

Washington Mad Over First World's Series

WASHINGTON FANS AFTER TICKETS

Washington takes baseball as seriously as Senators take themselves. So when "Bucky" Harris' team brought home the bacon and the right to play in Washington's first World's series, the town clamored for admission. This is only a small section of the mob that sought to buy tickets when they were placed on sale there.

Walrus Kill in Far North With MacMillan

Members of the MacMillan North Greenland expedition, which has returned to Wiscasset, Me., with a freshly killed walrus. Fresh walrus meat was one of the most highly prized articles of diet, when the Bowdoin crew was locked for 333 days in the Arctic.—(Copyright, 1924 in U. S. and Canada by the North American Newspaper Alliance and Donald B. MacMillan.)

MA FERGUSON

Having won the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas and being virtually assured of her election as the first woman Governor in the United States, "Ma" Ferguson, wife of James E. Ferguson, a former impeached Governor of the Lone Star State, forgets the worries of politics in the kitchen of her Temple, Tex., home.

WHERE THE RUBBER HOSE IS SLIPPER

ELMSFORD SCHOOL CHILDREN

Above are pictured children outside the Elmsford, N. Y., school, who, when they misbehaved, have been whipped with a light rubber hose by the principal, Howard L. Holden. Now that the right to spank has been taken away from him, Mr. Holden and sixteen of the twenty-two teachers have threatened to resign.

New Diamond Rush in Africa Follows Find

Capetown.—One of the greatest diamond rushes in the history of South Africa has just taken place at Zeekoefontein, on the banks of the Vaal river.

Mr. Tromp, owner of a farm in this district, discovered diamonds a few weeks ago, and has been making an average of two to three thousand pounds a week. On the day when, in accordance with the law, the neighboring area was thrown open, three thousand men and boys including well-dressed clerks and students, poor white diggers, and penniless farmers, prepared to stake their claims.

To all members will be issued attractive door and window stickers, which poor persons can plainly see, telling them that aid will be freely given them, but through the organized charities and in a more substantial and lasting form than the few bits of change the professional beggars ask for. Upon application to a member for help the unfortunate is handed a coupon, which he must present to charities officials, who will investigate the case and then act, bourgeois lui vaboo, tohit

GAVE AWAY FORTUNE; CLERKS FOR $15 A WEEK

EDWARD W. WASHBURN

Because, he said, his wife and daughters made him eat at a separate table and made life miserable for him, Edward W. Washburn, of Brockton, Mass., gave his business there, worth $500,000, to his family and disappeared. For a time it was thought he had committed suicide. Now he has been found clerking in a Brooklyn N. Y., store for $15 a week, but he says he is happy.

Hollywood Actress Off to Wed Banker

NITA NALDI

Great indignation was shown by Nita Naldi, film star from California, when reporters found her aboard a Europe-bound vessel and wanted to photograph her. She didn't like her holiday interrupted, she said, but later smilingly consented to a snapshot. The reason for the pout was explained when it was learned she was sailing to wed a Cleveland banker whom she met seven years ago while she was a chorus girl.

Papal Dress Reform Keeps Churches Empty

Paris.—The papal ukase against immodesty in feminine dress is interpreted at Biogna in so drastic a manner that attendance at the local churches is said to have fallen off 50 per cent.

Priests, assisted by boy scouts and members of the Virgin Mary society, mount guard at the doors of Bologna Cathedral before the 11 o'clock fashionable mass, and compel all women entering to undergo a close scrutiny.

If any would-be worshipper is held to be not dressed to conform with the Pope's idea of modesty she is barred from the church.

Several prominent women of the city have thus been excluded from worship, according to Rome dispatches.
