

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUMN XLVI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1925.

NO. 1.

It is a Pleasure to Announce that we are carrying the WHITING-COOK
—line of—
FINE STATIONERY
advertised in vogue

STATIONERY should be more than just a surface for carrying the ink of your message. It should be by tint, shape and quality a reflection of yourself. It should convey to the recipient of your letter a definite impression of your character and individuality.

WON'T you do us the favor of dropping in to see our choice display of this fashionable stationery?

The Bunalow Gift Shop
Novel and Exclusive Gifts
For All Occasions.

LOCAL NEWS.

Ed Donohue spent Sunday with his children at the Margaret Brennan home.

The O'Neill ball team played Lynch at Lynch last Sunday and were defeated 30 to 9. 'Nuff said.

Rain Collector Harry Bowen reports that .34 of an inch of rain fell here Tuesday, and .04 on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Donohoe drove to Petersburg Saturday and spent Sunday at the Art Duffy home.

Mrs. E. E. Reed and family, of South Sioux City, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Welsh this week.

John Berger came home from Omaha and Norfolk Monday where he had been in consultation in regard to his health.

S. F. McNichols and Joe McNichols drove to Valentine, Thursday for a visit with the former's sister. They returned home Monday.

Miss May Keys and Mrs. L. F. Curtis came home from Norfolk Monday where they spent the week-end with Mrs. M. O. Finley.

Miss Edna Harnish has accepted a position in the office of the county treasurer. She takes the place of Mrs. C. F. McKenna who resigned.

Mrs. A. L. Cowperthwaite was one of the contributors of books to the library on May 6th, Library Day. Her name was unintentionally omitted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Johnson drove to Wausa, Nebraska, Saturday, for a visit with a brother and to accompany their daughter, Miss Alpha, home. Miss Alpha has been attending school at Wayne.

Miss Mary and Miss Julia Fitzsimons, Miss Mae Hammond and Miss Cora Meredith with Berney Fitzsimons as chauffeur, drove up from Omaha last week and spent decoration day with relatives and friends here.

Joe Bruder, of Emmet, is among the new subscribers to The Frontier.

Mrs. Froelich and daughter, Mrs. E. T. Campbell, came home Monday evening from York where they were called by the death of a sister of Mrs. Froelich.

Miss Mary McLaughlin went to Long Pine last Tuesday as the delegate from the Highlander lodge of this city to the district meeting. Miss Maude Johnson, of Atkinson, and Miss Mary McLaughlin, of this city, were chosen delegates to the national convention which will possibly be held in Denver in September.

Mrs. M. A. Summers came home last Sunday from Blair, Nebraska, where she was called by the illness and death of her father, James Cruickshank, which occurred May 26. The deceased was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, almost ninety-four years ago. He came to America and settled near Blair in 1872. The ten living children were all present at the funeral services. Mrs. Cruickshank is in her ninetyeth year.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maring had a pleasant surprise Sunday, May 24, 1925, it being their silver wedding anniversary. Friends came in with well filled baskets of eats, dinner being served at one o'clock in the large dining room to over one-hundred guests. Everyone enjoyed a good time and wishing them many more years of happy wedded life. Sports of the afternoon were horseshoe and ball game.

D. G. Kunz, of Stuart, accompanied by three sisters, Mrs. John Schieder, Mrs. Joe Wedge and Mrs. Kattie Kunz, was looking after business matters in O'Neill one day last week. Mr. Kunz is in the mercantile business and is also interested in gardening. He tells us that he raised tomatoes in the house last winter and produced ripe fruit around Christmas time. Mr. Kunz says that he breaks slips from his winter plants and sets them out in the garden for early tomatoes in the spring. He has tomatoes now that are almost ripe enough to use.

J. H. Meredith spent Sunday in Atkinson.

Dean Selah spent Saturday and Sunday with his family at Bloomfield.

Frank Pruss was confined to his home last Tuesday with a severe attack of neuralgia.

The Annual Commencement Exercises of St. Mary's Academy, Wednesday, June 10, 1925, at 8 p. m.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender residing about twelve miles northeast of O'Neill.

Emil Sniggs was in Page last Saturday morning and assisted the Page band during the Decoration day exercises.

