

Is Spanish Royalty Doomed to Be Exiled?

KING ALFONSO & GEN. DE RIVERA PRINCE D'ASTURIAS & VICENTE B. IBANEZ (Below) QUEEN VICTORIA & PRINCESSES BEATRICE & CHRISTINE

The resentment that has sprung up in Spain over losses in long-continued war with the Riff tribes for possession of Morocco and also over the acts of the Spanish dictator, Gen. Primo Rivera, has been crystallized by Vicente Blasco Ibanez, world-renowned Spanish author of the "Four Horsemen," "Blood and Sand" and other novels. Ibanez has placed himself at the head of a party which declares it will never rest until Alfonso and his English queen, Victoria, have been driven from the throne and a republic established. The Prince d'Asturias is the heir to the Spanish throne. His two beautiful sisters are also pictured here.

Trenton's Sailors Killed in New Twin-Mount Turret

TURRET OF U.S.S. TRENTON & CAPT. E. C. KALBFUS.

This is the new type twin-mount turret containing the six-inch guns on the United States scout cruiser Trenton, where several sailors were killed in a powder explosion on the final trip off the Virginia Capes. The ship was commanded by Cap. E. C. Kalbfus.

Will Build Depot Around Rock

DEPOT AROUND ROCK

After the contractor building a depot for Northwestern railroad at Waukegan, Ill., broke several derricks and flat cars trying to remove this huge boulder, he decided it would be cheaper to build the depot around the stone, and that is what he is doing.

Mourned As Dead, Sailors Return

DENNIS DRAKE and JOHN TIBO.

After spending three days helplessly floating on the Atlantic ocean after their ship had been wrecked in a gale, Dennis Drake and John Tibo, of Grand Bank, Newfoundland, made port in their little dory. Services for them had been held and they had been given up for lost.

Criminologist Sued for Breach of Promise

Charlotte Lex

Miss Charlotte Lex of Berkeley, Cal., has entered suit against August Vollmer, criminologist, former Chief of Police of Los Angeles and now chief at Berkeley, for $50,000 for alleged breach of promise.

Husband and Wife Are Candidates for Same Job

Perryville, Mo.—Perhaps the first contest of its kind in the United States is the race this year in Wayne county, Missouri, between a man and his wife as candidates for the same office on opposite tickets. F. C. Yates, an undertaker of Piedmont, Mo., was nominated at the primary election on the democratic ticket for coroner, and then the republican county committee placed Mrs. Yates on the republican ticket for the same office. Some think the case of "heads I win, tails you lose!" But Yates is trying hard to win, supplying the gold-banded cigars to the boys and greeting the ladies cordially wherever he meets them. Mrs. Yates is not letting grass grow under her feet, either.

International Liquor Ring Is Bared

MRS. MAX JEROME PHAFF.

Above is shown Mrs. Max Jerome Phaff, of New York, whose husband, a naturalized American, is under arrest in Havre, France, charged with piracy as a result of the raiding by "hijackers" of the French steamer Mulhouse off the coast of Long Island and the theft of her big liquor cargo. Phaff is alleged by the French police to have boasted he was "king" of American bootleggers and that the Mulhouse was robbed to keep foreigners out of the rich bootlegging field. Mrs. Phaff is said to have admitted knowing some of the details of her husband's activities.

Stork Did Himself Proud in This Case

FIFTEEN POUND BABY.

It was a tired stork that flapped from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Absor Barkan, in New York City, after depositing a baby boy that tipped the scale at exactly fifteen pounds. Miss Minnie Tothem, the nurse, shown with the mother and baby, declares the infant is perfectly normal.

Cruiser on Which Iowa Boy Was Killed

U.S.S. TRENTON

Fourteen men were killed in an explosion in the forward twin gun mount on the new 35-knot scout cruiser Trenton during target practice on the Southern drill grounds, off Cape Henry, Va. The cruiser, recently commissioned, was commanded by Capt. E. C. Kalbfus. Roland P. Hanson, of Soldier, Ia., was one of the victims.

Revenue Agents Ram Rum Runner

RAMMING RUM RUNNER.

One of the federal coast guard boats operating against rum runner in the Detroit river at Detroit, Mich., is shown here ramming a liquor-smuggling, capturing the bootlegging crew. The rum boats operate from bases on the Canadian shore and are daring in their operation.

International Peace Society Officers.

M. LA FONTAINE and DR. LUDWIG QUIDDE.

M. LaFontaine, of the Belgian Senate, has been elected President, and Dr. Ludwig Quidde, President of the German Peace Society, has been elected Managing Director of the International Peace Society, at the Twenty-third annual Peace Conference held in Bern, Switzerland.

Christian General Leads Revolt

GEN. FENG YU-HSIANG

Marshal Feng Yu-Hsiang, the Chinese "Christian General," commanding the Eleventh Division of the Chinese National Army, has revolted in Peking, seized the city's gates, cut all telephone and telegraph wires and stopped all trains, placing the Chinese Government in dire peril.

Under Arrest, Girl Fears Gangsters

ELEANOR BARNES.

When she was arrested in Jersey City, N. J., and held in $25,000 bail for extradition to Boston on the charge of being a member of a "badger gang" that blackmailed wealthy Bostonians out of thousands of dollars, she begged Judge Sullivan not to send her back to the Hub, declaring that the others in the gang had threatened to kill her because she confessed.