Another 'Bull' Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld follies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION A LA CARTE

Order Any Amendment You Want

THEY are trying to pass an amendment to keep children from working. Now children didn't want to work, but they got tired waiting for somebody else to do it. If they would just put through an amendment to MAKE grown people all work, there would be no need to have this children one. Grown people stopped working without an Amendment or even a reason, so it will take more than an Amendment to start them. It will take a Miracle.

They are going to pass another Prohibition Amendment, somebody mislaid the rules of the other one. The 19th amendment made Women vote, some amendments make us do something and some keep us from it. No. 21 will give men with Knee Breeches the vote. About the 25th Amendment will prohibit smoking and when they do, 'Bull' Durham will bootleg for a dollar a sack. (I know I would get that Ad worked in there somewhere.)

T. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

MORE OF EVERYTHING for a lot less money. That's the net of this 'Bull' Durham proposition. More flavor—more enjoyment and a lot more money left in the bankroll at the end of a week's smoking.

PRESTON RICHARDSON.

Preston Richardson, aged seventy-three years, died at his home at Inman, at five o'clock this morning. The deceased was born in South Carolina. He came to Inman in 1910 from Plainview, Nebraska. He leaves a wife and four sons in or near Inman. Funeral services will be held at Inman Saturday afternoon at two o'clock; burial will be in the Inman cemetery.

WILLIAM JOMAH GRAY.

William Jomah Gray died at his home three miles northwest of this city at 8:35 o'clock Wednesday evening following an illness of one week with bronco pneumonia. Mr. Gray was about seventy-two years of age. He leaves a wife and a large circle of friends to mourn his death. Funeral services will be held Sunday but the exact time is not known as we go to press. Further notice will be given next week.

GEORGE KEYES.

George Keyes died at his home about four miles southwest of Inman, Nebraska, Wednesday evening following a number of years of illness. He was about fifty years of age. Mr. Keyes operated the hotel in Inman for a number of years, disposing of the property about ten years ago on account of ill health. A son, Leslie Keyes, of New York City, and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Jenkins, of Mt. Ranier, Maryland, arrived at Inman Wednesday morning and were with their father when the end came. Another daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Kilmer, of Mt. Ranier, will not be here for the funeral. She spent several months here last year. The funeral services will be held from the home Friday afternoon at two p. m. Rev. Kerber, of Osmond, officiating.

FRANK TENBORG.

Frank Tenborg died at the home of his son, Clarence, near Emmet, last Monday.

Mr. Tenborg was born in Stockholm, Sweden, August 20, 1835. For fifteen years of his early life he was a sailor; after coming to America he sailed for a time upon Lake Erie. After leaving the sea he resided in New York. In the year 1868 he emigrated to Wyoming where he made his home for two years, going from there to Saunders county, Nebraska, and to Holt county in 1883 where he located upon a homestead north of Emmet where he has since resided. He was the father of eight children, four of whom are living; they are Fred, Will and Clarence Tenborg and Mrs. Minnie Embody, all of whom reside in Emmet or vicinity. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock from the home of Clarence Tenborg, conducted by Rev. Vahle, of Atkinson, and interment was made in the Atkinson cemetery.

MRS. GEORGE CLYDE.

Mrs. George Clyde died at her home in O'Neill, Nebraska, at 6:30 p. m., March 20, 1925, at the age of forty-nine years, eight months and sixteen days after a long and serious illness. Clara May Brassfield was born July 4, 1875, at Sargents Bluffs, Iowa. She was united in wedlock to George S. Clyde in Sioux City, Iowa, July 19, 1893. Five children were born to this union, Mrs. Mabel Ouass, of Ashland; Joe N. Clyde, who rests in the American Cemetery in France; Mrs. Vera Hough, Mrs. Erma Lewis and Miss Oyma Clyde, of O'Neill, Nebraska.

braska. She came to Holt county with her husband in September, 1902, where they resided on their homestead north of O'Neill until the fall of 1918, and at that time they moved to O'Neill. Mrs. Clyde was a member of the M. E. Church, but was unable to take an active part in the church work on account of ill health, although she led a true Christian life. She was also a member of the Rebekah Lodge, the W. C. T. U., and the American Legion Auxiliary. She is bereaved by her husband, father, four daughters, six grandchildren and one brother, besides many other relatives and a host of friends.