Walter Hunt, of Buhl, Idaho, formerly of Page, was in O'Neill last Monday, enroute to Page to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gallagher are rejoicing over the arrival of an eight pound son, at their home last Saturday evening.

Class Dad Exercises will be held in the Assembly room of St. Mary's Academy, Tuesday, June 9, 1925, at 2:30 p. m. All are welcome.

Bennet Gilligan arrived home Monday from the Kemper Military school at Booneville, Missouri, and will spend the summer vacation at home.

Miss Mary Phalin submitted to an operation for appendicitis, Wednesday, in a Norfolk hospital. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mrs. C. C. Johnson and son George, of Whittier, California, came last Friday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Graham.

Mrs. George Bowen went over to Lake Andes, South Dakota, Monday, for a short visit with her husband, who is advancing for a traveling show troupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bay loaded their household effects and shipped them to Elkhorn, Nebraska, the first of the week where they will make their home.

Dr. A. H. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swigart, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pruss, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lubker and Mrs. George Bowen drove to Atkinson last Sunday.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: May 28th, Ora Philbrick and Miss Mabel Waive, both of Stuart; Mry 29th, Gust O Pahl, Olpe, Kansas, and Verna Haake, Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reardon went to Hastings last Sunday to attend a Knights of Columbus convention. Mr. and Mrs. Hammd will return by way of Omaha.

Mrs. J. P. Gilligan is still suffering from injuries received several weeks ago when she fell down a flight of stairs at the rear of her home. She has been confined to her bed during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richards, of Ellensburg, Washington, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Curtis. Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Curtis were old school mates at Ponca, Nebraska.

Harold Peterson, one of the helpers at the Walter Savidge carnival grounds, fell from a high point while assisting in the erection of the Sea Plane, last Monday and sprained an ankle quite severely.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Malone, accompanied by the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Hancock and her sister, Miss Gladys Hancock, started for Clair City, Minnesota, last Friday in their car for a visit with relatives.

Sam Banks, residing one and one-half miles northwest of Emmet, came to O'Neill early Wednesday morning to have Dr. Carter set the bones of the right wrist which were broken that morning by an obstinate Ford.

Dr. John Gilligan expects to complete his medical course at the state He will take the state board examination in Lincoln June 9th, 10th and 11th, and will be home the latter part of next week for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Gilligan.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Kohn, of Chicago, were guests of friends in O'Neill last week. Mrs. Kohn will be remembered by the old settlers here as Miss Martha Weil, sister of Chas. J. Schram; who conducted a general store many years ago, on the site of the Golden hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Kohn were on their way to the Pacific coast on a business trip.

Joe Crow has joined the Walter Savidge band and will leave O'Neill with the Amusement Company next Sunday. Until a few weeks ago Joe knew nothing about music, not until Dr. C. H. Lubker, the instructor of the O'Neill Concert Band, became interested in him and accepted him as a pupil. Joe has advanced rapidly and is now capable of holding down a job with the carnival band. Joe has been around O'Neill for several months and has been employed by Ben Harty and Tom Griffin.

Announcing the Opening of

A New Grocery and Meat Market

Saturday, June 13, 1925

A
New Store
With
New Ideas

We cordially invite you to have lunch with us, and witness the demonstrations of meat and grocery products by representatives of five of the largest wholesale houses in the Middle West. You will enjoy these demonstrations of superior McLaughlin Coffees, Armour meat products, Iten's cookies, Del Monte and Uncle William canned fruits and vegetables by the Norfolk Grocery Co. and H. J. Heinz canned products to be served from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m.

We shall be glad to have you inspect our line of fresh groceries and meats—the most complete obtainable. We want you to appreciate the quality of service together with the low prices we offer.

Ross E. Harris

Groceries and Meats

In the Scott Building Half Block East of Golden Hotel.

If You Succeed

Your success is cumulative. You cannot progress alone in business and every forward step of yours carries along other people on the same road. In this way your city becomes prosperous and great.

In exact ratio to your success or failure your city succeeds or fails.

That's why we, as bankers, desire to see you succeed. That's why we make a point of rendering service to depositors and endeavor to safeguard them from financial reverses.

Come In Any Day. We'll Welcome You.

The Nebraska State Bank