

Monarch of All He Surveys

This big spotted cat, who can't change his spots, is certainly an elegant looking fellow. While, frankly, he's not a vegetarian, he isn't as black as some have painted him. It is easy to see that whatever his faults may be, he's a perfect gentleman; something on the order of the mildest man that ever scuttled a ship or cut a throat.

Society Girl Bride
Star Ball Player

MRS. VAL PICINICH

Miss Alice Keough, prominent socially in East Boston, Mass., and Valentine Picinich, catcher for the Boston baseball team of the American League, were married recently. It became known when friends of the couple received gifts sent by "Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Picinich." When Picinich returned from his European tour as a member of the Giants-White Sox combination, it was learned, Miss Keough met him at the pier. They were married the next day in New Jersey.

Wife Has First Right to Spouse

MRS. BETTY GLUCK

These are the principals in the "klan wedding" now being aired in Denver courts. Mae Nash, the bride, is seen above. Keith Bashm, high school boy, who says Dr. John Galen Locke, klan officer, forced him to marry her, is shown below.

A wife has first claim upon the affections of her husband. Magistrate Simpson, of New York, told Mrs. Betty Gluck, wife of a vaudeville actor, when she was arraigned on a charge of annoying a feminine friend of her husband. Simpson dismissed the complaint and told Mrs. Gluck she has a right to annoy any woman who attempts to trifle with the affections of her husband.

A Continental Daredevil

Vilhelme Banky is but 19 years old, but already has become one of the favorites of the European movie public, for her daredevil stunts in the air. She is an all-round athlete, besides being an expert aviator.

Divorce Decision Is Knocked Out by Wife

MRS. VERA SHEARER

Two years ago Vera and Henry Shearer lived in New York, where she ran a tearoom and he sold pianos. Last July he got a Chicago divorce, charging desertion and misbehavior. One of the witnesses was Emmaline Hammond, whom he later married, and moved to Indianapolis. Now Vera has gotten Judge Joseph Sabath to set aside the divorce decree on the grounds she was never served. "He'll answer plenty," she told the court.

Toiled and Prayed
To Free Floyd Collins

Johnnie Gerald, top, is ill with pneumonia contracted from his attempts to rescue Floyd Collins from Sand Cave, near Cave City, Ky. Lee Collins, center, Floyd's father, pleaded for persons throughout the country to pray for his son's release. Norman Parker, below, was the last man to talk to Collins. He was in the cave when the passage to Collins was blocked the second time.

MRS. HELEN C. THEILMAN

Mrs. Helen Collin Theilman has brought suit in New York for divorce from Dr. Henry Theilman, noted dental surgeon and expert clay pigeon shot.

Doctors may be curing tuberculosis with gold before long. Dr. Peter C. Clemensen of Chicago has just returned from Copenhagen with enough sanocrysin, or salt of gold, for the treatment of three patients. It is to be administered with a serum.

Where Eight Met Death

Firemen hunting through the ruins of the fire which destroyed a double apartment building in the heart of Chicago's university district, taking eight lives. Thirty-four housekeeping suites in the four-story brick structure were reduced to ashes.

Mine Bites at Building

Citizens of Halleyville, Okla., were thrown into a panic when the Y. M. C. A. dropped three feet on its foundations into a tunnel of the abandoned Halley-Okla. mine. The building is being saved by props.

Shark Is Death Clue

Hair believed that of Amalia Rivas, Cuban actress, was discovered in the body of a monster shark captured near Tampico harbor by Fred Van Doren, fisherman. Miss Rivas was on the Ward Line steamer Esperanza when it sank near the harbor in March, 1924. Her body was not recovered. The shark is 1 meter 80 centimeters long.

This is Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg, wife of the newly appointed secretary of state. Washington society eagerly is anticipating her return to the capital.

James Newton Owens is just eight. But he's a sophomore in high school at Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, Okla. He is studying Caesar and Greek, reads Spanish fluently and works mathematical problems that stump most of the seniors.