O'NEILL BASEBALL TEAM TAKES THREE OF FOUR GAMES

Holt county baseball fans have enjoyed the privilege since and including last Thursday of seeing the O'Neill team win three of the four games played in that time, including the one at Emmet Wednesday afternoon. They also have been privileged to see two famous pitchers, one of them under contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, go down to defeat before our own Ed. Allen, than whom there is none better in these parts. Allen not only defeated the other two stars, but also beat them in all angles of the game in addition to outpitching them. The first of the noted ones to fall before the O'Neill man was Carl Simpson of Omaha, who was imported by Stuart in an attempt to defeat O'Neill on the Stuart diamond last Thursday. The attempt failed, the score being 5 to 2 in favor of O'Neill. But notwithstanding, it was a fast game with victory possible for either side up until the last strike was called on the last Stuart man in the ninth inning.

Saturday, the first day of the two day rodeo and baseball tournament staged at the fairgrounds by the local club, Stuart and O'Neill again met. McGuire of Neola, Iowa, and Omaha, presided on the mound for O'Neill on this occasion, the purpose being to rest Allen for the big Sunday game between O'Neill and Verdigre which was expected to be and which was the gala game of the series. McGuire, although one of the best pitchers who has been up the line this year, couldn't get started until after several innings, and owing to poor support lost his game to Stuart by a score of 11 to 4. Stuart's old standby, Miller, served for the west enders and pitched one of his best games of the season. McGuire pitched big league baseball in the latter part of the game, but the lead established in the early part could not be overcome. Fans in this game were privileged to see a tripple play, something not witnessed often and in fact so rare in baseball of any class as to call for special mention. The play occurred in the seventh inning, when Carroll playing second for Stuart, hit a hot one straight into McGuire's glove, with one man already on at first and another at third. McGuire immediately threw to Harrington, playing third for O'Neill, who caught Brunning of Stuart, backing up to third. Harrington then slammed the globe over to Hank Person at first in time for the latter to put out Hamilton of Stuart, who after having started for second base was trying to get back to first.

Three thousand breathless fans, including the kids, saw world series baseball played on Sunday afternoon when O'Neill and Verdigre met. They also saw Ed. Allen, O'Neill's slab artist, humble the mighty Fred Wiggington of the St. Louis Cardinals and defeat him in a battle which was strictly a pitcher's duel, by the very narrow score of 1 to 0. One to nothing games are always good games, but only once in a lifetime as good as this, which is evidenced by the fact that no errors were recorded against Verdigre and only two against O'Neill. Five hits were scored off Wiggington and but two off Allen. Each pitcher struck out thirteen men. This game is to be repeated at Verdigre on Sunday, September 6, with the same two pitchers opposing each other.

The rodeo put on in conjunction with the baseball tournament Saturday and Sunday, was exceptionally entertaining and had much to do with drawing the big crowds of both days. Manager C. H. Blakely, who is enroute to Norfolk and Omaha with his riders and outlaw horses put on exciting programs on each day, although they were somewhat curtailed by the length of the ball games which preceded them and also by a slight shower Sunday afternoon. The horses were some of the best performers ever shown here and a number of the riders were thrown. Several suffered injuries, but none serious ones.

Wednesday afternoon the O'Neill baseball team defeated Emmet at the big picnic at the latter town, by a score of 8 to 5. Allen again presided for O'Neill, while Tomlinson served for Emmet. The Emmet team was largely recruited from Stuart and DeLay of Stuart played center field for O'Neill. Holiday of Stuart was the umpire. The game was witnessed by a very large crowd and was preceded by a game between the Shields township team and the Emmet second team in which the former were the victors.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS STAGE BALL GAME

The Catholic Daughters held a picnic at the Country Club Tuesday evening. The ladies planned to start on their picnic at five o'clock; at the appointed hour the heavens were darkened by approaching storm clouds but the ladies heeded them not, hoping that they might enhance the prospects for a downpour, but no such luck—the rain disappeared. An exciting base ball game was played by the married and single ladies. Only two innings were played. The game was stopped at the end of the second inning on account of sprinkle; the married ladies were two scores in the lead and were declared the winners.

One of the outstanding features of the game was a home run by Mrs. Stein in the first inning. Mrs. Willing, the accomplished 3rd baseman for the married ladies, was hit on the jaw by a ball delivered to her position by the pitcher in an endeavor to intercept a base runner; she retired from the game and Mrs. P. C. Donohoe substituted for her.

Following is the summary of the game:

REV. BEERS ACCEPTS CALL TO O'NEILL

(Stuart Advocate.)
After more than five years service as pastor of the Presbyterian church in Stuart Rev. Beers Sunday night accepted the call of the O'Neill Presbyterian church to take charge of the work of the church there.

Rev. and Mrs. Beers and their children have been very popular here and the pastor has done very efficient and satisfactory work in our community.

Since the family came here from Colorado, Rev. Beers has done a great deal of constructive work in his office. He has accomplished extensive improvements in the church plant itself, and has helped inaugurate a daily vacation bible school, in addition to other works with which we are all familiar.

Rev. Beers will take charge of his new pastorate on September first, filling the place left vacant some time ago by the resignation of Rev. Longstaff, who moved to a larger field.

We will all be sorry to lose this fine family from our midst, and are glad that they are not going far away.

Inman, Neb., Aug. 3: Page and Inman have formed an organization to be known as the Page-Inman Rod and Reel club. The chain lakes east of Inman have been leased for twenty years and many improvements will be made on the lakes.

The grounds will be fenced, a club house and other buildings erected. Each member will be provided with a key to the premises. The membership in the new organization is limited to 100.

LOCAL NEWS.

Ed Tomsik, of Atkinson, has disposed of his insurance business and has located in Verdigre, Nebraska.

O'NEILL-ROYAL.

The O'Neill ball team will play Royal at Royal next Sunday.

HULL-PINKERMAN.

Guy Lester Hull and Miss Lila Pinkerman were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pinkerman, of Dorsey, Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Justice John Carson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hull, of Meek. Both of the young people are well liked by all that know them.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold an ice cream social in the Wise building Saturday afternoon and evening. The proceeds will be used to repair the manse.
