

We Guarantee Satisfaction

Try our Gas and Oils. Trade with a home concern where your business is appreciated. The only Independent Gas and Oil Station in O'Neill.

Mellor Motor Co.

O'NEILL GUN CLUB AGAIN DEFEATS CHAMBERS BOYS

Twelve of the crack shots of the O'Neill Gun Club went down to Chambers last Sunday and gave the south country lads another "trimming." The O'Neill club members were in fine form and did some good shooting.

Morris Graham was the high score man with twenty-five straight.

The O'Neill club have not yet been defeated and wish The Frontier to say that they will challenge the world and will shoot against all comers. The boys are real peppy and want to meet some team that thinks they can shoot. Following is the score:

O'Neill	Chambers
Roy Warner	11101 11011
Bert Gunn	11111 11101
R. E. Calvert	11011 11111
Jess Scofield	00111 11111
Ed. Burge	01010 00010
A. E. Stevens	11111 11111
Ross E. Harris	01110 11111
C. W. Porter	11111 11111
Forest Smith	11001 11111
L. K. Hough	10111 11111
Morris Graham	11111 11111
Ralph Scofield	11110 11111

O'Neill	Chambers
Walter Scott	01111 10111
B. Hubbard	01110 01111
S. Farrer	01101 01111
C. Fees	01010 11110
H. Hubbard	01111 11011
A. Faiquier	01110 00111
C. Wyatt	11011 11111
Bill Russ	11111 11111
D. Faiquier	10111 11111
T. Tibbetts	11101 10111
T. E. Newhouse	01000 10100
O. Woods	10010 11110

O'Neill average 20%.

REV. LUTHER M. KUHN'S ADDRESS THE MASONS

Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, of Omaha, made the Washington day address to the Masons, their wives and other invited guests at the Methodist church last evening. Rev. Kuhns is a Past Grand Chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nebraska and a Past Grand Chaplain of the Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite and a prominent Thirty Third Degree Mason.

A large chorus of mixed voices rendered a number of selections. Light refreshments were served in the church basement following the program.

O'Neill	Chambers
11100 11011	11111-20
11001 11111	11111-22
11111 01111	11111-23
01010 11110	01111-18
11111 11110	11110-16
11111 11111	01111-24
11111 11110	10111-21
11111 01010	11001-20
11100 11110	01101-18
11111 10111	01001-20
11111 11111	11111-25
10111 01101	01011-19

O'Neill	Chambers
10111 11111	11111-22
11111 01111	11111-21
11111 11101	00011-18
00000 11101	01111-14
11111 11111	11110-22
01010 10100	01111-14
11111 10111	01111-22
01101 11111	01111-22
11011 01111	00111-20
11110 11010	11011-18
11101 11110	11011-15
01100 00011	11111-15

Chambers average 18%.

LOCAL NEWS.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Moeller, Jr., of Stuart, on February 13th.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Miksch, of Stuart, Monday, February 12th.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterner last Friday at their home in this city.

Miss Peggy Egan, of Omaha, spent from Sunday until Wednesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. O'Connell.

J. B. Mellor and Dr. L. A. Burgess drove to Omaha Wednesday in J. B.'s new Ford, and are attending the auto show.

Frank Hopkins came up from Omaha the first of the week and was shaking hands with his many O'Neill friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stein accompanied by Jay Butler, of Inman, drove to Omaha Wednesday, to attend the auto show which is now going on.

Inman Leader: Word was received that Mae Goree underwent an operation for cancer at the hospital in Fremont where she is making her home with a daughter.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morrow, of Meek, last Tuesday. The new arrival is the twelfth child in the Marrow family all of whom are hale and hearty.

Mrs. Bert Powell departed for St. Cloud, Florida, Wednesday morning, where she will visit for a month with her parents. Her father has been in poor health for some time.

The Isaak Walton league down at Inman are arranging for a banquet at their regular meeting on March 12th. The state president will be present and make an address.

Mrs. Nellie Simmons accompanied her daughter, Miss Maxine, to Fremont, Nebraska, Tuesday morning. The latter was suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. R. M. Sauer expects to entertain the members of the H. O. A. club at her home Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Degan, Buffalo Gap, South Dakota, a former member of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gatz were Norfolk visitors last Friday.

