

Ask Your Banker

Whatever your financial problems large or small; whatever the question that's puzzling you—ask your banker for his advice for it's worth having.

Every day, it is our pleasure to advise with our depositors and friends regarding the disposition of their money and the wisdom or fallacy of investments which come to their notice.

Let us also have the opportunity to assist you. Call in today.

The Nebraska State Bank

John P. Mann came last week from Chicago for a visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Morey, of Page, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Templeton today.

Rev. George Longstaff delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the Class of 1925, Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church.

The fire department were called to the Frank Valla barn to extinguish a small blaze today. No particular damage was done.

J. C. Harnish went to York, Nebraska, the first of the week where he attended a meeting of the Home Board of the I. O. O. F. Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Downey and son Gerald, will leave here Friday morning by auto for a ten days trip through the Black Hills and Bad Lands of South Dakota.

Lawrence Malone arrived home from Washington, D. C., last Saturday, for a visit with his wife and children. Lawrence has finished his law course and will go to Lincoln in June to take the state bar examination.

Charles Schroeder, G. H. Jones, George Urlaub, Gerald Miles and C. W. Conklin drove up to Ainsworth last Sunday where they attended a conference relative to handle the financial drive to be launched by the American Legion.

Mrs. J. J. Schwitzer returned to her home at Milford, Nebraska, Wednesday morning. Mrs. Schwitzer came here about six weeks ago for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Allen, and to regain her health, which is now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, who have been visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Purcell, for the past month, went to Crawford Friday night, where they will have charge of the Purcell Produce Company in that city.

The Sojka Brothers, who reside on the Fred Limmerman farm in the eastern part of the county, were looking after business matters in O'Neill Wednesday. They will read The Frontier during the coming year and thus keep posted as to the doing of the county.

The Cadillac coach driven by Mrs. Arthur Mullen, of Omaha, was struck by another car at 36 and Dodge streets in Omaha, last Sunday, and overturned. Mrs. F. J. Despecher, who was riding with Mrs. Mullen received serious injuries. Mrs. Mullen received a number of bruises.

Miss Maude Gillespie came down from Rushville, Nebraska, Tuesday morning to attend the graduation exercises of her niece, Miss Eleanor Gillespie. Miss Maude went to Ainsworth Wednesday morning where she will attend the graduation exercises of a nephew, Gale Whitney.

The Walter Savidge Amusement Company will be in O'Neill the week beginning June 1st, with their carnival and tent theatre. Walter makes O'Neill regularly and always enjoys a good patronage, especially at the tent theatre where he never fails to have a good cast and a good line of plays.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Ahn returned from Ainsworth, Neb., on Tuesday of last week, where they have been visiting for the past five weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Brown and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ahn expect to start for Adell, Iowa, in a few days where they will spend several months visiting with brothers and sisters and other relatives. They will visit a short time in Clearwater, enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sauers and niece, Miss Loree Planck, leave today for a visit at the home of Mrs. C. H. Planck, mother of Mrs. Sauers, at Long Beach, California. They will stop for a visit with relatives at Los Animos, Colorado, and will visit at other points in California. Mr. Sauers will be absent for about five weeks while Mrs. Sauers and Miss Loree may remain for a longer period.

The members of the choir accompanied by their husbands or wives, entertained at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Longstaff, last Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Elsie Longstaff, a member of the choir who will soon leave for Hansen, Nebraska. Miss Elsie was presented with a number of beautiful and useful presents, one of the number being a traveling bag.

The weather assumes regular summer heat here Wednesday and Thursday; the thermometer registering around 96.

FORMAL OPENING OF THE O'NEILL COUNTRY CLUB HELD WEDNESDAY EVENING

The formal opening of the Country Club occurred Wednesday evening. The Manrose orchestra furnished the music. A large attendance of members and invited guests was present and enjoyed dancing until a late hour. The club announces June 14th as the opening date for the Fourth annual invitation tournament. Delegations from all the clubs in North Nebraska as well as Omaha and Sioux City are expected to be present and participate in the play. An extensive list of very classy prizes is being offered for the various events. The McDonald Ten Piece orchestra has been engaged for the dance.

CONGRESSMAN SIMMONS HERE JUNE FIRST

Congressman Robert G. Simmons will spend June 1st at the court house in this city, at which time he will be pleased to meet and discuss any matter of interest with the people of this district. Congressman Simmons is making all possible effort to serve the people of the big Sixth.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY WAS WELL PRESENTED

The Class Play "Come Out of the Kitchen" was presented by the seniors of the O'Neill Public School at the K. C. theatre last Thursday evening to a crowded house. Each member of the cast did their part in a pleasing manner. Much credit is due Miss Kathleen Roskoff who instructed and managed the presentation of the play.

ROSS E. HARRIS WILL OPEN GROCERY AND MARKET IN THE SCOTT BUILDING

Ross E. Harris, of Emmet, has purchased the fixtures of the Henry Bay stock and will open an up-to-date grocery and meat market in the room in the Scott Building recently occupied by Henry Bay. The opening will be held early in June. Mr. Harris is now conducting a store in Emmet. He is thoroughly familiar with

Both Are Necessary

Our relations to you are mutual and co-operative. We help you and you help us, and this in turn helps the community in which we live.

