

N. Y. Mib Champ

Jimmy Murphy, ten, holds the marble championship of Greater New York as the result of his victory in the city's first tournament.

Some Bird

A race from Danville, Va., to Bayonne, N. J., which included hundreds of homing pigeons, was won by the above bird, shown with its owner, Stanley Lynch, of Bayonne. The bird flew the 400 miles in two minutes less than 12 hours.

Fool's Fate

Unfortunately born blind, Miss Mary Josephine Curcio, of Newark, N. J., was unwilling to settle back to a life of useless ease. She studied to such effect that she graduated with honors from the New Jersey College for Women, connected with Rutgers, receiving special honors and a Phi Beta Kappa membership.

Values Wife

So great was the love of Wilbur Loctus, of St. Charles, Fla., for Mrs. Loctus (above) that he applied to a court and received an injunction restraining other men from making love to her. The step succeeded so well he then asked that the temporary writ be made permanent.

Six Below Zero Here

It is so cold in the beef room of one Chicago's stockyards plants that Tony Curles, an employe, appreciated the act of kindness when Miss Sonr Salene, protected against chill by a fur coat, brought him a steaming cup of coffee.

Won Fortune on Derby

Lady Luck presented James Carew, an English shipping clerk, with nearly $200,000 from a ticket on the Calcutta Derby Sweepstakes. He is shown reading the telegram of his good fortune to his wife.

Student Queen

Miss Maria Luisa Malda, a schoolgirl, was chosen by students of Mexico City as their scholastic queen for the year 1925.

Boy Kills Boy in Feud

LEONARD and LORETTA MEYERS

When Loretta Meyers told her brother, Leonard, that Harold Beamer, 15, was approaching the Meyers home in Kansas City with a shotgun in his hands, Leonard grasped a rifle and shot the Beamer boy dead. The coroner's jury, learning that a feud had existed between the families, exonerated the young killer.

Slew Father

ABRAHAM FELDMAN and HIS MOTHER

Abraham Feldman went on trial in Buffalo, charged with killing his aged father. His mother, Mrs. Morris Feldman, has vowed she will spend the $200,000 accumulated by the slain man to support her son's defense that he was forced to shoot by the parent's cruelty.

Love Tragedy

MRS. DOROTHEA HOLT and WM. C. HARIMEYER

Infuriated when he found a note from Mrs. Dorothea Holt, telling him that their affair was over, Policeman William C. Harimeyer, in Los Angeles, shot the woman and killed himself. She may die.

Scopes Confers with Counsel

DR. JOHN R. NEAL (Left) and JOHN T. SCOPES

John T. Scopes (right), the Tennessee high school teacher who was indicted for violation of the anti-evolution law, and Dr. John R. Neal, of Knoxville, Tenn., went to New York to consult with attorneys for the American Civil Liberties Union, who will aid in the professor's defense.

These Men Represented U. S. in International Balloon Race

The men who represented America in the annual international balloon race for the Gordon Bennett cup at Brussels, Belgium, are left to right: Captain C. K. Wollen, W. C. Butler, Lieut. W. J. Flood, W. T. Van Orman and Lieut. N. McCormack.

Third Attempt

Mrs. Nola E. Austin, of Miami, Fla., has just favored her spouse, Arthur Austin, of Jacksonville, with her hand in marriage for the third time. Twice they quarreled and were divorced, each time to be wed. The third time will be the last, Mrs. Austin says, whether or not it lasts.

Jailed as Slayer

MRS. FANNIE SOPER

Mrs. Fannie Soper is held in Elizabethtown, N. J., jail awaiting a chance to defend herself against the charge that she shot her husband, a Deputy Sheriff. Soper was killed while sleeping near an open window. Mrs. Soper declared a man fired through the portal.