Entered at the postoffice at O'Neill, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

MRS. WM. EISELE.

Mrs. Wm. Eisele died at her home in the southwest part of this city, last Monday following a short illness, at the age of eighty-eight years, nine months and twelve days.

Mrs. Eisele was born in West Newton, West Moreland County, Pennsylvania, April 27, 1836. She was married to Wm. Eisele in her home town on September 6, 1860. To this union were born ten children—three sons and seven daughters. Nine children survive their mother, Mrs. J. P. Cox, Chambers; Mrs. Fred Bergham, Omaha; Mrs. Frank Lindaberry, Omaha; Mrs. J. U. Ashton, Tyron, Nebraska; Mrs. Linn Potts, Council Bluffs; Mrs. George Dutcher, Turlock, California; D. E. Eisele, Lincoln; George P. Eisel Cashmere, Washington, and Wm. Eisele, at home.

Mrs. Eisele came to Holt county with her husband and family in November, 1881, from Lancaster county, and located near Chambers where they continued to make their home until 1900 when she moved to O'Neill.

Mrs. Eisele was one of the pioneers of the county and endured many hardships during the early days when money was scarce and the country sparsely populated. Much of the success of the country is due those early pioneers who had the courage to stay and build a home under the adverse conditions that existed in those days.

The funeral services were held from the home Wednesday morning at ten o'clock conducted by Rev. George Longstaff. Burial was made in Prospect Hill cemetery.

The children were all present excepting George P., and Mrs. Dutcher.

DREY-HAMILTON.

George W. Drey, of Early, Iowa, and Miss Alice Elizabeth Hamilton, of this city were united in marriage by Father Cassidy at St. Patrick's church in this city Wednesday morning at eight o'clock.

The bride wore a becoming dress of wool charmeuse, brick color, with gray hat and hose.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Drey, was attired in a dress of Elizabeth crepe, wigwam brown.

The bridegroom and best man, Claude Hamilton, of Page, were dressed in neat suits of blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Drey left for Omaha at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, where they will enjoy a short honeymoon before going to Early, Iowa, where Mr. Drey owns and operates a farm.

The Frontier extends congratulations.

CHARLES JOSEPH BIGLER.

Charles Joseph Bigler died in the Spencer hospital last Thursday. Mr. Bigler was one of the pioneer settlers of the county coming here in 1883 and locating in the northern part of the county where he has made his home until his death.

He was born in Greenville, Michigan, April 28, 1852.

Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church near Meek, Saturday afternoon, at 2:00, conducted by Rev. J. A. Hutchins; burial was made in the cemetery near the church.

Further notice next week.
