GATZ-MORTON.

Edward E. Gatz and Mabel Helen Morton were married at Springview, Nebraska, last Monday, by Rev. W. H. Merrill, pastor of the Methodist church of that city. They returned to O'Neill Monday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morton of this city and is well known. Until a few weeks ago she clerked in the P. J. McManus store and is a young lady of many accomplishments.

Edward is also well known throughout this part of the county where he has lived for many years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gatz, among the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the community. He has been the drug clerk in the Stout drug store for a number of years and is a prosperous and energetic young man.

The Frontier wishes a long and prosperous journey through life for the newly wedded couple.

BROWN-CLARK.

The following account of the marriage of "Pat" Brown, of Broken Bow, Nebraska, formerly a resident of this city, appeared in the April 24th issue of the True Voice:

"The marriage of Miss Ann Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Clarke of this city, and Mr. Cyril F. Brown, son of J. B. Brown, took place at St. Joseph Catholic church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

"Father Constant Klein, pastor, officiated in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

"The bride was attended by her friend, Miss Mary Condon, of Kansas City, and Hugh G. Clarke, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man.

"The bride was attired in a silk suit of henna and large hat to match. Her attending maid wore a French crepe dress with Georgette coat.

"The groom and his attendant wore navy blue.

"After the ceremony a three-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The table was beautifully decorated in Easter lilies and jonquils. The color scheme was carried out on the cake and place cards, which were colored Easter eggs with the name of the guests on each egg.

"Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip in the eastern part of the state. They will be home to their friends in Broken Bow May 1.

THOS. TOMJACK.

(Ewing Advocate, April 24.)
Thos. Tomjack was born in Poland, March 5, 1842, and died at Ewing, Nebraska, Friday, April 17, 1925, aged 83 years, 1 month and 12 days.

Deceased came to this country when about thirty years of age, and after living in Illinois for about fifteen years, he moved to Nebraska, where he resided up until the time of his death.

ARCHIBALD HARVEY JOHNSTON

(Ewing Advocate.)
Archibald Harvey Johnston was born December 11, 1844, near Morning Sun, Preble County, Ohio, and died April 18, 1925, at the age of 80 years, 4 months and 7 days.

When a small boy, he came overland with his parents to Iowa and settled on a farm near the town of Morning Sun.

He was married February 6, 1873, to Elizabeth Emmiline Herron. They moved to a farm in Des Moines county and continued farming until he moved with his family to Nebraska and settled on a farm four miles southeast of Ewing March 1, 1892. In 1907, he removed to Neligh, where he remained for two years but returned to the farm March 1, 1909. Two years later, March 1, 1911, the family returned to Neligh for a residence of eight years. On October 27, 1919, he came to Ewing and spent the last days of his life in the church of his choice.

To this union in marriage were born nine children, five of whom are still living: Elwell, Elma Browning, Kersey, Harry and Angie Houdeshell, and three daughters: Pearl, Carrie and Essie, and one son, Alva Bertram, dead; twenty-two grand-children and one great grand-child living, and two grand-children and one great grand-child dead.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This O'Neill Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dull spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This O'Neill case is one of many.

Mrs. M. D. Murphy, says: "I was so lame I couldn't straighten up and at night I was restless and unable to sleep. Mornings I got up feeling all tired out and miserable. I had known of Doan's Pills doing good for others and this led me to try them. I got a box at Stout's Drug Store and I felt much better after using them. I believed Doan's to be the best kidney remedy of all."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same Mrs. Murphy had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