KIRWAN'S GOOD BAD-EGGS.

(By Holt County's Poet Laureate.)
Have you heard about Mike and his bad-egg bait
That's so wonderfully tempting,
That the fish can't wait?
And how, when you use it, on reaching the shore,
They flop 'round on the bank just looking for more?

These are not eggs which were anciently laid.
What you get from Mike are all hand made,
And worthy the pittance he asks in gold;
They're the best bad eggs that ever was sold.

Now Mike has faith in his bad-egg ware,
And you can not blame him for giving it air;
But he should be careful to specify,
That all but pickerel and bass pass by.

Why! The bass comes up with a cheerful grin
And immediately take the bad-egg in,
Then prances off like he had something good
Never suspecting Mike made it of wood.

OPPORTUNITY NEWS.

Jack McKim, who was ill for several days, is able to be around again.

Jim McKim, of Oakdale, Nebraska, has been visiting his brother, L. C., and Jack, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grenier and daughter, Dolores, were Sunday guests of Bert Powell and family. Oscar Dixon gave his first barn dance of the season last Saturday night; a large crowd was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cassell gave a card and dancing party at their home last Friday night. About fifteen people were present and enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. Roy Clark, who has been very ill, of flu and pneumonia, for the last two weeks, is improving rapidly. The three little Clark girls, who were sick, are well again.

Mrs. Frank Oberle and Mrs. Bert L. Powell attended the Speaking Contest at the High School last Friday night. Miss Velda Oberle and Miss Bernice Brentson, niece of Mrs. Powell, were among the speakers.

WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES.

The programs of the different departments in the Woman's Club have been unusually interesting and instructive during the month of March. The study of Hamlet in the Department of Literature more than satisfactory, in that it was not only a study of the play itself, but was entered into by nearly all the members, and discussed freely. Mrs. Templeton was leader. The Review was given by Mrs. Willis Barker, was a wonderful example of what a real review should be, clear and concise. The discussion was led by Mrs. James J. Harrington and Mrs. William J. Biglin, both of whom showed much study and research, of the play, the story and the characters. Nearly all present took part in the discussion, and it is a matter of regret that more members were not present.

The art subject, A Reading from Homer—Alma Tadema, was discussed by Miriam Gilligan, and was exceedingly interesting.

The program on Interior decoration in the Department of Home Economics, was, like all the programs of that department, greatly enjoyed, and was most profitable to Homekeepers. Mrs. Timlin was leader, and the following program was carried out: Floor coverings, Mrs. Wise. Care of oak floors; Mrs. Cowperthwaite. Care of Pine Floors, Mrs. McDonough. Walls and Windows, Mrs. Malone. Each of these ladies showed themselves thoroughly conversant with their subjects, and presented them in a most practical manner to their hearers.

In the Music Department, the two forms of music to be studied were The Sonata, and the Mazurka. Mrs. Ryan was leader. The Sonata Pathétique was taken up and discussed by Mrs. Brennan, who played the Adagio Movement in her own charming way. The Mazurka was demonstrated by Mrs. Reardon; she played Godard's Second Mazurka, to the delight of her audience. To add to the pleasure of the program, Miss Agnes Carr sang, "The Gypsy Trail," which was well received. Miss Carr has a very charming voice, and it is always a pleasure to hear her sing.

STATE SENATE.

Lincoln, Neb., March 24, 1925. The Senate committee on Highways, Bridges and Ferries have changed the House bills on the gasoline tax and automobile license so the counties will get 70 per cent of all the automobile license money paid in the counties, to be used on the country roads, not state and federal aid highways, and the Department of Public Works gets 30 per cent, and with this 30 per cent, and if this is not sufficient, a small part of the gasoline tax, they must maintain all the state and federal aid roads in this state and relieve the county boards of this maintenance. The gasoline tax all goes to the Department of Public Works and will be used to meet federal aid and will all be apportioned back to the counties on the same basis as such funds are now apportioned and will be used to finish the construction of the system of highways now laid out. A part will be used to pay the cost of administration.

