Always Something Wrong.
From the Yonkers Statesman.
"I dunno why women want to nag so," complained Mr. Wombat.
"What's wrong now?"
"There's always something wrong. Either I'm home too late or I'm home too early. Maybe I got dandruff on my coat collar or soup on my vest. It's this, that and the other. My wife is always finding some flaw."
"They mean it for your good, old man," advised the sagacious friend. "A wife wants her husband to appear at his best. To keep him so is a labor of love."
"Will it always be that way?"
"I fear so. Even if you were an angel your wife might well find a feather."
