

Hope for Doomed Seen in Loeb-Leopold Decision

Above: CLAUDE DOBBS and THOMAS FORAN.
Below: LOUISE THOMAS and WALTER KRAUSER.

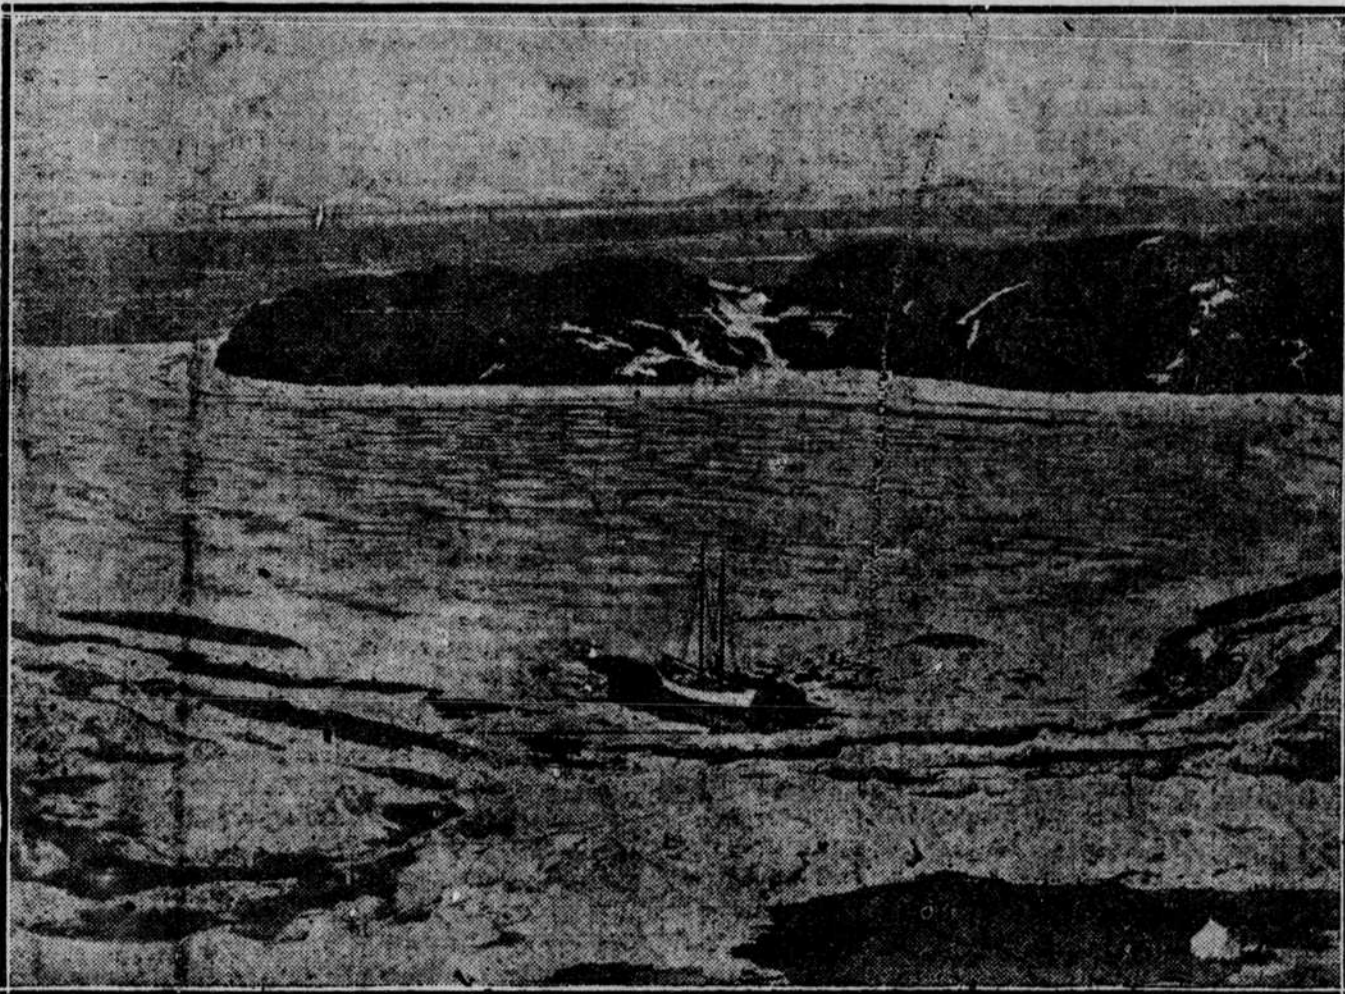

Five persons, all of them young, have turned their eyes and their hopes toward Chicago and Judge Caverly, of the Cook County Criminal Court, following his declaration that youths so young as Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, twenty each, should not be put to death for their confessed murder of little Bobby Franks. They are Walter Krauser and his companion, Edward Grant, both in the Cook County Jail and sentenced to death for the murder of a Chicago policeman during a holdup; Claude Dobbs, of Baltimore, and Thomas Foran, Philadelphia, both penniless boys who killed during a holdup; Edgar Perrygo, son of a poor truck farmer near Washington, D. C., now under death sentence, and Louise Thomas, poor mulatto girl, aged nineteen, who is sentenced to death for the murder of a Philadelphia policeman.

When MacMillan Was Ice Bound in Frozen North

Winter came but spring was far behind. When it finally did come, the members of the MacMillan crew had to shovel and hack their ship out of the ice and snow hummock which had covered it. The expedition was returned safely to Wiscasset, Me., after being locked in the ice for a year in North Greenland.

MacMillan's Ship Ready for Dash to U. S. After Escaping Ice

Here is the Bowdoin ready for the home dash on July 31 of this year, in Refuge Harbor, Smith Sound North Greenland, where, with the MacMillan North Greenland expedition she was locked in the ice for 13 months. She had to make her way through the ice around the open strip shown in the picture.

GERMAN ROYALTY GATHERS FOR WEDDING!

PRINCE WOLFGANG & BRIDE.

For the first time since 1914, members of the various branches of the German royal family, in full regalia, gathered at the ancient Castle Salem, in Hesse, to attend the wedding of Prince Wolfgang von Hessen, nephew of the former Kaiser, to the Princess Marie Alexandra von Baden, daughter of Prince Max von Baden. The former Kaiser strongly opposed the union, as Prince Max was Chancellor of the German Empire in 1918, and made public the Kaiser's abdication before it had been officially signed, compelling Wilhelm to flee into Holland.

THEY'VE BEEN PAIS FOR MANY YEARS

ANDREW HORIN, "STEVE" & "SNOOKUM"

