Attorney B. H. Dunham, of Omaha, is in the city today looking after legal matters at the court house.

L. C. Peters arrived home last Thursday from a two months' visit with his mother and sister in Omaha.

A daughter was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barrett, at St. Joseph's hospital in Sioux City, Iowa.

P. C. Donohoe came home today from Bassett where he has been looking after business for a couple of days.

George Savidge, manager of the Hanford Produce Co., was in Sioux City a couple of days this week on business.

Mrs. J. P. Gilligan went to Tekamah, Nebraska, this (Thursday) morning for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ed Latta.

Carl Holz, of Ewing, was transacting business in O'Neill today. The Frontier acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Holz.

James Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker, residing northeast of O'Neill, has been confined to his home with a case of chickenpox.

Senator John A. Robertson came up from Lincoln last Thursday and remained at home until Tuesday looking after business at the ranch.

Judge R. R. Dickson and Reporter C. B. Scott went over to Butte last Monday where they are holding court this week.

Miss Viola Hough returned to Omaha Monday after spending the week-end with relatives and friends in this city.

The spring golf season was formally opened by Clyde King and Paddy O'Donnell Tuesday afternoon, and a number of players were on the course Wednesday. The grounds are in excellent condition.

The school board, at the regular meeting last Friday night, re-elected all the present teachers for the ensuing year. The Frontier has not been informed as to the number of those elected that will accept contracts for next year.

O. L. West, of Norfolk, formerly of the eastern part of the county, was in O'Neill last Saturday looking after business matters.

Farmers are coming to O'Neill from all parts of the county and report that the roads are exceptionally good all over the county. The roads are being dragged.

John A. Robertson was taken sick after returning to Lincoln Wednesday, and has been unable to be in his seat in the senate during the past couple of days.

Frank Youngkin, of the Purcell Produce Company, went to Crawford, Monday where he will spend a few days assisting in the starting of the new produce station at that point.

John Kersensbrock says that some one has been taking gas from his truck and driving it at night. Jack inferred that someone would get into trouble if they continued the practice.

The new three-hundred horse power Diesel type engine was placed in the light plant the first of the week, and is being connected up preparatory for use.

Attorney J. A. Donohoe and J. B. Mellor drove over to Butte, Monday. Mr. Donohoe was looking after matters before the court which was in session.

E. N. Purcell returned home the first of the week from a ten days trip to the new Purcell Produce station at Crawford and a few days visit at Casper, Wyoming.

Mrs. Albert Lewis from Butte, Montana, is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clevisch, who have been on the sick list, and with other relatives in the city.

Miss Nell Flaherty, of Fullerton, Nebraska, who has been staying at the home of her brother, D. A. Flaherty since the death of Mrs. Flaherty, returned to her home today accompanied by the children and will care for the children at her home near Fullerton.

Carl Goeke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goeke, residing about eight miles northwest of O'Neill, brought down a large hawk eagle with his favorite shot gun last Tuesday. The bird was perched near the outbuilding when the young man discovered its presence. The wings of the bird measured seven and one-half feet from tip to tip.

Sunday was the first day of March. It was more important however as the second anniversary of a most stirring event. On that day two years ago, Ira Moss, assisted by Herb Hammond, went down to Mud bridge and caught a four pound bass. They didn't repeat last Sunday however, owing to the inclement weather.

H. W. Starlin, of Whitten, South Dakota, has traded for the Hayden garage on west Douglas street and will take possession as soon as the transfers are completed. Mr. Starlin has been in the city this week closing up the details for the trade. Mr. Hayden, we understand, will receive some farm land as part of the consideration in the trade, and will operate the farm personally.

Mrs. J. M. Hunter came home from Lincoln, Nebraska, today, accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, of Montana. Mrs. J. M. Hunter has been in Lincoln with her husband during a part of the present session of the legislature. She has spent the past few weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Williams, at Tipton, Iowa, whose husband died several weeks ago.

A number of complaints have come to us in regard to the stray dogs that are running the streets day after day. There was a dog ordinance that was operative within the city a few years ago and perhaps this ordinance might be used again to a good advantage. While we are speaking about dogs we will add that there are also a few dogs that have been chasing children, that should be looked after more closely.

The business streets and many of the homes were decorated with the uniform flag decoration Tuesday in honor of the inauguration of Calvin Coolidge as president of the United States. The inaugural ceremony took place at high noon Eastern time or at eleven o'clock our time, and was administered by Chief Justice Wm. H. Taft. All owners of radio receiving sets were listening-in and many entertained large gatherings. The reception was good and the president could be distinctly heard throughout the entire address which occupied about forty minutes.

The O'Neill high school basket ball boys went to Norfolk this morning and will take part in the tournament this evening. Their first contest will be with the Plainview boys. The boys are under the supervision of Coach W. R. Riddlesbarger and are in good form. LATER: The boys were defeated this evening by the Plainview team 10 to 14. The O'Neill boys were in the lead 10 to 6 near the close of the game, but unfortunately the Plainview lads enjoyed a "streak of luck" and passed the O'Neill team just before the close of the last half.

20 Per Cent Discount Sale

To Our Friends and Patrons

Beginning March 1st, we will give a 20 per cent Discount on the following articles on the day as indicated. This is not a money raising sale, or a fire, or a going out of business sale; but is put on for the benefit of my patrons who have been so kind as to give me their patronage. I believe I have given full value for each dollar spent with me, yet I know of no other way to show my appreciation for what you are doing for me than to run for one month according to the following plan:

March 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

We will sell Shoes, Overcoats, Odd Pants and Percales.

March 3, 10, 17, 24, 31

We will sell Sheep-Lined Coats, Outings, Blankets, Leather Coats and Sateens.

March 4, 11, 18, 25

We will sell Gingham, Silks and Woolen Yardage, Work and Dress Shirts.

March 5, 12, 19, 26

We will sell Trunks, Grips, Muslin, Hosiery, Overshoes and Rubbers.

March 6, 13, 20, 27

We will sell Sweaters, Men's and Boys' Suits, Overalls, Jackets, Ladies' and Children's Dresses, Table Linen.

On these days, and none others, will a 20 per cent discount be given. We want your trade and will give you every cent of value we can, but do not ask us to change these rules. You can get in on the discount by coming once a week on the right days; so it won't be my fault if you do not get the Discount.
