

PRINCIPALS IN THREE SENSATIONAL MURDERS

Middle West is scene of trio of slayings that have aroused nation-wide interest because of their sensational angles. Left: Mrs. Valma Van Woert West of Falmesville, Ohio, holding the hammer with which, it is alleged, she beat her husband to death. The husband, Edward West, is shown in left upper inset. Center: Andy Dyken, 15-year-old schoolboy of St. Clairsville, Ohio, who shot and killed his mother and seriously wounded his father and a farmhand because he was reprimanded for not going to school. Upper right: Mabel Marmont Hart of Eureka, Kansas, who was killed by her husband, Ivan Hart (right lower). Hart claims his wife was insane and communicated that abnormal state of mind to him. He also asserts she pleaded with him to end her life. (International Newsreel)

HAPPIER DAYS IN SNYDER FAMILY BEFORE TRAGEDY

Pictures that might have been found in any family album clearly show happiness in the days long before stark tragedy entered the Snyder home. Little Lorraine Snyder (left), Mrs. Ruth Snyder (center),

shortly after her marriage to Albert Snyder, who is shown at the left as a boy. Inset is Mrs. Snyder before her days of bobbed hair. (International Newsreel)

OMAHA GIRL HAS FOUND BACKER

Miss Myrtle Brown (right) of Omaha, Neb., sister-in-law of famous designer, Bellanca, is being backed by the Rev. Father James R. Cox of Pittsburgh, Pa., in her proposed flight to Rome. (International Newsreel)

Lost from the Fold

Rev. D. J. Good of Dayton, Ohio, who has been missing for ten days, recently sent his wife money and the church his resignation. It is thought that the missing pastor was on the verge of mental collapse when he disappeared. (International Newsreel)

$1,000 A DAY FOR HEROINE OF ATLANTIC HOP

Ruth Elder, famous woman flier, is here shown affixing her signature to a contract to appear in vaudeville for 100 days at a salary of $1,000 a day. With her is Vice-President Ed. Schiller of vaudeville circuit which landed this highly prized attraction. (International Newsreel)

Co-ed Disappears

Pauline Rosencrance, 18, of Carson City, Mich., student in Michigan State Normal School, has not been seen in several weeks. Friends are using every effort to find the co-ed, who was mentally depressed at the time she vanished. (International Newsreel)

Back From the Orient

Thomas W. Lamont, partner in the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., arrives in San Francisco after trip to Japan during which he investigated banking conditions and found them satisfactory again. (International Newsreel)

Sets Wedding Date

Mary Arden Schroeder, New York society girl, has chosen January 23 as date for her marriage to Clarence Alexander Earl, Jr. (International Illustrated News)

To Replace Sextant

Howard B. Kaster of Berkeley, Cal., is the inventor of a device that supplants the sextant both in nautical and aerial navigation. (International Illustrated News)

TWO PRINCESSES IN BRUSSELS

Exclusive pictures of Princess Astrid (right), wife of Belgium's Crown Prince, walking arm-in-arm with Princess Ingrid (left) of Sweden. The two Princesses enjoy walking incognito and looking at the shop displays in Brussels. (International Newsreel)

SENORITA CALLES LIKES OUR BOYS

Alicia Calles, daughter of the president of Mexico, is visiting in Washington, D. C., and informs the press that American boys and girls have quite delighted her. (International Newsreel)

HERE'S YOUR SANTA UP TO DATE

Maris Gambarelli, known to thousands of radio fans as "Gamby," and member of the Roxy New York "Gang," just couldn't resist the temptation to be the first flapper Santa Claus. (International Illustrated News)