TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY

O'Neill People Are Doing All They Can For Fellow Sufferers.

O'Neill testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Pills to others in O'Neill who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proofstatements from O'Neill people who again endorse Doan's Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here's an O'Neill case:

Mrs. E. B. Jones, says: "I suffered with backache. While sitting still the trouble wasn't so bad but when I went to get up I could hardly stand the sharp knife-like pains. When I bent or walked around the misery was term., Sunday School 11:00 a. m., Young People's Service 7:00 p. m., Evening Service, 8:00 p. m. Evening Service, 8:00 p. m. #### Fox Hunter Puzzled Over Scent Mystery

No one should write of hunting without alluding to the important question of scent. To ignore the subject is gravely unconventional, if not worse. That at least is the excuse which Miss E. E. Somerville offers for quoting this incomprehensible incident in her memories of Irish life:

We were hunting in the hills. It was a bright and sunny day with a light | Richards. and vanishing touch of frost. The hounds were drawing along the southern side of a high hill covered with short rough grass and heather, with furze brakes here and there among the rocks. We had not "found," but the hounds were busy "feathering" and were obviously sure that a fox had been about. Then one of the field rode up to me and said with the icy calm that so often masks the fullness

"There'e your fox, master!" He pointed with his whip to something that looked like a rusty can lying under a furze bush,

A fox! Not as I first feared dead. but very much alive, I cracked my whip at him, and he slid away over BURLINGTON DEPOT WILL BE the hill, crossing after half a dozen yards or so a wide blackened patch where furze had been burnt. In an Instant we brought the hounds to the place where he had lain. They made no outcry. They were interested, but no more than that. We took them on and crossed the burnt patch, and suddenly on its farther verge they all put FOR RENT-ON SHARE OR FOR their heads down and went away with a shout, and we had a brilliant forty minutes, till the fox beat us on the edge of the sea and got safe into a slit in the cliffs.

Why should the bed of the fox have been less odorous than his light feet, and why did the hounds not acknowledge him until he had crossed the burnt bit of hill? These things are a mystery .- Youth's Companion.

American Indian May Have Come From Egypt

It is probable, if not certain, that the American Indian did not come Dishner, County Agent Joint Stock from Egypt but that in centuries following the glacial era, or even later, ALL KINDS OF SECOND-HAND tribes started to migrate. It is also Ford and Overland repairs for sale very possible that at that particular at half price, 1½ miles east of fair time Asia and America were not sep-grounds.—Fred Colfack. 17-3p arated by a body of water in the arated by a body of water in the northern part-that is, between Kamsion. The features of the Indians are not Mongolian but Asian. There is no doubt there and in the eyes of some ou find the same characteristics and to the cheekbones in both are promment, but not like the Mongolian

Jealousy Proved Fatal to English Musician

Certainly the most destructive of human emotions is that of jealousy. With the exception of love and war nothing seems to be so provocative to the green-eyed monster, who seems to have the faculty of consuming all those who admit him to their souls, as music. A list of the famous musical jealousies would be interesting. It would run into the hundreds. Opera companies are usually nests of jeal-

Possibly one of the most famous cases of musical pealousy is that of Henry Cooke, deceased (1672). Cooke was a fighter who gloried in the term of captain. He joined the king's army and fought bravely, it is said, but when the commonwealth came into existence he was obliged to make his living teaching music. Eventually he became gentleman and master of the children when the chapel royal was established again in 1660. There he had as his pupils no less than Purcell,

John Blow and Pelham Humphrey. Humphrey so closely imitated the work of his master that after some time he was able to supplant him in his state position. Captain Cooke flew into a rage of jealousy, and this continued until in his death notice there appeared the significant line, "died of jealousy."

CHAMBERS ITEMS.

Mrs. Genevieve Grimes is on the sick list.

EMMET NEWS.

The Methodist parsonage is now the only vacant house in Emmet. The K. C. Club gave a dance on Tuesday evening. It drew a large crowd and was enjoyed by all. William Crawford and family moved to Yankton, South Dakota, last week and will make thier home there. Mr. McGrew, from Stanton, runs a barber shop in the pool hall and is doing a fine business.

Miss Mary Claussen arrived home from California last Tuesday. She has been in the west for over a year and enjoyed the sunshine and flowers. Frank Sassler, of Newport, has leased the pool hall for a year from O'Connor.

J. C. Graham was elected Grand Knights of the O'Neill Council of the Knights of Columbus at their meeting last Thursday. Mr. Graham is to be congratulated on receiving this honor. Emmet also feels honored over Mr. Graham's election.

The Rev. Rasmussen, of the Methodist church, moved to Johnstown, Nebraska, two weeks ago. The Methodist conference did not appoint a pastor for Emmet as the congregation here is too small to support a pastor. The presiding elder was in Emmet last Sunday and conducted both morning and afternoon services. He promised to make arrangements for Emmet to have Sunday afternoon services conducted by pastors from the neighboring towns.
