

Honor Student Is Bricklayer

WILLIAM LEIDER

After William Leider had been granted the key of Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholastic fraternity at Columbia university, New York, it was discovered he has earned his way through college laying bricks.

"Shanghied"

DOROTHY REILLY

Miss Dorothy Reilly of Englewood, N. J., was aboard the S. S. "Drottningholm," saying farewell to a chum when the boat sailed. She was forced to make the unexpected trip to Sweden and return.

June Week at Annapolis

U.S. NAVAL CADETS

Here are the cadets at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis on dress parade during the annual June Week ceremonies which are a part of the graduation exercises in which the senior class receives its commissions.

Released from Asylum

MRS. FAY ROBERTS

Mrs. Fay Roberts, eighteen, of New York, was committed to an asylum by her husband, Lieutenant Heyward Roberts, West Point graduate and son of Colonel Charles B. Roberts of Houston, Texas. Lieutenant Roberts then sued for annulment of the marriage. This action was voided, however, when a jury declared her sane.

Youngest

MISS FRANCES MURPHY

The youngest charter member of the first woman's lodge of the Maccabees is Miss Frances Murphy of Washington. Institution of the lodge was part of the ceremonies scheduled for the Maccabees convention in the capital.

Gambled for Lover's Life

HORTENSE CORTES

Hortense Cortes faced trial in Mexico City, charged with killing her sweetheart in one of the most novel death pacts in crime's history. The man and girl agreed to play cards, it is alleged, the winner to shoot the loser. Miss Cortes won and her lover, J. Concepcion Saucedo, died at her hands. She alleged the killing was an accident.

Marble Champ

MISS MARIE LAWLOR

Miss Marie Lawlor of Harrisburg, Pa., defeated the pick of the boys of her city for the honor of representing Harrisburg at the Atlantic City marble tournament and then outshot her first four competitors. She was finally eliminated by two defeats and the contest lost its only girl entry.

Proud Papa at 75

MR. & MRS. E. A. CAPEN

E. A. Capen, of Hudson, Mass., was photographed with his wife and their latest born. Capen, who is 75, is father of six children by three wives. His oldest son is past the half century mark.

Slayer Guilty

MRS. MYRTLE CARPENTER

Mrs. Myrtle Carpenter, of Belvedere, N. J., was sentenced to serve from 20 to 30 years at hard labor for shooting Adam Poulak. She claimed she was preserving her honor when she fired.

They Led Cadet Class

CHAS. H. BARTH, JR. AND STANDISH WESTON

Charles Barth, Jr., of Rockford, Ill. (on left) has the highest number of points in the 1925 class and is almost certain of being chosen honor man for the commencement exercises. On the right is Standish Weston of New Hampshire, his nearest competitor.

Royal Guest

MRS. HOWELL HOWARD

Mrs. Howell H. Howard of Dayton, Ohio, and Chicago, was among the American women to be presented to the Court of St. James's by Mrs. A. B. Houghton, wife of the American Ambassador to London.

Heads Nurses

CARRIE MAY HALL

Carrie May Hall of Boston, has been chosen president of the National League of Nursing Education.

Guard Kirby from Mob

TAKING KIRBY TO COURT

More than a score of police and detectives surrounded Harry Kirby as the suspect in the kidnaping and murder of Miss Alda Hayward was taken to court for arraignment at Winthrop, Me., near the scene of the crime. He's shown in foreground, covering his face.