Mrs. Martin Bazelman received the sad news Wednesday, of last week, that her nephew, Keith Borland, had passed away at Columbus, Nebraska. Joseph Bazelman left that evening for Columbus, where he attended the funeral of his cousin.

John C. White accompanied by his two nieces, Mrs. Ethel Pilger and Miss Nora White, came up from Omaha and spent last week visiting at the home of their brother and uncle, Tom White, at Redbird, Nebraska. They returned to Omaha Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fehr arrived in O'Neill Monday from St. Louis Park, Minnesota, and will be located in this city in the future. Mr. Fehr is an electrical engineer and will have charge of the operation of the electric light plant here.

Dr. J. P. Gilligan assisted by Dr. O. W. French, of Page, performed an operation Monday upon Dee Grass, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grass residing east of O'Neill, who is suffering with pneumonia. Miss Lura Grass is also quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bay attended a family reunion last Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Bay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kaczor, who resides north of Spencer. All of the children were present excepting Fred, Jr., who lives in Montana. The occasion was the eighty-fourth birthday anniversary of Mr. Kaczor.

W. B. Golden, assistant superintendent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Co., was shaking hands with the business men of O'Neill, Tuesday morning. Mr. Golden is being favorably mentioned for the position of division superintendent which office was made vacant by the sudden death of Superintendent Boone who was killed in an auto accident near Norfolk about two weeks ago.

PETER NORBECK WILL SPEAK IN O'NEILL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Senator Peter Norbeck, of South Dakota, will speak in O'Neill Friday afternoon, October 24th, at three o'clock upon the political issues now before the people as viewed from a Republican standpoint. Senator Norbeck is an interesting speaker. Don't fail to hear him.

J. A. Donohoe is in Omaha attending the bankers convention.

Mrs. R. M. Sauer was in Norfolk last Thursday between trains.

J. W. McPherran, of Ponca, arrived here Monday and will be employed at the light plant.

James Connolly hauled in a car load of hogs in his new truck last Tuesday for John O'Malley, who shipped them to Omaha.

W. R. Riddlesbarger, principal of the public school, went to Lincoln Saturday to attend the Colgate-Nebraska football game.

Father M. J. Brady, of Omaha, new assistant to Father Cassidy at St. Patrick's church, arrived last Thursday and has entered upon his duties.

Walter Phillips, of Star, managed to tear a front wheel from his car Saturday evening while turning a corner too fast, about ten miles northeast of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rooney, of Chadron, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hart. They were on their way to Omaha to attend the bankers convention.

Robert R. Dickson, grand master of the Masonic order in Nebraska, went to Bellevue, Nebraska, last Saturday where he officiated at the laying of the corner stone of a large community building.

Mrs. D. H. Clauson and Mrs. H. H. Haffner entertained the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society in the church basement last Thursday. The rooms were tastefully arranged with Halloween decorations and autumn leaves. Twenty-five ladies were present.

The Minnesota Electric Light Company have completed the pipe line from the Northwestern tracks to their light plant and Wednesday morning the boilers were fired for the first time with fuel oil. The machinery is being rearranged in the power house and when the work is completed the plant will be more efficient.

Lloyd Brown is believed to have established a record for hay baling, at the George Shoemaker ranch south of town. Mr. Brown recently with a six man crew and six four-mule teams recently baled and delivered for J. B. Ryan 30 stacks or 264 tons of hay. Seven and one-half days were required for baling and eight days for hauling, or an average of a little over 35 tons baled per day.

Lawrence Skirving, of Sacramento, California, arrived here Monday from New York City, where he had been to identify a large quantity of wool that was stolen from him at Sacramento. The theft was discovered and the wool located before the boat on which the cargo had been loaded, left the docks. The boat sailed through the Panama canal. Lawrence went to New York and identified the wool as it was unloaded from the ship.

Some time ago a number of the ladies of the Presbyterian church sent a box of presents to John Longstaff Goodenberger, the young son of Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Goodenberger, who are located in the province of Yunnan, in the interior of China. Recently a letter was received from Mrs. Goodenberger acknowledging the receipt of the presents. The letter was unique in that it was written in verse and each verse contained something about some article sent. The ladies who contributed to the box gathered at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Longstaff Tuesday evening at which time the letter was read. Mrs. Longstaff served luncheon during the evening.

Atkinson Graphic: The State and Federal Aid highway between Atkinson and Emmet, formerly one of the poorest stretches of road along this line, is now open to traffic as one of the best roads in the county. With six miles of new grading and five miles of rebuilt grading this road constitutes one of the long-needed valuable improvements to east and west travel through Atkinson and other towns along this highway. The work on this road was begun in the latter part of August and about thirty-two days of working time was spent upon its improvement. Two men with a tractor and a grading outfit did the work and the estimated cost of the project is only $1,150.00. County Road Supervisor, C. E. Havens, of Atkinson, was instrumental in having this new grade put in.

Zeb Warner and son, Fred, returned home Sunday evening from a six weeks' auto trip to Zeb's old home at Point Pleasant, Virginia, where he spent his boyhood days. This was the first visit to the old home for forty years and Zeb says that things have changed to such an extent that he hardly new the place. The trip was an interesting one and included stops at various points enroute where they visited with old friends. A stop of three days was made in Columbus, Ohio, where they visited relatives. Zeb says that he visited the state penitentiary there and viewed the electric chair. There are 3,000 convicts in this pen, including 500 life-termers. The travelers report that the roads are not first class all of the way and that they encountered considerable bad roads on the highways in the east as well as this side of Chicago.

JONES-GRIFFITH.

On Friday, October 17th, occurred the marriage of Jennie Griffith, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, and Samuel D. Jones, of San Antonio, Texas.

The young couple drove to Burke, South Dakota, accompanied by the bride's brothers, Charles and Cecil, and an uncle of the bride, Rev. W. R. Griffith, pastor of the Hawthorne M. E. church of Chicago, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago, who performed the ceremony uniting this young couple.

The bride wore a most becoming gown of Mocha tan canton crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations. The bridegroom wore the conventional suit of blue.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents, twenty miles north of O'Neill, where about thirty-five immediate relatives and friends were served with a three course dinner. The dining room was tastefully decorated with pink roses and white carnations, interspersed with ferns and in the center of the table was an immense wedding cake on which stood a miniature wedding couple under a white wedding bell. The cake was cut by the bride, and the supposition is that a number of the young lady guests slept with a piece of the cake under their pillow that night.

The following vocal numbers rendered during the reception were "The Dawn" d Hardlot; "Loves Garden" Burleigh; by Mrs. Cotton. Violin numbers, "La Serenata" Braga, "By the Waters of Minne-tonka" Lorenz, by Miss Scannell.

The newly weds departed for the west Friday evening where they will visit points of interest enroute to their new home in San Francisco, California.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school and also of the Van Zandt business college, of Omaha. She went to California with friends in the spring of 1921. While employed as a stenographer for the Dodge Bros. Motor Co., in Fresno, she met her fiance, who was then employed as auditor for the San Joaquin Valley Raisin Association.

Mrs. Jones returned from California in July and has been spending the past few months with her parents on the farm near Meek, Nebraska.

Although Mr. Jones is not well known here he is a young man of good habit and a member of the Masonic fraternity and served over seas during the late war.

Many useful and beautiful presents were received by the newly weds.

Both young people have received hearty congratulations from their friends both here and in California, who are wishing them a long and happy life in their California home.
