

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLV.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1925.

NO. 37.

"Lost—A Chaperon"

Produced in K. C. Opera House

Thursday, February 19th

With the Following Cast:

Ruth French	Ellen Shaughnessy
Alice Bennett	Margaret Leach
Blanche Westcott	Neva Brentson
Agnes Arabella Bates	Marjorie Alderson
Margie Tyndall	Lucile Vaught
Mrs. Sparrow	Margaret Rhode
Lizzie Sparrow	Ruby Martin
Mandy Sparrow	Ellie Butterfield
George Higgins, an A. B.	Jack Arbutnot
Jack Abbott, a Freshman	James Chapman
Fred Lawton, a Freshman	Clark Hough
Raymond Fitzhenry, off hill engineer	Frances Welsh
Tom Crosby, off hill engineer	Leo Ryan
Dick Norton, off hill engineer	Erwin Cronin
Mrs. Higgins, the chaperon	Lillian Simonson

Scenes—First and Third—Girls Camp in Maine.

Second—Boys Camp Across Lake.

Admission—Adult, 50c. Matinee, 25c.

Managers—Donald Alderson, Russell Shoemaker.

A son, Harold Arthur, was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brouse, of Valentine, Nebraska, on Tuesday, February 10th. Mrs. Brouse will be remembered as Hazel French, formerly of Page.

Mrs. M. A. Summers, of Middle Branch, is spending this week at the home of her son, Frank and family, in this city. Through the death of an aunt in Scotland, Mrs. Summers has just received a legacy of several hundred pounds Sterling.

C. M. Lawrence of the College of Agriculture, Lincoln, was in O'Neill last week arranging for a boys and girls pig and calf club; 14 members are already listed and Mr. Lawrence expects to assemble a large club in the near future.

Wert L. Kirk, editor and publisher of the Spencer Advocate for the past ten years, has sold interests in the business to Carl G. Ratliff and W. A. Alexander, of Sioux City, who will conduct the business in the future.

The next meeting of the G. P. C. will be held at the Stahley home and will be entertained by Lucille Hough, on Thursday, February 19th. All members as well as all prospective members are asked to be present.

A. C. Tilley, division engineer, Department of Public Works, with headquarters at Norfolk, was in O'Neill a short time Wednesday conferring with the chairman of the County Board. Mr. Tilley was also inspecting a bridge southeast of Ewing.

E. N. Purcell and daughter, Mrs. W. L. Caldwell and little daughter, Anamae, expect to go up to Crawford, Nebraska, this evening. Mr. Purcell has installed a new produce station at Crawford. Mr. Caldwell will manage the produce house.

A foreign mission meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church in O'Neill, on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Sullenberger, returned missionary from South America, will lecture on foreign mission work. A good turnout is desired. A collection at the close of the meeting.

Chairman of the County Board John Sullivan and County Clerk E. F. Porter returned home from Lincoln the first of the week where they met with a legislative committee in regard to having an appropriation made for the remainder of the money due the road projects, and also to arrange for state and federal money for further road work.

The Purcell Produce company have just received and unloaded another car of Glendora Wonder coal and are expecting another car the first of the week. This coal sells for $11.00 delivered from the car. We deliver. No clinkers, very low in ash and very lasting. If you are in need of coal phone your orders to 66. Ask your neighbors what they think of Glendora. 37-1

The W. W. W. club in the Middle Branch country in the eastern part of the county has been seriously contemplating adding a nursery to their club. Three families, Mr. and Mrs. Moody Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey are the proud parents of sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stauffer, a daughter, all born during the last week of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stahley, residing near Emmet, quietly arranged a surprise party for Miss Lucille Hough last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Hough's birthday anniversary. Miss Hough is teaching school in that district. The guests were her school patrons and many friends. The evening was spent at games and other amusement. Miss Hough was presented with a fountain pen by the pupils of her ninth grade. Luncheon was served at midnight.

