

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLVI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1925.

NO. 13.

BASE BALL!

O'Neill, Nebr., versus Gregory, S. D.

—AT THE—

Rosebud Missouri River Bridge Dedication
Tuesday Morning, Sept. 1st.

—AT 9:30 A. M. SHARP—

These two teams as the fastest in their respective states have been invited by the committee in charge to formally open the program for the day. You will regret it if you miss this game and the following celebration. A throng of thirty thousand, including more than five thousand Indians from the reservation, is expected at the celebration. The bridge, where the ball game and celebration will be held, is located thirteen miles north of Fairfax, or eleven miles northeast of Bonesteel, on an excellent highway.

Game Starts Promptly at 9:30 A. M. Admission 50c. Kids and Autos Free.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin McCarthy and family, of Fremont, are visiting at the Ed Graham home.

Jack Sullivan came in from Butte, Montana, Thursday evening, for a visit with O'Neill friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James McPharlin and daughter, Pauline, returned from a several days visit in Omaha.

Miss Geraldine Cronin went to Randolph, Nebraska, Wednesday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Courtney.

The Womans' Working Society of the Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday, September 3rd, with Mrs. Harry Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bittner and family, of Plainview, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bergstrom one day last week.

Misses Marie and Marguerite Welch returned home Friday, from Lincoln, Nebraska, where they have been attending the University for the past three months.

Atkinson Graphic: J. F. Todd met with injuries yesterday when his team ran away. He was hauling a cow in the wagon and the vehicle was upset and he and the animal thrown out.

Miss Kathryn McCarthy and Miss Emma Knapp will leave Friday or Saturday for Hamill, South Dakota, where they will teach school the coming term, which begins August 31st.

Professor and Mrs. E. H. Suhr returned to O'Neill last week from their summer vacation and are preparing for the opening of school on September 7th.

Miss Ethel Mindenhall and Miss June Meyers, of Ponca, nieces of Rev. J. A. Hutchins, of this city, came last Monday for a week's visit at the Hutchins' home.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church are holding their Rummage Sale every afternoon this week in the Wise building and on Saturday afternoon and evening will serve ice cream and cake—15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, of Hastings, Nebraska, are expected here the first of the week for a week's visit with at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zimmerman, and with other O'Neill relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. George Bressler went down to Clearwater Wednesday for a short visit with relatives. The entire party will drive to Wayne Thursday morning to attend a reunion of the Bressler brothers and sisters which has become an annual event.

Inman Leader: William Stevens and family left by auto Monday evening for Newport, Nebraska, called there to attend the funeral of Mr. Steven's youngest sister, Lidia, who died Sunday in the hospital at Beatrice, where she had been confined for some time. Funeral was held Tuesday at Newport and burial made in the cemetery in Keya Paha county. Lidia was sixteen years old at the time of her death. She lived in Inman with her parents when a child.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Virgin and son, of Gresham, Nebraska, came this afternoon for a visit at the home of the former's brother, A. V. Virgin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Scott and daughter, Miss Ruth, came home Saturday evening from Omaha where Mr. Scott was in attendance at the Reporter's convention. The were accompanied home by Mrs. J. F. Purney, of Omaha.

Several auto loads of boosters headed by a band arrived in O'Neill about 12:30 Wednesday noon and gave a very enjoyable concert on the streets. The aggregation were boosting for the Boyd county fair which will be held at Butte beginning September 9th and continuing over the 11th.

Richard Hansen and little daughter, drove up from their home in Lincoln to attend the rodeo at Burwell last week; they came up to O'Neill last Friday and remained here over Sunday with old friends. Mr. Hansen will be remembered as having been employed at the McGinnis Creamery here a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rasley and Miss Dorothy Hall drove to Ft. Snelling, near St. Paul, Minnesota, Wednesday, for a short visit to the Military Training Camp where Mrs. Rasley's son, Warren Hall, has been in training during the month of August. Accompanied by Warren they will return home Sunday.

Chief Game Warden Jenkins has been besieged by inquiries in regard to press reports which stated that the open season for prairie chickens and grouse begins September 15. He corrects reports by saying that the open season for chickens starts October 1 and lasts one month. Five birds is a day's bag limit, or ten birds in one's possession at any one time. The duck season opens September 16 and closes December 31.

