducted the business until failing health took from it a very competent part of the business management.

She leaves to mourn her death her parents, husband, and a host of friends.

Funeral services took place at the home in Phoenix, Wednesday, April 16th, conducted by Rev. E. L. Peterson, pastor of the Atkinson M. E. church, and interment was made in the Phoenix cemetery.

an attack of lumbago.

in Omaha Monday.

Bessie Calhoun, who has been teaching school in the northern part of the state the past eight months, returned to Chambers Saturday.

A freak in the form of a four legged chicken was hatched from an ordinary sized egg at the C. E. Far-day was as spry as any of the other chicks.

Manly Allen, who has been in the Methodist hospital at Omaha, the past two weeks, returned to Chambers the operation on his eye and the doctors have some hope of saving the sight.

The gentleman mentioned in last week's Frontier, who claims the single shot crow killing championship of Nebraska, will have to take a back seat and let Chambers report. Alvin Johnson claims to have killed 30 crows in two shots and crippled several more while Al Streeby and Will Robinson report that they killed 78 crows in twelve shots in one rise and crippled dozens of them.

quainted With Madge," in three acts, it was an appreciative audience that registered frequent and generous approval of the young folks to please pleasing; nor should mention be omitted of the splendid vocal numbers between acts.

A TALK WITH AN O'NEILL MAN.

Mr. A. W. Gunn, Carpenter, Tells of An Interesting Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease.

We, therefore, give here an interview with an O'Neill man:

"My kidneys acted irregularly and I had to get up a number of times at night to pass the secretions which were highly colored," says Mr. Gunn.
"I had a lameness in the small of my back and kidneys that bothered me a great deal when I would lift or bend over. Doan's Pills corrected the trouble and I wasn't bothered for years until I caught cold which settled in my kidneys disordering them.
I took a few Doan's again and they relieved me so I have not been bothered since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Gunn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
