

First U. S. Owned Embassy

The opening of the American embassy in Paris, the first owned by the United States in Europe, was the occasion for a celebration attended by 3,000 persons. Ambassador Herrick welcomed the guests.

Facing Gallows

Clasping her baby, Mrs. Mary Mattia awaits trial in the Cape May, N. J., jail on a murder charge. She says she shot her stepfather to save her honor and protect her home.

$10,000 Smile

Suit for $10,000 damages was brought in Detroit by Miss Eileen Maxwell, photographers' model, against Edward Meurer, with whom she said she was riding when an accident occurred resulting in injuries to her face which marred her infectious smile, decreasing her earning capacity.

IMAGINED HER "MURDER"

London.—Just before her death, Mrs. Winifred Newhouse, 34 years old, said she was attacked by a huckster. An examination by physicians revealed that she had not been attacked. Testimony was that a clot of blood in the brain, which later brought death, caused her to imagine the attack.

Asks Divorce

ANN LUTHER

"A divorce is disagreeable, but I guess I must have one," said Ann Luther, actress, in Los Angeles, admitting she planned to sue her husband, Ed. Gallagher, of the Gallagher and Shean vaudeville team.

In the Day's News

Above:—JOSEPH CAILLAUX and W.J. BUTLER.
Below:—ABD-EL KRIM and DR. JOHN E. STRATON

After the most spectacular parliamentary sessions in recent years, the Chamber of Deputies passed Finance Minister Caillaux's new tax law. John W. Butler, author of the Tennessee evolution law, around which the Scopes trial is centered, said Professor John T. Scopes, the defendant, ought to be spanked by his father and sent to bed without supper. Abd-el-Krim was offered control of the Rif, under the Sultan of Morocco's sovereignty, by a French-Spanish plan. Dr. John R. Straton, pastor of New York Calvary Baptist Church, said he is considering a Fundamentalist drive for a statute in New York State forbidding the teaching of evolution.

Reserve Fliers Killed

PLANE BURNS AFTER CRASH

Lieutenants R. H. Perra and O. K. Hickey, of the United States Army Aviation Reserve Corps, were killed near Mineola, N. Y., when their airplane crashed into a field and was set ablaze. They were members of a party of New England Army Reserve air officers, Hickey living at Brockton, Mass., and Perra at Marlboro, Mass. An ambulance awaited with one victim until the burning wreckage cooled sufficiently to permit removal of the other.

$100,000 Leg

Not satisfied with the compensation which the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company offered her for injuries sustained when a horse stepped on her during the production of an opera, injuring her right leg, Mrs. Nannie L. Todsén, singer, is suing for $100,000.

Firemen

The Prince of Wales was the hero of Cape Town, Africa, when he helped to rescue children from a burning hut, and aided in checking the spread of the fire, suffering slight burns about the face.

Prostrated

"I don't believe he ever committed murder," cried Miss Ruth Stark, of Syracuse, when told Philip Knapp, reported to be engaged to her, was wanted for the murder of a chauffeur "just for a thrill." She was prostrated at her home.

Flunked His Exams

One reason why John Coolidge, son of the President, has been laboring so diligently at homely chores while most of his college classmates are enjoying themselves at resorts has leaked out—he flunked his French course.

Huntress

Miss Muriel Grant, daughter of Robert M. Grant, New York banker, will accompany her father on a trip to "Darkest Africa" to shoot rhinoceros.

Factory Heads

When her father died Miss Catherine Doody, of Boston, was left with a large radiator factory to manage. She made good—the only woman to achieve such success.