The third issue of the Herrick News, of Herrick, South Dakota, came to the exchange table of The Frontier last week. The News is most ably edited by A. A. Tingle, formerly of Butte. Its news columns are well filled with items of interest to the community it serves and its makeup and dress are excellent examples of the printer's art. The Frontier joins with the newspaper fraternity generally in extending to Mr. Tingle and The News best wishes for success and prosperity.

C. J. Connett, superintendent of the Omaha Division; H. R. Freed, Assistant General Freight Agent, of Omaha; E. E. Grimes, Division Freight Agent, of Lincoln, were pleasant callers at The Frontier office Tuesday afternoon. This is the first visit to O'Neill of these gentlemen in their present official positions, each of them having risen to their present positions with the Burlington railroad within the past six weeks. Mr. Connett succeeds N. C. Allen, who left the service to be associated with Woods Brothers, of Lincoln; Mr. Freed, succeeded W. W. Johnson, of Omaha, who retired from active duty at the age of seventy years; and Mr. Grimes was advanced to the vacancy caused by the death of J. J. Cox, of Lincoln, who died about two months ago. Road Master, Ray Hurlbut, of Ferry, and Pay Master George Shindell, of Omaha, were in O'Neill with the party of officials.

Miss Eva Harmon was in Omaha on business the first of the week.

A daughter was born August 24th to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kozisek, of Stuart.

W. J. Myers and wife went to Bassett Thursday morning to attend the Rock county fair.

Gasoline took a tumble of 2c the first of the week, and is now selling for 23c in O'Neill.

Frank Harrington is home from Lincoln for a visit with his parents, Attorney and Mrs. M. F. Harrington.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McDermott, residing ten miles northwest of O'Neill, last Sunday.

James Dixon and Letha Walker, both of Ewing, were granted a marriage license in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Wednesday.

William J. Jenkinson and Violet McElhose, both of Walnut, Nebraska, were married by the county judge at his office on August 25th.

Dr. Gilligan has been quite busily engaged during the past week removing tonsils. Seven operations were performed within a few days.

Miss Mary Wood, of Long Beach, California, came last Friday evening for a few weeks visit at the home of Mr and Mrs. J. B. Mellor.

A young man by the name of Gene Meredith and weighing 9½ pounds arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKenna last Thursday morning.

Edward Boshart expects to install an up-to-date fish pond upon his farm 1½ miles north of O'Neill, this fall. He is arranging to build the dams and to do the excavating right away.

J. B. Mellor is having his residence on east Douglas street remodeled and stuccoed. A large force of men have been on the job for several weeks. New concrete drives and walks have been laid.

Miss Marian Gilligan arrived home on Tuesday evening of last week from the University of California, located at Berkeley, California, where she has spent the summer taking special work.

Mrs. F. B. Pine expects to leave for Omaha the first of next week where she will make her home with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lindberg. Her address will be 2429 N. 33rd Ave.

A twelve pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hansen residing seven miles east of O'Neill on July 25th. Mr. Hansen will be remembered as the proprietor of a restaurant here a couple of years ago.

Everett C. Siders has commenced an action for divorce from his wife, Vina. In the petition he recites that they were married in March, 1922, and on July 28, 1923, the defendant left his home. One child was born to this union.

Mrs. F. J. Dishner returned home Wednesday of last week from a visit with her brother, Clear Golden, at Cheshire, Connecticut, and with friends in New York City, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Michigan and other points east.

L. H. Malone left for Fort Meyers, Florida, Monday morning where he will open a law office and begin the practice of his chosen profession. Mrs. Malone and children will join Mr. Malone in their new location about the middle of October.

Dr. H. H. Wilkinson returned home last week from the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minnesota, much improved and on the high road to recovery from recent ailments. He has been shaking hands with friends on the street and says that he is feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Quinn entertained twenty-two boys and girls at their home last Wednesday afternoon in honor of their son, Edward, Jr., age five, and daughter, Margaret, age nine, whose birthday anniversaries occurred Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Frank Hansen, of Lusk, Wyoming, spent several days here prior to Monday of last week, visiting with her sisters, Mrs. J. B. Mellor, Mrs. R. L. Arbuthnot and Mrs. David Stannard. She in company with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Miller, returned to their home in Casper, Wyoming, Monday of last week. Mrs. Miller will be remembered as Margaret Dorsey, a resident of this city prior to her marriage.