Mrs. James Moore continues to suffer with a severe attack of rheumatism.

George Clyde came home from a several weeks' visit with his daughter at Ashland.

John Miskimins returned home last week from an extended business trip in the southern states.

Joseph Schollmeyer returned home Monday from Sioux City where he had been with a car of hogs.

Andy Davis came up from Sioux City and spent Sunday with his mother and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Beaver Crossing, Nebraska, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Pelz Sunday and Monday.

Leon Sargent went to Norfolk, Wednesday, to consult Dr. Gadbois in regard to some trouble he is having with his head.

J. B. O'Sullivan has purchased the Olds lots in the southeastern part of the city and will move his house onto them in the near future.

Dick Klinetobe stopped in O'Neill the first of the week and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clauson. Dick was enroute to points in Iowa.

Mrs. F. J. Radliff received the announcement last Friday of the death of her brother, E. H. Harp, at Douglas, Wyoming. She received no particulars in regard to the death.

Scott Hough has had his men in Orchard, Elgin and Neligh during the past week or ten days loading an engine, generator and other equipment into a car at Orchard to be shipped to Alabama.

Scott Hough received a Model No. 20 washing machine as a gift from the Interstate Power Company last week. Mr. Hough contributed the best essay about the particular washing machine in a recent radio contest.

Rev. G. W. Ballard expects to leave early Sunday morning for Hampton, Iowa, where he will receive his official appointment as administrator of the estate of the late J. H. Corcoran, in probate court Monday morning in that city.

Mrs. D. Abdouch and Mrs. Anton Toy were in Norfolk the first of the week.

Miss C. F. McKenna entertained the Martez club at the Golden hotel Monday evening. Mrs. P. B. Harty won the high score prize.

Conductor C. L. Mooney, who for many years was conductor on the Burlington between Sioux City and O'Neill, has moved from Sioux City to Hastings, Nebraska, and will be conductor on the Burlington Hastings-Omaha passenger run.

A small fire was discovered in the nick of time on the exterior of the Frank Frolich residence last Saturday morning. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the electrical wiring near the roof of the residence. No damage was done.

A small blizzard visited this vicinity Wednesday. A little snow fell throughout the day accompanied by a heavy wind. Wednesday evening the wind went down and the storm was over. Only a very little snow fell and the roads are not badly drifted in this locality.

A number of very fine display windows were in evidence Wednesday in respect for the memory of George Washington. Among those that deserve special mention was the cake in the bakery window which represented a cherry tree, the hatchet, blocks of wood and chips from the log.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wintermote, of Douglas, Wyoming, have been visiting relatives and friends in and near Chambers for the past three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Wintermote have been visiting at Benton, Kansas, for the past three months. They returned to their home in Douglas, the first of the week.

The maintenance department sent the large tractor and grader out over the highway north Monday morning. The big outfit will spread the gravel on the five mile stretch of road between the Eagle creek and the Niobrara river. The Western Bridge Company had the contract for the graveling of this strip of road.

W. H. Crippen, superintendent of the maintenance department of the federal system of Holt county, informs The Frontier that the maintainers are busy every day on the federal highways in the county. The maintainers working out of O'Neill are manned by Emery Peterson, going east; Leo Carney, west; Fred Richardson, north for 13 miles; Earl Kuhns has charge of the work from there to the Niobrara river.

A county Methodist ministers association was formed when the Methodist ministers of the county and their wives gathered at the Methodist church in Emmet last Monday evening. Rev. Clinton Senefelt, of Atkinson, was chosen president, and Miss Anna Nelson, of Emmet, secretary. A banquet was served in the church basement at 6:30. Mrs. G. W. Baller read a selection. Rev. Ballard preached later in the evening.

Inman Leader: C. D. Keyes received a newspaper clipping from Rock Falls, Illinois, the first of the week announcing the death of J. H. Mechleng one of the early residents of Inman, which occurred at the home of his daughter in Portsmouth, Illinois, where he was on a visit. Many of the early settlers of this community will probably remember Mr. Mechleng. He was the first depot agent here and was prominently identified with the Presbyterian church, being Sunday school superintendent for many years.

