M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

"Greatest set of pictures ever brought to town." This is the verdict of many who have expressed themselves. People are beginning to realize what a treat they are having in looking at Sacred Art.

Friday night a children and young peoples chorus will present a pageant, the American Flag drill set to music. Over one hundred children were at practice on Friday afternoon.

Local talent will sing a song to fifteen colored views—"I Gave My Life For Thee."

Dr. Benedict will present the Passion Play pictures. The great picture, "Rubens Decent From The Cross" will please the most exacting. This picture is in the great art gallery in Antwerp Belgium and is one of the world's seven greatest pictures.

Sunday morning at 10:00 a. m. Dr. Benedict will relate his Christian experience and will be helpful to High School students. Mrs. Benedict will sing a solo with harp accompaniment. Sunday night Dr. Benedict will give his lecture—"The Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus Christ."

Ralph Baker will sing the "Holy City" to twelve beautiful colored views.

A solid silver Abraham Lincoln fruit dish will be presented to the audience for inspection. This dish came to Dr. Benedict from the Herndon family. Hon. Will Herndon was Abraham Lincoln's law partner at the time of his death, and had the disposition of his estate. This dish came into possession of Dr. Benedict directly from the lady who married one of the Herndons.

Dr. Benedict has with him water from the River Jordan. Those who wish Christian Baptism will be privileged to have baptism administered from the Lincoln Fruit dish and water from the river of historic fame.

NEBRASKA TO DO ITS PART FOR WORLD WAR ORPHANS NEXT WEEK

Every Community Expected To Raise Its Share of American Legion Endowment Fund—Governor McMullen and General Pershing Make Appeals.

General John J. Pershing handing his endorsement of The American Legion Endowment Fund to Gilbert Polk Shockey, age 8, of Lincoln, Neb., whose father died in the world war.

GOVERNOR ADAM McMULLEN, Executive Chairman of the Nebraska State Committee of the American Legion Endowment Fund now being raised to cure and assist disabled veterans and to care for the orphans of former service men.

This community is expected to do its part in raising Nebraska's share of the American Legion Endowment Fund, the income of which will be used to cure and assist disabled war veterans and to provide good homes for the dependent orphans of former service men.

The work of organizing for the intensive campaign in this state to collect the money is going forward rapidly under the active leadership of Governor Adam McMullen, chairman of the state committee of the endowment fund. The actual subscription of funds takes place next week, May 25 to 30.

In naming prominent leaders to work in conjunction with Legion officials, Governor McMullen declared Nebraskans want to see "this job done promptly and effectively."

General Pershing also has made an appeal to every community of Nebraska to aid in carrying the endowment fund to success.

"Nebraska's part in this campaign will, I hope, be taken up in the same fine spirit that was manifest in the various drives during the war," General Pershing said. "Then the state stood high in her per capita subscription toward winning the war."

"We face no less responsibility today," he continued, "in taking care of the 35,000 or more orphans of ex-service men and in helping the men who came back maimed for life."

"It is the cooperation of the American Legion with the government that necessitates the use of funds to provide adequate care for the disabled." Nebraska's share of the endowment fund is $50,000.

"Not a cent of the principal will be touched," General Pershing explained. "The interest will insure a perpetual fund for the care of those who suffered for our freedom. I sincerely hope that the state of Nebraska will respond to the appeal of the American Legion and quickly subscribe its quota."

Governor McMullen, in accepting the chairmanship, pointed to his state's record of notable achievements in every great and patriotic endeavor.