It is not generally understood how large an amount the automobile tax is, but it amounts to about $4,000,000.00 each year in this state, and if 70 per cent of this is used on the mail and market roads leading up to the several towns in every county, it ought to give us a good foundation for some real road benefit. When these bills pass the Senate they will have to go back to the House for their consideration and approval and I can't tell yet what will happen. And other changes may be made by the House or a conference committee. The bill to reduce automobile licenses has not been considered in the Senate yet, and with 70 per cent of this money coming back to be used on the farm to market roads, there probably will be no reduction in the license fee.

SPECIAL DISPLAY WEEK FOR FORDS AND TRACTORS

The special display of Ford cars and trucks and Fordson Tractors being held this week by The J. B. Mellor Motor Company, is attracting much attention from both residents of cities and those living nearby.

The week has been set aside by the Omaha Branch of the Ford Motor Company for a complete showing of Ford products throughout the entire branch territory and dealers everywhere are participating.

Ford cars on display include both open and closed types and women especially have been enthusiastic in their comments on the closed cars. A feature of the week among these looking at passenger cars has been the interest manifest in the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Business men and farmers have been attracted to the display by the showing of Ford trucks and the new body equipment which the Ford Motor Company is now providing. In addition to the popular all-steel express type body with its screen sides and canopy top. The Company is now offering a stake body which may easily be converted into a platform of good proportions. Provisions also are made for use of cattle and grain sides so that it fills many requirements. The Fordson, first introduced as a farm implement, is now filling many industrial power requirements when used with special equipment and contractors, road builders and manufacturers are finding new uses for it right along. The special display will continue over Saturday and The Mellor Motor Company's show rooms will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

The High School Declamatory Contest was held Friday, March 20th. About two hundred were present, and from all reports, they enjoyed the program fully.

Eli Abdouch, Harold Hough, Richard Morrison and Cyril Hirsch were entered in the extemporaneous division; this was won by Richard Morrison, Eli Abdouch being second. In the Oratorical class, Harold Hough was first, and Edith Sexsmith second. In the Dramatical division, Elsie Longstaff won first place and Marguerite Hough second.

In the Humorous division, Ardis Downey and Ruth Scott tied for first; the two contestants drew for the honor of representing the school in the Elimination Contest April 3rd, and Ardis Downey won this honor.

The judges of the contest were County Superintendent, Anna Donohoe, Sister Etheldretta and Clifford Scott. The work done by the contestants was very good and in some classes very close decisions were necessary. Much of the success of the contest and the splendid work done by contestants is due to Iola Purcell, who assisted in coaching and in the selection of readings for the contestants.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

At the High School Inter-Class Track meet last Friday, the Juniors and Seniors won the highest score, and thereby a party from the Freshmen and Sophomores. We expect to enjoy this party hugely, as it is at the under-classes' expense.

Helen Walters is back to school again after a week's absence on account of sickness.

Donald Alderson was absent from school Monday morning.

The Physiology class spent a period Wednesday drawing skeletons. Martha Lawrence and Edith Sexsmith had the best arranged drawings.

Eight Grade. The Eighth grade has taken up

Bookkeeping, Composition, Civics, Geography and Reading and will drill on them for the May examinations. The class devoted considerable time Monday to their Palmer drills. Tuesday the class visited court in connection with their civics. Violet Strube led in the geography drill Wednesday. Sixth Grade. Glen Morton was absent Wednesday. The Sixth grade have been taking their physical training exercises out of doors these nice days. The Sixth grade boys have organized a base ball team and practice has begun on the lot adjoining the playground. Fifth Grade. Kenneth Carson and Fred Calkins are absent from school this week. The Fifth grade boys going to make booklets of the leaves they pressed last fall. Two new pupils entered the Fifth grade Monday: Marcella Meyers and Leona Druke.

What Woman Would Throw Pearls Away?

of course, no woman would throw away a perfectly good rope of pearls.

But many women throw away something more priceless than pearls when they squander their beauty, their time, and their health doing the family washing.

It not only coarsens a woman's hands, but it wastes a day every week, and it is a steady drain on her energies. If women were meant for such heavy labor, there would be woman blacksmiths and stokers, for even these tasks burn up no more energy than a hard day's work at the tub.

Save the pearls of beauty time and health by telephoning us to call for your weekly bundle. We will do all the washing and part or all of the ironing.
