LOCAL MATTERS.

C. C. Henkel and daughter, Mrs. Fred Tesche, were down from Atkinson Tuesday.

The Emmet School play has been postponed until a date to be determined later owing to the inclement weather.

H. W. Tomlinson, president of the O'Neill Checker Club, has been confined to his home during the past week because of an attack of lumbago.

Mrs. Lydia (Butler) Walesby, of Independence, Mo., has been visiting with her cousin, C. E. Downey, and family and with relatives in Inman. She left for her home today.

United States Marshal D. H. Cronin, was visiting with relatives in O'Neill Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning.

The regular dance and card party held every two weeks in the old Old Fellow's building last Tuesday evening was fairly well attended. The usual good time was enjoyed.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Will Schroeder, who is employed at the Ditch camp ranch was snow-bound in O'Neill the first of the week.

The Frontier has a number of boxes of the latest Christmas cards and folders. Call at the office and see them.

H. E. Coyne has been moving the Brennan hardware stock to the Gatz building this week where he will conduct a hardware store. He has added a considerable amount of new goods.

Christmas buying has begun in O'Neill. The blockaded roads stopped business for a few days but as the roads are again passable the merchants are doing a fairly good business.

O'Neill, and one director for a term of three years, William Graver, Ewing. The annual meeting was changed from the first week in December to the first Saturday in November.

At the annual election of the Holt County Fair and Agricultural Society the retiring officers were re-elected: President, A. J. Hahn, Stuart, Vice-President, Jacob Hirsch, O'Neill, Secretary-Treasurer, John L. Quig.

The roads are being opened rapidly and the farmers are coming to town in wagons and buggies to do their Christmas shopping at the stores that are advertising and telling them what they have to offer.

George Tomlinson and Grant Alder were in from Opportunity last Saturday evening to get a large corn sheller. They were snowbound and were not able to get the sheller home until after the roads were opened.

A large number of Christmas advertisements are appearing this week in the Frontier. Quite a number were shown last week. Read these advertisements and then purchase your Christmas articles from the merchants who ask you to patronize them.

Real winter weather began, in this part of the state, on Wednesday evening of last week, when fourteen inches of snow fell before the storm was over. Sunday morning snow began falling again which resulted in another coating that measured ten inches.

Phillip Allendorfer, of Agee, arrived home Tuesday morning from Chicago, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Richard Henderson, of Chicago. Mr. Allendorfer drove through to Chicago with his brother Fay who had been here visiting him. The trip to Chicago was made in two days. Mr. Allendorfer says that he ran into the storm about fifty miles west of Chicago, Sunday evening.

Former County Agent F. W. Rose, who left, Tuesday of last week via auto for his new home at Albion, Indiana, arrived at his destination Friday evening ahead of the storm. He ran into a rain about four hundred miles from Albion but as he was on the pavement it did not interfere a great deal with the trip.

TWO PAGE LADIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Mrs. C. A. Townsend, Sr., and Mrs. O. L. Reed met with an accident Sunday evening while returning home from Clearwater, where they had taken Miss Helen Townsend to her school. Mrs. Townsend was driving their Ford coupe, and the accident occurred just south of the railroad track in Page.

They were blinded by the lights of an approaching car and ran into the cement block banister of the culvert with such force that it threw both Mrs. Townsend and Mrs. Reed out of the coupe. They were not seriously hurt.

The car was badly damaged and the upper part of the banister shoved to the north.

O'NEILL WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES.

(Received last week.)

The general meeting, November 26th, was well attended in spite of the cold day. The principal feature of the meeting was the Parliamentary Drill, conducted by Mrs. Sauer. Those taking part were Mesdames Miles, Arbutnot, Stannard, Dishner, Scott, Cowperthwaite, Swigart and Sauer. Resolutions, Amendments, and Substitutes were discussed at length.

A very interesting paper on the use and misuse of words was prepared by Mrs. Suhr, Critic.

The Sterling-Reed Bill was commented on by the President, Mrs. Gilligan.

On Wednesday, December 3d, the Literature and Art Department held their usual meeting. The following program was carried out.

Book Review—Meet the Wife, Mrs. Hugh Coyne.

Book Review—Aren't We All, Mrs. Sauer.

(Mrs. Sauer's Review was deferred until another meeting.)

Art Review of the Picture, Queen Louise—Miss Donohoe.

Leader—Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell.