Here is "Steve," Jersey City (N. J.) oldest horse, with Andrew Horin, his keeper, and "Snookum," his stable mate. "Steve" has just celebrated his forty-fifth birthday, and has been with Horin for twenty-five years.

LOVE FOR MINISTER TURNS TO ASHES.

MRS. ELSIE SWEETIN.

This photograph of Mrs. Elsie Sweetin, of Ina, Ill., was taken in her cell at Salem, Ill., where she was taken for safe keeping after confessing she murdered her husband, Wilford Sweetin, with arsenic at the same time Rev. Lawrence M. Hight killed his wife by the same means, so they might be free to love each other. Her love for the pastor-murderer has turned to ashes since she found he was not the superman she deemed him. She divides her time in her cell between reading and weeping.

New Drive on Cigaret Memorial to Famed Foe

Chicago.—Leaders of the National Anti-Cigarette League are planning a "memorial" to their late president, Lucy Page Gaston, in the form of a strenuous nationwide renewal of their fight against the cigarette. Announcing the preliminaries of the call to battle, the nation was warned that "if the overwhelming increase in the use of cigarettes is not immediately checked the welfare of the whole nation will be seriously impaired."

Vote Against Bobbing Her Six-Foot Hair

MRS. JAMES WIRE.

Mrs. James Wire, of Kountze, Tex., has hair six feet long. She wanted to know if she should bob it and keep pace with the modern flapper. So a local newspaper canvassed its readers on the question, and by a vote of six to one it was decided that she should keep her long tresses.

Captures English Beauty Contest

BASIL SCOTT

A beauty contest was held recently at Folkstone, Eng., in which men, married couples, engaged couples and families were awarded prizes in their various classes. Basil Scott was awarded a prize as the most beautiful man entered in the competition.

Law of U. S. May Separate Family

MRS. ANNA PICARDI & ANTONIO PICARDI

Mrs. Anna Picardi, 17 years old, is fighting hard to save her husband, Antonio Picardi, from deportation on charges that he illegally entered the United States by deserting as a seaman. They are living in New York.

Charles M. Courtney is the new commander of the Department of Nebraska, American Legion, and Mrs. C. E. McGlasson, is the new president of the Nebraska American Legion Auxiliary. They will be in office when Omaha is host to the national convention of the Legion in 1925.