OH, KAY.

Monday evening, January 30th the Dramatic Club of O'Neill High School under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Goodidge, presented the three act comedy-farce OH, Kay!

"OH, Kay!" a mystery play, well adapted to high school talent, was well given and much credit is due the cast and their director.

The story of the play deals with "Gramp," an old man whose family considered him to old to do anything, whose only pleasure is derived from association with "Lizzie" his Ford; "Gram," his better half whose only solace in life is clipping coupons—for patent medicines; Arthur, Grams grandson, whose family thinks he is too young to shoulder the responsibility of protecting his mother while his father, a sea captain is away; Edith, Arthur's sister, whose ambition is to write a detective story without flaws; Kay Mills, a girl detective, who lives only to catch the "Black Terror," who shot her father. After his capture she lives for Arthur only. Of course the climax comes when Kay, Gramp, Arthur and Gram each capture a "Black Terror." The one Kay captures turns out to be the real "Black Terror," while the others are friends of the family masquerading. The character parts, and leading comedy roles were played by Marjorie Carter, and Charles Hancock, Arthur their grandson, Billie Griffin; Arthur's mother Beryl Winchell; his father, the sea captain, Edmund Hancock; Edith, his sister, Gladys Williams; Kay Mills of the Millis Detective Agency, Lois Brentson; the three friends of the family masquerading as the "Black Terror," Phoebe Abdouch, Jess Kellogg, and Ambrose Rhode; and the real "Black Terror," Ralph Oppen.

The Dramatic Club is to be highly commended on their production and we hope to see others presented by them during the year.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH LADIES CONDUCT SERVICES SUNDAY EVENING

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will not let the men of their church get ahead of them in anything. A short time ago the gentlemen conducted the evening services with a very attractive program; so the ladies arranged a program which, the ladies say, outclassed the men although the men will not admit it.

The program was as follows: Mrs. C. B. Scott presided at the piano.

The Choir: Mrs. W. B. Graves, Mrs. D. H. Clauson, Mrs. H. H. Beers, Mrs. L. A. Burgess, Dr. Margaret Frost, Miss Ruth Scott, Miss Florence Malone, Miss Amolia Merrill, Miss Luella Lewis, Miss Iva Langmack, and Miss Gurna Oppen.

The Ushers were Mrs. Surber and Mrs. S. A. Arnold.

Mrs. R. M. Sauters presided as chairman.

Opened the meeting with an old son in a new book, No. 488.

The chairman gave a very fine boost for all the activities of the church.

Followed by song No. 594

Prayer by Mrs. Loy.

Scripture Reading: Given by fourteen girls of Mrs. Wise Sunday school class in concert.

Mrs. J. H. Wise gave a talk on the twenty-third Psalm.

Announcements were then made of the various church activities for the week.

Collection, preceded by a nice talk by the chairman followed by prayer.

Selection, sung by Mrs. D. H. Clauson as solo and chorus; second part sung by Miss Amolia Merrill and chorus.

Mrs. H. H. Beers gave a talk on "The Cost of Being Useful."

Mrs. C. J. Malone talked on "Church and the Community."

Mrs. H. H. Haffner's subject was "Environment."

Prayer was the subject on which Mrs. C. E. Yantzi made her remarks.

All the names of the books in the bible were repeated by Little Miss Ruth Page.

"The Church of the Work of God" was the subject of Miss Luella Lewis' confided her remarks.

Mrs. L. A. Carter talk was on "The Golden Rule."

Mrs. Geo. Bressler's theme was "The Bible."

"Our Bible Class" was the subject of Mrs. J. H. Meredith's talk.

"Our Women" by Mrs. Geo. A. Miles.

"Christian Characters of the Bible" by Mrs. E. F. Roberts.

Mrs. W. B. Graves, superintendent of the Primary Department, gave a talk on "Influence."

Dismissed by "Song Prayer."
