Back From the Market

Dear Friend:

Just when you are beginning to turn over in your mind the annual problem of next season's wardrobe—along comes this timely announcement of our spring exposition of new and wanted fabrics, coats, dresses and other things that are new and desirable.

Our recent trip to market revealed a wealth of beauty and richness, and we were tempted to indulge our tastes extravagantly.

Silks, flannels, and other wash fabrics have presented themselves in such interesting variety this season, one pilgrimage to piece goods markets inspires the creation of a host of delightfully chic garments.

Figured materials—printed crepes and other novelties—are smartly new, stripes—have gained in favor, the plain weaves, of course hold their own, a splendid assortment of lingerie fabrics, ginghams, percales, chambrays, chintz, as well as all kinds of white material and draperie for household uses—are numbered among our new acquisition.

Here you will find a festival of desirable new things that are just out of the master designers' hands. Our spring line of Ladies' coats and dresses, in the new spring colors are most charming, muslins undergarments, underwear, sweaters, hosiery, and other novelties as well as all the new patterns in shoes, that all goes to make this season most cheerful.

And, by the way, the interesting part of this presentation is contained in the fact that—in spite of the charm and excellence of this season's yardage, and ready made garments, there is a price to suit every purse.

You are invited to inspect these fashions of tomorrow which we gathered especially for you. Do not delay in coming to see them. First, choice, you know, is best choice.

Sincerely Yours,

Anton Toy

C. P. Siders was in the city on business Wednesday. Charley has been confined pretty close to his home all winter on account of the weather and the care of a bunch of cattle he has been feeding.

Allyn H. Pruyn, residing in the northern part of the county was placed under a peace bond in Judge Campbell's court last Monday, on complaint of W. E. VanHorn who also live in the same part of the county.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tesche, residing northwest of O'Neill, is recovering from strychnine poisoning. The little one, we understand, ate some of the pills not knowing what they were.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Walmer, Jr., of Orchard. Mr. Walmer will be remembered as the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walmer, who were residents here for a number of years, before moving to Orchard.

James Trigg received a letter a few days ago from a John Trigg, at Roseland, B. C., who thought the he might be a relative. The Canadian gentleman saw "Slivers" picture in a daily paper and also read the account of his part in the famous Chicago fire.

The gentlemen members of the Presbyterian congregation entertained the ladies at a seven o'clock dinner consisting of corned beef and cabbage, in the church basement Tuesday evening. The men prepared the meal and served it in a real nifty manner. Following the dinner a congregational meeting was held at which time R. R. Dickson and E. D. Henry were re-elected trustees for a period of three years. R. M. Sauer was re-elected church treasurer and Dr. A. H. Corbett was re-elected secretary of the church board for the coming year.
