THREE FAST TEAMS DEFEATED BY O'NEILL BALL TEAM THIS WEEK

Elgin Subdued in Thirteen Inning Game, Gregory Beaten Twice And Lynch Once.

O'Neill's star aggregation of baseball players covered themselves with glory this week by winning four games from three of the fastest teams in north Nebraska and southern South Dakota. The most thrilling of the two games played at home was the thirteen inning one with Elgin Wednesday and which will go down in history for the closeness of the contest and its thrills. The other home game, with Lynch Sunday afternoon also was thrilling in that it evened up the score with the boys from over the Niobrara and introduced to the fans a local hurler of decided merit, Bishop, who made his bow by striking out sixteen men and breaking the local strikeout record for the season. The new record however was shortlived, for on Wednesday, Quincy, pitching for O'Neill, whiffed twenty-four and set a mark that is not apt to be exceeded for a long time to come.

Over at the dedication of the Rosebud bridge across the Missouri river near Wheeler, South Dakota, Tuesday, Allen, O'Neill's premier southpaw, distinguished himself and broke the hearts of western South Dakota baseball fans by defeating Gregory, the champions of South Dakota, twice in one day. The first game, in the morning was a shutout, O'Neill winning 13 to 0 and batting Iler of Salem, the highest priced hurler in South Dakota, and Musik, who replaced him in the fifth, freely and at will, while the Gregory men were helpless before the O'Neill moundman. Then just to show that there was no hard feelings and that it wasn't so very hard to do, Mr. Allen went back into the box in the afternoon and again trimmed the Gregory bunch by a score of 9 to 4, Tomlinson, pitching for Gregory being unable to stop the batting streak of the Irish.

Batteries, Gregory, Eiler, Musik and Whitley, O'Neill, Allen and Doyle; strike outs by Eiler 5; by Allen 6; three base hits, F. Doyle, Cran; two base hits Higenbotham, 2, Beha.

O'Neill defeated Lynch Sunday afternoon in an exciting game on the local diamond by a score of 7 to 2. The feature of the game was the striking out of sixteen men by Bishop, O'Neill's star right hander, and the breaking of the previous record for the season of fifteen strikeouts. Rysavy, the Lynch hurler, whiffed but six of the O'Neill batters. The hits were nine each. Bishop gave but one base on balls to Rysavy's two and each hurler struck a batter. Home runs were made by Bazelman and F. Doyle, both of O'Neill. Both pitchers received good support from the other members of their teams. Battery for O'Neill—Bishop and E. Doyle; for Lynch—Rysavy and Schissler.

O'Neill defeated Elgin Wednesday afternoon by a score of 5 to 4. The moon was just about to rise when Holiday, O'Neill's third baseman, knocked one down just beyond Anderson, Elgin's second baseman, which brought Fred Doyle, O'Neill center fielder, in. It being the last half of the thirteenth inning of the fastest baseball game played in north Nebraska for some time, the applause was long and enthusiastic; at least from the O'Neill section of the largest crowd which witnessed the dispute.

A large gathering of baseball maniacs from Elgin, Neligh, O'Neill and points in South Dakota saw the game. It was no place for a sick man or one with a weak heart. Quincy, pitching for O'Neill, started it off by retiring the three first Elgin batters up, and then in the last half of the first F. Doyle and Emmet Doyle of O'Neill assembled two scores. The game, a perfect pitchers' battle, with Eisler twirling for Elgin, moved along without a break until the fifth inning, when Elgin scored thrice. Then in the sixth O'Neill came back with one, tying the score, and everything ran smoothly until the tenth inning, when Elgin scored another one and Beha for O'Neill hit a two-bagger and Carroll for O'Neill brought him in with one of the same size.

It being the last half of the tenth O'Neill business men who had closed up their establishments for the afternoon decided that it was useless to open up for the evening trade and settled down to await the finish. Quincy for O'Neill and Eisler for Elgin were pitching almost perfect ball. The eleventh inning moved along and then the twelfth, without a score for either side. Then in the fatal thirteenth Quincy whiffed the first three Elgin men up and O'Neill came to bat. With two men out Fred Doyle singled to first and Emmet Doyle, O'Neill's catcher, crashed a two-bagger down beyond the second baseman. Both men tore around the diamond, with Fred Doyle crossing the home plate; but because of ground rules Fred Doyle was sent back to third and Emmet Doyle to second. Mr. Holiday for O'Neill proceeded to administer the coup de grace by placing one just out of reach of second base and Fred Doyle came in and the game was over.

As a pitchers' battle the game will go down in baseball annals, each pitcher facing a strong batting team and fighting to the last. The statistics show that Quincy struck out twenty-four men and Schissler fourteen, that nine hits were registered against the O'Neill man and twelve against Eisler. The game was remarkable in being almost errorless and because of the absence of wrangling. The box score follows:

More Money for Your Potato Crop

Regardless of the market price for potatoes, it pays to harvest your crop with a

Hoover Potato Digger

The Hoover digger soon makes extra profit for you by digging up potatoes that otherwise would be left in the ground and by doing he work so quickly, easily and economically.

The Hoover digs up the potatoes and piles them in neat rows where they can be handled with minimum labor.

The shovel is of best quality high-carbon crucible steel and shaped so as to gather the potatoes with the least possible loss. No danger of cutting the potatoes to the extent that a plow or hoe does. Stone guards can be used in stony ground.

The vine-separating rear rack sifts out all dirt and deposits the potatoes in a compact row on clear ground directly at the rear of the machine, while the vines and trash are deposited at one side.

Roller bearings and wide tires on the wheels assure light draft. Double-Action or Single-Roller Front Truck permits the digger to be turned in a very short space.

Solid steel frame, strong main sides of Bessemer steel, beams of best quality charcoal malleable castings, and steel chains and hardened steel sprockets that greatly resist wear.

Don't fail to see the Hoover Potato Digger before you harvest your potato crop; its use means greater profits. Also ask us about Hoover Engine Drive Potato Diggers—two-horse machines under all conditions, and any other potato tools you require.