Atkinson Graphic: Mr. and Mrs. Chambers township, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary the 7th inst., says their daughter, Mrs. Kasper Harley. Mr. Brown, who is 78 and Mrs. Brown 70 were married in Illinois fifty years ago. There were sixty-five relatives and neighbors present; all of the members of the family except two daughters, Mrs. Louis Siegler, of Boulder, Colorado, and Mrs. Minnie Howerton, who resides at Brighton, Colorado. A big supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Brown were given $50 in gold pieces.

Charles Reka has disposed of his interests in the Mellor Motor Company to Mr. T. O. Miller, of Casper, Wyoming, who became associated with the firm as of January 1st. Mr. Miller arrived in O'Neill last Tuesday and will make O'Neill his home. Mrs. Miller (who will be remembered here as Margaret Dorsey) will not come to O'Neill until June as she is teaching in Casper. Mr. Miller has been in charge of the casing head gas system for the Mammoth Oil Company located in the Teapot Dome. The Mammoth Oil Company was part of the Sinclair interests and has been in the hands of a receiver since March, 1924, but has been operating until January 1st when it went out of business as a result of the final order of the court in the Sinclair episode. Mr. Miller is also a lawyer and is a member of the American Legion.

LOSES CASE IN HIGHER COURT.

(Inman Leader.) The supreme court Monday reversed and dismissed the case of Louis Tomjack of Ewing against the Northwestern Railroad Company, from Holt County, where Tomjack got $500 judgment for injuries sustained in running his car off a culvert. The court says that the evidence shows the culvert was properly constructed as a part of a highway and that Tomjack was negligent in not warning the driver after he saw the danger ahead.

MRS. BRIDGET CLARK.

Mrs. Bridget Clark died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. R. Sullivan in this city last Saturday at the age of seventy-five years. She was born in Ireland. She came to Holt county with her husband twenty-five years ago last May, from Wayne county.

She was united in marriage to Patrick Clark in Clinton, Iowa, fifty-seven years ago last October.

To this union were born seven children, Mrs. M. R. Sullivan, O'Neill; Mrs. John Kesterson, Fort Morgan, Colorado; Frank Clark, Buffalo, South Dakota; Mrs. Margaret Thomas, Seattle, Washington; Miss Anna and Miss Helen Clark, both of Omaha; James Clark, Wyoming.

The children from away to attend the funeral are Anna and Helen of Omaha.

Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, conducted by Father M. J. Brady; burial was made in Calvary cemetery.

The pall bearers were R. E. Gallagher, R. R. Morrison, Jerry Hanley, M. H. McCarthy, Pat O'Donnell and H. E. Coyne.

MRS. GEORGE BAIRD.

Mrs. George Baird died at her home eighteen miles northeast of O'Neill last Monday following an illness of some duration. The cause of her death was given as Bright's disease and heart trouble.

Grace Fletcher was born December 6, 1886, in Wayne County, Iowa, where she grew to womanhood. She was married to George Baird, March 10, 1914; to this union one son, Franklin, who with her husband, father, mother, four brothers and four sisters survive.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Guy W. Ballard, pastor of the Methodist church. The remains were shipped to Winside, Nebraska, where burial will be made today.

S. C. ROMINE.

S. C. Romine, of Holdridge, Nebraska, died in the Stuart hospital last Thursday morning following a short illness. Mr. Romine came to O'Neill on Thursday of the previous week to assist Levi Hull during the opening of the cream station and dairy plant. A short time after arriving here he began to feel poorly and was taken to the hospital where he passed away. The cause of his death was pneumonia and diabetes. The remains were taken to his home in Holdridge for burial.

JOHN JOSEPH REARDON.

A son, John Joseph, was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reardon of this city last Thursday evening. The little one was not long for this life. He was baptized Friday morning and passed away the same evening at 11:30. The remains were laid to rest in Calvary cemetery Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Reardon and family have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their little son.

WILLIAM JAMES WELLER.

(Atkinson Graphic.) William J. Weller, 44, passed away at his home in Atkinson at 11:35 a. m. Tuesday, the 14th inst., following a few days illness from pneumonia. William James Weller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weller of this city, was born at Kerkhoven, Minnesota, March the 3rd, 1884. The family moved to Holt County where they have since resided, in 1886, when the deceased was two years old.