W. B. GRAVES RECEIVES LETTER TWENTY-EIGHT MONTHS BELATED

A short time ago W. B. Graves received notice from the postoffice at Valentine that there was a letter in that office addressed to him with two cents postage due. Mr. Graves immediately sent the two cents and in return received a letter dated October 6, 1922, that had come to that office from the postoffice at Harmony, Nebraska. When Mr. Graves finally received the letter the newly affixed stamps was not cancelled.

The letter contained a request for information in regard to work that Mr. Graves was doing for the party at that time. Mr. Graves and those interested have been trying to figure out where that letter has been resting during the twenty-eight months.

EWING MAN ARRESTED FOR RECENT MILL FIRE

Charles Peterson, of Ewing, was arrested last Saturday and brought before the county judge charged with setting fire to the Ewing mill which burned some time ago. Peterson gave bond for his appearance in county court Friday, February 13th, at which time he will be arraigned for a preliminary hearing.

The arrest of Peterson is the result of an investigation which has been made recently by the chief fire inspector of the state.

ABE SAUNTO STORE BUILDING DAMAGED BY FIRE MONDAY

Fire was discovered emanating from the roof of the Abe Saunto store last Monday morning. The firemen were soon upon the scene and put out the blaze before any great amount of damage was done.

FORMER INMAN GIRL ASSISTING IN REMOVAL OF FLOYD COLLINS

The Sunday Bee contained a large picture of Mrs. Fay Goree Lewis, formerly Fay Goree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goree, of Inman, who is now night superintendent of the hospital at Cave City, Kentucky. She is a cousin of D. H. Clauson of this city.

Fay Goree Lewis, former Omaha girl, is one of the Red Cross nurses assisting in the work of releasing Floyd Collins from the underground passage in which he is a prisoner near Cave City, Kentucky. She was graduated from Lord Lister hospital nurses' training school in 1918 and then became superintendent of a hospital in Iowa, after which she joined the Red Cross service. Dr. E. C. Henry spoke highly of Miss Lewis' work.

SOUKUP POOL HALL HAS A SMALL BLAZE

An unruly oil stove in the Soukup pool hall caused the fire alarm to be sounded last Friday morning. The fire was extinguished before the firemen arrived.

MRS. T. S. ROCHE.

Mrs. T. S. Roche died at her home in the eastern part of the county Wednesday morning following an illness of several months.

She was born at Keokuk, Iowa, April 7, 1856, and was sixty-eight years, ten months and four days. Funeral services will be held Friday morning, February 13th, at St. Patrick's church in this city.

An obituary notice will appear next week.

BASKET BALL.

On Saturday, February 7, O'Neill High school quintet played and defeated the Ainsworth cagers in a fast but one-sided game, the final count being 25 to 3.

Bazelman scoring 12 points, Quinn 10, and Welsh 3, were the O'Neill stars, while Davis and Law got out 3 points between them for Ainsworth, who were held scoreless for three quarters. Then Law looped a basket and Davis a free throw, but that was the extent of their luck.

The O'Neill High Basket ball team

Why This Should Be Your Bank

We invite the business of all who appreciate the comfort of security, the advantage of good service and the pleasure of courtesy.

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders. Resources over $600,000.00.

The O'Neill National Bank

played and defeated the Stuart five by a score of 27 to 4 at the high school gymnasium Wednesday night. The success of the O'Neill boys was due to the close guarding and accurate shooting.

The game started with a basket for Stuart; this put our boys on guard. Then Phalin looped one of the most picturesque shots from the center of the floor, followed by the throw from Arbutnot, leaving the score 3 to 2 at the end of the first quarter.

Bazelman and Quinn rallied in points continuously, leaving a count of 10 to 2 at the end of the half.

Second half opened with another cager by Allman, of Stuart, and Bazelman piled up the count so the score was 19 to 4 at the end of the third stanza.