The O'Neill National Bank

the mercantile business and is well qualified to give O'Neill another first-class store.

The members of the American Legion enjoyed a "weenie feed" in the K. C. lodge room last Monday evening. The members were assembled for the purpose of perfecting plans for the big drive.

Mrs. John Walmer, of Orchard, attended the commencement exercises here Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Smith, of Ewing, and grandson, Avery Jones and Mrs. Jones and two children, of Laurel, Nebraska, drove up from Ewing today for a short visit at the E. D. Henry home.

LOCAL NEWS.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Roberge, of Page, Wednesday.

Frank Holopeter received a badly sprained ankle when a horse fell upon him last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell are in Omaha. J. F. is serving on the federal grandjury.

Mrs. Charles Shay, of Norfolk, came last Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Purcell.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Dugan, residing about five miles north of the city, last Tuesday.

Henry Bay went to Omaha last Saturday, where he will visit his daughter, Miss Edna, and son, Elmer.

A marriage license was issued on May 16th, to George William Blackburn and Clare Helen Davis, both of Atkinson.

Frank Youngkin came home last Sunday from Crawford where he has been located for the past month looking after the business of the Purcell Produce Company.

E. W. Lawn, a relief agent of the C. & N. W. arrived last night and is in charge of the depot during the absence of R. M. Sauers who leaves today for California.

County Judge C. J. Malone performed the ceremony last Saturday that united Earl Canaday and Miss Dora Finch, for life. The contracting parties are from Venus.

Heavy rains the latter part of last week caused the Elkhorn river to assume flood stages. Saturday and Sunday, the low lands along the river were under water. The river is now within her banks and the fisherman are again angling along the stream.

Miss Pearl Burge fell, while playing at her home in the southwest part of the city last Saturday, and sustained a green break of her right arm.

Monday was sneak day in the O'Neill high school for all the classes except the freshmen, who were unable to secure a conveyance to take them to the picnic grounds over on the Eagle.

Mrs. W. J. Coleman and two children came down from Valentine Wednesday of last week to attend the commencement exercises and to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. C. E. Downey.

Miss Elizabeth Graves entertained a number of her young friends at a party Tuesday afternoon from 3:00 until 5:00 o'clock. The occasion was her fifth birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served.

The Holt county fair dates for this year are September 22, 23, 24 and 25. The Frontier is printing the fair book. The fair this year should be bigger and better than ever. Now is the time to begin to plan your exhibit.

A residence on the Chrystal ranch on Oak creek, about twenty-five miles northwest of this city, was destroyed by fire last Saturday. John McNulty, the proprietor of the ranch, was batching and had started a fire preparatory to getting dinner. He, with other men employed on the farm were at the barn when the house was discovered to be in flames.

J. F. Morey, of Page, and Howard Graham, of Radolph, drove up to Cottonwood lake on a fishing trip last Tuesday, but when they arrived at the lake they discovered that the pickerel froze out last winter; they went down to Swan lake and on to Dimnick lake, but were unable to do much fishing on account of the high wind that was blowing. They came home that night with ten large bullheads.

AUCTION!

There will be an AUCTION of Second-Hand Goods at what was formerly

THE SECOND-HAND STORE IN O'NEILL ON SATURDAY, MAY 23

There is lots of articles of value. This is a Clan-Up Sale.

Sale starts at 3:00 o'clock. Terms Cash.

GEO. E. BOWEN

27-inch Shirting Regular Price 26c On Sale at 16c

A Few of the Specials

27-inch Gingham Regular Price 23c On Sale at 13c

- 32-inch Ginghams Regular Price 32c—Sale Price 23c
- 36-inch Percales, lgts. Regular Price 25c—Sale Price 19c
- 36-inch Light Outing Flannels, Regular Price 32c—Sale Price 21c
- 36-inch Percales, Darks Regular Price 22c—Sale Price 16c
- 36-inch Black Sateen Regular Price 55c—Sale Price 40c
- Men's Work Shoes Regular Price $3.00—Sale Price $2.43
- Men's 220 Overalls Regular Price $2.00—Sale Price $1.68
- Boys' 220 Overalls Regular Price $1.65—Sale Price $1.39

These are just a few of our specials as our entire stock must go consisting of men's, ladies' and children's hose, men's dress shirts, men's and boys' work shirts, boys' school or work shoes, men's work gloves, ladies' and children's underwear, muslins, gingham, towings, rubber foot wear, tennis shoes, etc. There will be exceptional offers in our grocery department every day during this sale. Just come in, it will mean dollars to you.

Men's Work Shoes Reg. Price $4.25 On Sale at $3.19

Ross E. Harris

Emmet, Nebraska

Men's Summer Underwear Reg. Price $1.00 On Sale at 3 Suits for $2.00