In 1914 he was married to Miss Lily Pirce, of Amelia, Nebraska, and who, together with six young sons survive him; also his parents, one sister, Mrs. Timothy O'Connell and five brothers—Francis and Wallace, twin brothers, of Atkinson; Fred E., of Douglas, Wyoming, and George and Myron at present in Texas.

Funeral services are held at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 9 o'clock today and interment in the parish cemetery.

ST. MARY'S PUPILS PRESENT A PLAY

St. Mary's Dramatic club presented "Storling of Fontenelle" Tuesday evening. The cast was as follows:

- Miss Henrietta Babcock—Loretta Carr.
- Margaret Foster—Mary Pribil.
- Betty Brasted—Catherine Zastrow.
- Delphia—Lucille Graham.
- William Kane—Harlan Agnes.
- Spick Andrews—Ivan Pruss.
- Professor Playte—William Beha.
- Jack Turner—Ben Clifford.
- Dick Downey—Frank Gallagher.
- Mac Storling—John McCarthy.
- Rosy—Gertrude Enright.
- Bob—Cletus Sullivan.
- Dr. Vincent Storling—Philip Kenney.

There was a large and appreciative audience. The minuet and drills by the little folk were very beautiful and the songs by the girls' Glee club were well received.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Campfire Girls, under the leadership of Miss Minerva Merrell, will have a part in the evening service this Sunday evening. This new type of service will appeal to our many friends. Plan to spend the whole day with us. Always welcome.

THERE is no essential difference between the man who buys something he knows he cannot pay for, and the thief who takes something without paying for it.

The O'Neill National Bank

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $125,000.00

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders.

KLOEPPER-DEVALL.

Alvin Kloepper and Miss Rose Devall, of Meek, were united in marriage at Butte, Nebraska, on Thursday, February 16th. Rev. J. E. Largent, pastor of the Methodist church at Butte officiating.

Mrs. Devall has been employed at Dallas, South Dakota, for some time. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Devall of Meek.

Mr. Kloepper is a prosperous farmer residing about eight miles northwest of O'Neill where he and Mrs. Kloepper will reside.

The Frontier extend congratulations.

HOWE-POTTER.

Miss Treva Potter and Loyd Howe surprised their many friends when they slipped away to O'Neill, last Thursday, February 16th, where they were united in marriage by Judge C. J. Malone at the court house. Mrs. Howe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Potter and is a young woman who possesses a kind disposition that will help to make a happy home. Mr. Howe is a young man of industrious habits. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Howe, of Amelia. They are receiving the congratulations and best wishes of friends. They will be at home after March 1st at the Howe ranch southeast of Chambers.

VOTE OF THANKS.

In behalf of Simonson Post of the American Legion we want to express our gratitude to all who assisted us in rendering "A Bachelor's Escapades," the musical comedy.

R. M. SAUERS, Commander.

OWNERS OF AUTOMOBILE AND TRUCK DRIVERS:

Mr. Chairman: I move you that the Sheriff be instructed to have printed in each paper in the County a notice that on and after March 1st, 1928, anyone driving an automobile or truck in the County without a 1928 license or driving an automobile or truck owned in Holt County with a license from another County are subject to arrest and the Sheriff is hereby instructed to make arrangements to have some one in each city or village to look after this matter and have each such person arrested.

C. B. NELLIS,
E. GIBSON.

State of Nebraska,
County of Holt, ss:
I, E. F. Porter, County Clerk of Holt County, Nebraska, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Resolution as passed by the County Board of Supervisors in regular session February, 1928.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this office this 15th day of February, 1928.

E. F. PORTER,
County Clerk.

38-2

NOTICE TO FEDERAL INCOME TAXPAYERS

For the convenience of those who are required by law to file Federal Income Tax Returns, a Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue will be at O'Neill, Nebraska, on March 14 and 15, 1928, to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns. No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing your Income Tax Return should be given immediate attention, in order to avoid penalty and interest.

Royal Theatre

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 26-27

"Seventh Heaven"

—with—

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell.

Lister Film-fans have you ever seen a perfect photo-play? NO! Well you'll have the chance of your life Sunday and Monday.

DON'T MISS IT!

Coming March 1-2—Lon Chaney in "London After Midnight." March 4-5—Emil Jennings in "The Last Command."