In the last quarter Phalin made a free throw, and Welsh looped three ringers, leaving a score of 27 to 4.

LOCAL NEWS.

Herbert Webb, of Opportunity, has moved to Ewing.

Miss Bessie McLeod spent Sunday with friends in Omaha.

The old folks enjoyed a hop at the H. W. Tomlinson home Friday evening.

Mrs. Margret Clinton and Mrs. Mary Zastrow are in Omaha this week.

A daughter was born February 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds, of Ewing.

Mrs. J. A. Donohoe went to Chicago last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Coulter.

Bernard Fitzsimmons came up from Omaha last week and is visiting with O'Neill friends.

Mrs. L. E. Skidmore, of Ewing, has been quite ill at the home of her son near Chambers.

Edw. Adams, of Chambers, was in the city last Friday and called on us at our new location.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Perry, of Stuart, Nebraska, on February 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tomlinson returned home last Friday from a short wedding trip and honeymoon.

"Lost—A Chaperon." A generous reward offered for her return. Junior class, K. of C. Hall, February 19.

E. O. Elvidge came up from Sioux City last Saturday and was shaking hands with former O'Neill friends.

A. V. Virgin has installed new radio receiving sets recently for Levi Hull, Ralph Lawrence and O. G. Angst.

Rev. E. T. Connelly, representing the Wesleyan university, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday.

Rev. E. D. Hull, district superintendent, held quarterly conference in the Methodist church Friday evening, February 6th.

Be sure to see the Junior play "Lost A Chaperon," in the K. C. Hall, Thursday, February 19, 1925. Matinee at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Ben J. Grady came home last Sunday from a couple of weeks' visit with her sister, Miss Margaret Donohoe and other relatives and friends.

A son was born Wednesday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Flaherty, residing ten miles north on the highway.

J. C. Harnish went to York, Nebraska, last Sunday and has been attending a meeting of the Home Board of the I. O. O. F. home.

Thursday will be the first appearance in public of the High School Glee Club, when they will sing a group of songs, between acts of the Junior play.

Miss Kathleen Roskoff and Miss Rose Taylor were hostesses to the Monday night club this week. Mrs. E. T. Campbell won the high score prize at bridge.

A rip roaring comedy in three acts entitled "Lost, A Chaperon," presented by the Junior class Thursday evening, February 19. You will enjoy every minute.

Carl J. Sausser left Thursday morning for Lincoln where he goes to be present at the installation of Phi Chapter of Phi Kappa at the local fraternity Nu Alpha of which he is a member.

Elmer Bergstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nils Bergstrom residing in the eastern part of the county, suffered a broken right arm while cranking a car in Page last Thursday.

The many O'Neill friends of Miss Ellen Clare Donovan, of St. Paul, Minnesota, enjoyed listening to several vocal selections rendered by her, Sunday evening from radio station WCCO, at Minneapolis.

The Episcopal services on Sunday, February 15th, at 8:00 o'clock a. m. Holy communion; 11 morning prayer and sermon; 8:00 p. m. evening prayer and sermon. Strangers are welcome to any and all of these services. Rev. Mr. Diggs, priest in charge.

Your Bank

In every sense, it is the desire of this bank that it be known to you as YOUR bank. Only by giving our depositors the feeling that the institution is part theirs, can we hope to succeed and render the fullest measure of service.

Our advice is free and it can be of value to you in your affairs. It is generously given, without "strings to it."

It is our business to know things you are likely to ask about.

We shall welcome you as a depositor and extend every facility to help you solve your problems.

The Nebraska State Bank

Quality

Service

A Complete Dairy Line

Milk Cream

Butter

Buttermilk Skim Milk

Have installed new modern butter making equipment and can supply you with the finest Pure Dairy butter throughout the year. Have an expert butter maker with twenty-one years experience.

A trial is all I ask.

Sanitary Dairy

Phone 84.

F. H. Lancaster