APPETIZING

The proof of the Pudding is in the Eating thereof.

That is the reason we urge upon you—week after week—to give us a chance to serve you.

Once you realize the Value of the service we render, both as to quality of merchandise and satisfactory price, the more certain are we of your regular patronage.

—SPECIAL—

2 Pounds Assorted Sunshine Cookies 39c

Call No. 47.

Ross E. Harris

Meat Market and Grocery
McLaughlin's kept fresh coffee service

J. H. Agee, of Abilene, Kansas, Wm. Porter, of Omaha, H. G. Wellensick, of Grand Island, A. W. Phillips, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Frank Marsh, of Omaha, J. E. Tucker, of Kansas City and C. J. Johnson, of Abilene, Kansas, stopped in O'Neill Tuesday evening on their way to inspect the large dam project on the Niobrara river south of Spencer, with a view of financing the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Deaver drove down from Casper, Wyoming, last Monday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Deaver's mother, Mrs. E. O'Donnell. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rentschler also drove over from Springview, Nebraska, Monday, and have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Rentschler's mother, Mrs. E. O'Donnell.

G. A. Hansen, residing seven miles east of O'Neill, has purchased the Duran Hunt farm one mile south of Page and will take possession March 1st. Mr. Hansen tells us that he recently fell heir to an interest in a wealthy estate of which he has already received a few thousand dollars. He expects to invest his share of the inheritance in Holt county real estate.

Public school opens Monday, September 7th, with change in the teaching as follows: Mr. A. F. Dugger as Principal, Mrs. Dugger as Normal Training teacher, Mr. W. H. Warman as coach and Commercial teacher; Miss Dorothy Hall as a grade teacher; Mr. Veach resigned due to the death of his father, his resignation was acted upon by the Board of Education at a special meeting at which time Mr. Warman was elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Veach will take charge of a farm near Beatrice, Nebraska. His father was farming the place at the time of his death. Mr. Veach was a splendid man for our school and we regret his leaving us. We wish him the best of luck as a farmer.

TICKETS FOR GIBBONS ROSEBUD BOUT AT REARDON'S STORE

The O'Neill baseball club through the courtesy of Charles Donnelly of Bonesteel, chairman of the program committee of the celebration and dedication of the Rosebud bridge across the Missouri river near Wheeler next Tuesday, has secured sixty-five ringside seats to the Tommy Gibbons boxing exhibition at the dedication Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Donnelly, a former Atkinson boy, picked out sixty-five real ringside seats for the Holt county delegation. They now are on sale at Reardon's drug store. The Gibbons bout is at 4 o'clock p. m. and is followed by twenty-five rounds of boxing by other celebrities. Reservations already made for the fights assure that there will be practically no chance to get in to see them unless you have your ticket before you leave here. As a report must be made to the committee in charge on Monday morning and all unsold tickets returned by that time you had better get yours new.

O'NEILL AND NIOBRARA WILL MEET ON LOCAL DIAMOND SUNDAY

O'Neill and Niobrara will clash at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon. The Niobrara team is one of the fastest in their section of the state and a week ago Saturday defeated Creighton in an eighteen inning game. The contest will be one of the best the local team will have. Elgin comes to O'Neill for their return game next Wednesday. These two games are ones no real baseball fan can afford to miss.

Reports reach O'Neill that S. J. B. Johnson has purchased a creamery at Neligh, Nebraska. Mr. Johnson's many O'Neill friends will wish him success.

How Is It With You?

Some men look ahead only a nickel's worth at a time.

However, he who really succeeds in life is looking ahead in hundreds or thousands.

This bank can help you see ahead.

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders.

Resources over $600,000.00.

The O'Neill National Bank

Now For Canning

Pears—Peaches—Prunes—Grapes—Plums
All kinds of Jars and extra Lids and Rubbers.
Your order will be appreciated and delivered Promptly.

Phone 19.

Mrs. Susie Horiskey