

"Mr. A." Awaits Call to the Throne

RAJAH SIR HARI SINGH

Rajah Sir Hari Singh, heir to the throne of Kashmir, and better known outside India as the mysterious "Mr. A," victim of the $1,500,000 blackmail case in England last Fall, is soon to mount the throne. So that he and his wife, who, in strict "purdah"—secluded from all men but her husband—can dance, he has had a private dance hall built adjoining the hotel where they may step to the music of the orchestra.

Defends Sire

VISCOUNT GLADSTONE

Viscount Gladstone is the centre of a unique controversy in England, over the private morals of his father, the late William E. Gladstone, greatest of England's liberal statesmen. Viscount Gladstone vigorously defended the name of his illustrious sire, who was called a "hypocrite" and the "ruler of a harem."

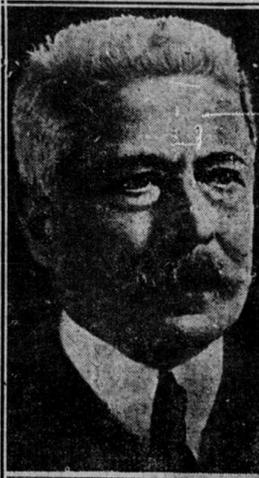

Most Modest

MRS. JOSEPH F. MORAN

Mrs. Joseph F. Moran, wife of a wealthy New York ship-builder, acclaimed the best dressed woman in the world, disclaims the honor and says she dresses only to please her husband.

Mobbed

EX-PREMIER ORLANDO

Former Premier Orlando of Italy was severely beaten by a mob of Fascists who objected to his criticism of the Mussolini regime. Speaking at Palermo, Signor Orlando declared he preferred an absolute autocracy to the Mussolini government.

Wedding Bells?

MARY GARDEN

'Tis reported that Mary Garden has picked an accompanist for life, and that her name will be changed shortly to Mme. Harry Lachman. The opera star and director refuses to confirm the report. (International Newsreel.)

In Murder Case

RUDOLPH DISSE

Temporary insanity will be the defense of Rudolph Disse, twenty-year-old clerk, alleged to have murdered two men and a woman and wounded another man. Disse killed Mrs. Vivian Peers, with whom he had been living; Henry G. Carter, a rival, and Harvey Burke, a detective, according to police. A salesman who attempted to stop Disse was wounded.

Linked in Fraud

JOHN T. KING

John T. King, former National Committeeman, accused with T. W. Miller, former U. S. Custodian of Alien Property, in the irregular disposition of alien property seized by the United States.

Rough Stuff

MRS. PEGGY LEWIS

Mrs. Peggy Lewis, a New York cabaret girl, told police she was drugged and robbed by unknown men. The police, however, said she was being entertained when she received her injuries.

FIND CRYSTAL CAVERN

London.—A beautiful cavern system has been discovered near Ingleton, in the Yorkshire Hills. Two travelers spending a day in the hills happened upon a narrow slit in the rock. Tearing away the limestone they came upon a roaring river passing through crystal caves. In lofty chambers, curtained with stalactites of orange and white crystal, are cascades of clear water. It has been named White Scar Cavern.

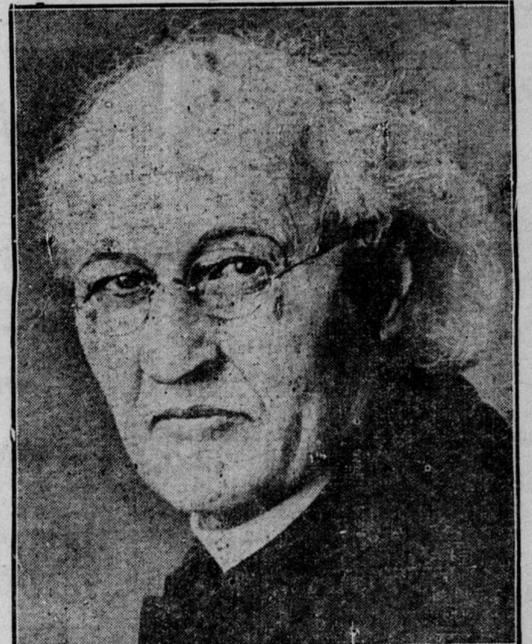

Divorced by Turkey's Chief

LATIFE HANOUM

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, president of the Turkish republic, has divorced Latife Hanoum, the first woman in Turkey to take up the fight for equal rights for her sex.

Pleads for a Hearing

BISHOP V. M. BROWN

Bishop William M. Brown, of Galion, O., in an appeal to the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, has asked reconsideration of the verdict finding him guilty of heresy. He says he is not concerned about his own fate, but is doubtful about the church.

Financier's Wife Passes Away

MRS. J. P. MORGAN

Mrs. J. P. Morgan, of New York, died at her summer home Glen Cove, N. Y., after a two months illness from sleeping sickness. A few weeks ago it was announced by the attending physicians that she was on the road to recovery.

Their Sorrow Is Mutual

DESERTION

Frederick Kent, III, and sister Doris are wondering just where mother is. She left her home in Orange, N. J., at the same time her brother-in-law, Harry Douteu, went away. Their mates at home plan charges of desertion. (International Newsreel.)