WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES.

On Wednesday afternoon, January 14th, the Department of Home Economics held their regular monthly meeting. The program was in the hands of the Welfare Committee of which Mrs. Malone is chairman. Mrs. Malone had prepared a very interesting program, which was carried out as follows:

School Needs-Mrs. Arbuthnot. Our Boys and Girls in the Home-Mrs. C. B. Scott.

The Country Nurse-Miss Donohoe. Needs of the City-Mrs. Daly. Our Health-Mrs. Gilligan.

The Department of Music gave their regular progrram on Wednesday, January 21st. A very interesting paper On the Early History of Music was read by Mrs. Lancaster. Two different forms of musical composition, the Prelude and the Minuet were explained and demonstrated. Two preludes, by Bach and Chopin respectively, were played by Mrs. Clifford Scott. Miss Taylor gave a short talk on the Minuet, after which a most charming demonstration of out incision of lines it is called mezzothe Minuet was given by Misses Elizabeth Henry and Helen Hancock, Masters George Abdouch and Thomas Lyddy, all in appropriate costumes, and directed by Miss Taylor.

Musical Current Events were given by Mrs. Reardon.

January 28, the main feature of January 28, the main feature of which will be a discussion of the bills now pending in Congress of interest to women. County Attorney J. D. Cronin will be present at this meeting to discuss these bills.

Engraving Process

If an engraved surface be covered with ink or wet colored paper or the like pressed upon it it will take the impression of the parts remaining untouched, while the hollowed out (engraved) parts will not print off. This is called relief engraving, and its most important variety is wood engraving; If the ink or color be forced into the hollowed parts, while the smooth part is wiped clean, the paper, usually wet, will draw from the engraved line and spaces the ink which they have contained while the rest of the paper is left white. This process is properly called line engraying; if the lines are eaten into the plate by means of an acid the process is called etching; if the surface is merely roughened with-

When Chocolate Was New

France has just been celebrating the third centenary of the arrival of chocolate in 1624. The Spaniards brought it from Central America, and soon it was the rage in Paris.

Chocolate took a long time, comparatively, to reach England, but in 1657 there appeared the following advertisement in London: "In Bishopsgate street, in Queen's Head alley, at a Frenchman's house, is an excellent be sold, where you may have it ready at any time, and also unmade, at reasonable rates."
